London, Zurich, Hong Kong, Singapore, The Hague, Marseille, New York, Rome, Tokyo.

Published With The New York Times and The Washington Post

No. 32,872

44/88

PARIS, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1988

ESTABLISHED 1887

Kohl Misstated Soviet Pledge He Apparently Exaggerated Political Prisoner Plan

By Robert J. McCartney

Washington Past Service
BONN — Chancellor Helman Kohl overstated Soviet willingness to free political prisoners during his trip to Moscow last week, and the glitch apparently resulted from a communications breakdown between him and Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher, government sources said Monday.

The sources also said that the Kohl administration had stepped up a diplomatic campaign, target-

The Soviet Union is preparing laws that will make it easier for citizens to emigrate, according to Justice Minister Boris V. Kravtsov. Page 2

ed mainly at the United States and Britain, on behalf of Soviet proposals for a human rights conference in Moscow in 1991 and for a summit meeting on European conventional forces.

West Germany is carefully staying within the boundaries of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's positions on Moscow's initiatives. But it is openly responding more positively than the United States or Britain to proposals now at the center of what is frequently called the Soviets' continual "charm offensive" in Western Europe.

Signs have accumulated that Mr. Kohl erred in saying at a news conference Wednesday that the Kremlin was ready to release all people regarded by the West as political prisoners by the end of the year. In fact, the Soviets' assurances were considerably less sweeping, government sources said.

The Soviets apparently meant that they would release people held under two Soviet legal articles, the sources said. Western countries, however, also consider political prisoners to include some people confined in mental institutions and those held in cases related to religious beliefs.

The Soviet foreign minister, Eduard A. Shevard-nadze, reaffirmed to Mr. Genscher an earlier posi-tion that steps would be taken so that no one in the West would be able to say by the end of the year that the Kremlin was holding political prisoners,

The Soviets have said that the number to be deased is in the dozens, while the United States See KOHL, Page 6

Labor Fears Backlash at Polls After Attack on an Israeli Bus

By Joel Brinkley

New York Times Service JERUSALEM — The Israeli Labor Party realized its worst night-mare on this election eve as millions of voters prepared to go to the poils on Tuesday with their heads filled with the images of a father grieving over the deaths of his wife and three babies, who were killed Sunday night in a firebomb attack.

The Labor Party canceled all 15 of its final campaign appearances scheduled for Monday as a sign of mourning for Rachel Weiss, a 26year-old elementary school teacher,

Kiosk

U.S. Eases Ban

On Pyongyang
WASHINGTON (AP) --The United States relaxed trade, travel and diplomatic restrictions against North Korea on Monday to support South Korean efforts at eas tensions on the peninsula. A spokesman for the State Department, Charles E. Red-man, said the United States would encourage unofficial, nongovernmental visits from North Korea in academics, sports, culture and other areas. He said that group travel to North Korea by Americans would be considered case by sell the world's tallest building, Sears Tower, in a restructuring move. Page 9.

General News

Moscow reported reaching a partial border accord with Business/Finance and 10 months. They were burned to death when ers meant to strike civilians. Arabs ambushed a bus with five firebombs just outside the West Bank town of Jericho.

Shares of Kraft Inc. surged after the company agreed to a $13.5 billion takeover. Page 9.

residents who military officials said confessed to the attack, telling interrogators they planned it several days ago. The army said only that they belonged "to a local organiza-

Their homes were destroyed, and on Monday afternoon the military election day. used buildozers to uproot olive trees along the side of the road here the attack occurred.

Political figures of the left and the right began discussing institut-ing the death penalty for crimes such as this one. Israel has no death penalty now. Defense Minister Yitzhak Rabin said Monday he had learned that ments before the civilian bus was

Since the ambushers made no

and her three children, aged 3, 2 attempt to attack that vehicle, he and 10 months.

Mr. Rabin made no predictions about how the attack would affect the elections. But several weeks The army arrested three Jericho ago, referring to such attacks in general, he said: "I learned a long time ago that Arab extremism only feeds the Israeli right extreme."

Armon Rubenstein, leader of the small leftist Center-Shinui Party, said, "This is the best gift that the extreme right could receive on Polls as late as last Friday showed the Labor Party and the Likud bloc caught in a ne. Surveys have showed a virtual tie since late summer, but analysts have said all along that an event such as this on election eve could break the dead-

After eight Israeli soldiers died in a car bomb attack in southern an army vehicle had passed the Lebanon earlier in the month, anaspot of the ambush, just outside the lebanon earlier in the month, analysts Bank town of Jericho, mobenefit. Israeli newspapers report-ed Monday that Labor Party polls

See ISRAEL, Page 6

Imelda Marcos Pleads Not Guilty in New York Court

Imelda R. Marcos, accompanied by security guards, leaving her hotel Monday for arraignment at U.S. District Court. She pleaded not guilty to racketeering charges. The indictment accuses her and her husband. Ferdinand E. Marcos, the former Philippines president, of misappropriating $268 million to buy New York real estate. Bail was set at $5 million, and the judge ordered her to remain in New York until the bail package was approved. The Marcoses face 50 years in prison. Page 6.

Poland to Close Lenin Shipyard Over Objections From Solidarity

By Jackson Diehl

Washington Post Service WARSAW — The Polish govment amounced Monday that it was closing the historic Lenin shipyard in Gdanak, the birthplace and stronghold of the Solidarity trade union. The move appeared likely to touch off a new conflict with the banned movement.

Prime Minister Micczyslaw Rakowski, who has steered the Communist leadership away from an incipient dialogue with the opposi-tion, portrayed the liquidation of the sprawling, century-old complex as an economic decision.

But Solidarity leaders interpreted the action, due to take effect Dec. I, as a blatant political provo-cation. Activists in Gdansk said workers could strike when the shipvard returned to work Wednesday after a two-day holiday.

Lech Walesa, the Solidarity lead-er, who works in the shipyard, called the decision "a personal provocation of Prime Minister Rakowski against the birthplace of Solidarity." Mr. Waless, an electrician, led the 1980 strike at the facility that ended with the creation of the Soviet bloc's first free trade

The shipyard and its 9,000 workers became the focal point this year for two waves of anti-government strikes that swept the country in April and August. As in 1980, the image of the Lenin shippard's main gate draped with Solidarity banners, crucifixes and flowers was broadcast around the world and offered a symbol of the union's idealistic, nonviolent struggle.

Mr. Walesa agreed to end the second strike only after Communist authorities promised to hold talks to consider making Solidarity legal again. He had difficulty persuading the militant and mostly young core of strikers to give up the protest. Finally, the union chief-pledged he would lead a new strike

if the authorities backed away from

The closure announcement ap-peared to signal a government deci-sion to retake the offensive against Solidarity rather than seek agreement. Plans for broad negotiations between the government and the opposition stalled last week after thorities backed down from several procedural agreements and in-sisted on banning two members of Solidarity's delegation.

In an interview Monday with the British Broadcasting Co., Mr. Ra-kowski said he expected his decision could lead to a conflict. But he said, "Even if there are some troubles, it's not my biggest problem. My biggest problem is to make the economy more healthy."

Mr. Rakowski denied that his move was politically oriented. "It has nothing to do with Solidarity."

Instead, he said, the closure was a step toward restructuring the economy mandated by the Lenin shippard's losses. "If someone wants to make the Polish economy more healthy," he told the BBC, "he has to start with very strong

The government has frequently announced its intention to shut down some of the hundreds of unprofitable state industrial enterprises. The new minister of industry, Mieczysław Wilczek, said last week that he had asked his staff to draw up a target list of 150 compames to be closed.

The Lenin shipyard is the first major industrial firm whose closure has been announced. Its losses in 1987, 1.7 billion zloties ($6.5 million), were considerably less than those of the nearby Paris Commune shipyard in Gdynia as well as many other industrial firms. Econ-omists and government economic reports say the most unprofitable and heavily subsidized polish com-

See POLAND, Page 6

A Reagan Legacy: More Younger Voters Turning to Republican Party For Dukakis, a Metamorphosis to Populist From Technocrat

They Like the Oldest President's Tax and Foreign Policies

By E.J. Dionne Jr. New York Times Service

WASHINGTON - It is said that the future belongs to the young, which gives the Republican Party a lot to look for-

Whoever wins the 1988 presidential election, the Republican Party has made major strides in this election year and in the previous seven, not only holding but expanding its advantage among young people, largely because of the appeal that Ronald Reagan, the nation's oldest president, holds for the young.

Younger voters are poised to vote heavily for Vice President George Bush, and their long-term inclinations represent the party's best hope of escaping the minority status it has held since the

At the heart of the long-term Republi-can gains is the personality of Mr. Rea-gan. But what began as a love affair with Mr. Reagan — whom young voters vast-ly preferred over Jimmy Carter, the other president they know - has deepened into a marriage between many younger people and his Republican party. With that alliance, many young peo-ple have come to accept the word conservative, though not necessarily for all the ideas connected with it. The young tend to favor low taxes, but they favor government programs more than their ciders do. While they tend to support Mr. Reagan's assertive foreign policy, they are wary of his conservative social

What is clear from a study of the responses by more than 5,000 young voters interviewed by The New York Times-CBS News Poll in the autumns of 1980, 1984 and 1988, is that young peo-ple have decidedly shifted their alle-giances, to the Republicans' benefit. In

See YOUTH, Page 7

By T.R. Reid

Washington Past Service FRESNO. California - Governor Michael S. Dukakis has taken another step in his October transition to fiery populist from moderate technocrat by embracing the word "liberal," and in his campaign entourage, there is a strong sense that something important has hap-pened to the candidate and his chances in the past several days. Over the weekend Mr. Dukakis challenged Vice President George Bush to a televised debate the night before the election on the meaning of the word ple" but "knows you have to pay your "liberal."

"Yes, I am a liberal in the tradition of Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman and John Kennedy," the Democratic presidential nomince had said on Sunday from the rear platform of the Amtrak train he rode on a whistle-stop tour through the rich produce fields of California's Central Valley.

At a news conference in Fresno, Mr. Dukakis, appearing buoyant, said he would defend the "traditional meaning" of the term "liberal." It refers, be said, to "someone who cares about average peo-

He said that was the "real meaning" of the class-oriented tone of his campaign speeches in recent days, and he challenged Mr. Bush's statement ed Mr. Bush's statement that his populist message could "divide the

If Mr. Bush "wants to talk about this," Mr. Dukakis said at the railroad station in Fresno, "Td be happy to meet him face to face."

Noting that both campaigns have pur-chased a half-hour of television time for See LIBERAL, Page 7

Dubai's Task: Melding Old and New

By Alan Cowell

New York Times Service
DUBAL, United Arab Emirates - With grass seed from Georgia and around $10.5 million, the rulers of this emirate on the Gulf have turned the descrt green to create what is said to be the only all-grass, 18-hole championship golf course in the Arab Middle East.

For a few million more, they have built what is said to be another first: a hospital for falcons, where computer chips implanted in feathered patients list their medical hi-tech to their camel races, too, equipping diminutive jockeys with radios to receive their trainers' instructions, and bolting rider to have been ruled as dynasties by beast with Velcro fastening, instead sheikhs who hold supreme power

Thus, in part, does old meet new and West nuzzle East in a place that used to be called the Pirate Coast - a place that now, with money from oil, is striving for a new reputation embracing industry

Like other spots along the Gulf, however, the oil money has tele-scoped history so that an ancient place of traders and pearlers, now a glitter of newness, even boasts its own ice-rink. Some think traditions have been eroded. Yet, new techfeathered patients list their medical nologies have been enlisted in part records. They have brought a little to exploit modernity's perceived benefits and, in part, to revive old ties between rulers and ruled.

For centuries the Gulf emirates have been ruled as dynasties by yet seek public consent through plaint might be heard, or patronage

But modernity has brought a challenge, welding seven emirates stretching from Abu Dhabi to Fujaira together as a federation called the United Arab Emirates, born in 1971 as the British withdrew.

Thus, • Western specialist said, "There are two simultaneous systems, the federal and the majlis," ng audience. "They live in uneasy harmony," he said, the rul-ers' power offset by a federal bureaucracy drawn largely from the droves of foreigners lured by oil. In recent years, the specialist said, falling oil revenues and a fear

among rulers that "too much power See EMIRATES, Page 6

After Science Class, a Diaper Change

By Rene Sanchez

WASHINGTON - At noon each weekday, as her Hart Junior High classmates break for lunch, Danita Wright walks alone from science class to a job she never expected to have so soon. Miss Wright skips down two flights of stairs, sips in silence past lockers lining a long and empty basement hallway of the school, then opens a classroom door with paper taped across its slim window - so ontsiders can't peck.

Inside, Miss Wright's 7-month-old son,
Matt, is waiting to be fed.
The classroom is bright and neat, with aqueaking toys spread across a rainbow-col-ored rug listing the alphabet, with white cribs laced side by side, with diapering instruc-ons tacked to the wall. Miss Wright, a 15-ax-old minth grader, hugs Matt while other tokes play with balls or suck bottles and wait r their mothers, who are not yet out of class.

"I look forward to coming to school now, because I get to see my son here every day. Miss Wright said, with a faint smile. "It's a lot of work, but it doesn't bother me that much as long as I'm with him. I guess I just do the best I can, and deal with whatever comes." Miss Wright is among a growing number of teen-agers allowed to carry their children along with their books into Washington's public schools.

This fall, the city school system opened an infant care center at Hart Junior High School. With beds for 12 babies, all of whom are between 6 weeks and 2 years old, Hart became the first junior high in the city with such a center. It is one of only a few junior high unrecries in the United States.

The effort under way inside the basement classroom resembles programs established in recent years at two Washington high schools. Like those, it has a twofold purpose: to care for babies fighting long odds to live healthy lives and to teach parenting skills to young teens overwhelmed by the duties motherhood brings. The school system operates the centers through a partnership with the city's Department of Human Services.

Kenneth Milner, the school principal, called the center "tremendously important," and he bristled at critics who say that its feelgood setting may encourage the mothers, and their friends, to have children at such a young

"We should not condemn these young peo-ple and just leave them somewhere," Mr. Milner said. "But we should educate them so it won't happen again. Most of the girls understand they've made a mistake, and they know they have to live with it. We're doing everything we can to help them become via-ble citizens, to give them a second chance." School officials acknowledged that the three infant centers assist only a small fraction of the city teen-agers who give birth and,

See INFANTS, Page 6

Gandhi Launches Re-election Drive With Huge Rally

Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi, standing in front of a portrait of his mother, Indira Gandhi, held his bands in a traditional greeting before a crowd of a million people in New Delhi on Monday. It was the fourth anniversary of the murder of his mother and served as a platform for his campaign.

Britain Acts To Cut Off Lager Louts

By Sheila Rule

New York Times Service LONDON —On busy streets, in the subways below and amid the after-work squeeze on commuter trains, a menacing, reeling regi-ment is on the attack.

Its young members, emboldened by alcohol and loosely allied by behavior, are known as "lager: louts." They are being accused of sexual assault, harassment, disor-derly conduct and other offenses. The British government, the po-lice and local authorities are marshaling to defeat them. The strategies — they range from a plan to test a ban on public drinking in several towns to police patrols that visit pubs in search of the first signs of rowdiness - underscore a widespread concern over drunkenness and alcohol-related crime in both urban and rural areas. At the same time, they highlight a quandary for the governing Con-servative Party, which is seeking to respond to growing public pressure to curb alcohol-related violence and increase respect for law and order while not treading too heavily on individual liberties.

This month, Home Secretary Douglas Hurd announced a pilot program to test the effectiveness of a bylaw that makes drinking on the street and in certain other public places punishable by a fine of £100 ($177).

The project has been criticized by civil libertarians, who argue that the problem can be dealt with un-der existing laws.

Yet it represents one of a number of moves by the government and See LOUTS, Page 6

Despite Pressure to Assimilate, Soviet Moslems Keep Identity:

By David Remnick

Washington Past Service
TASHKENT, U.S.S.R. — Five times a day in the cotton fields of Central Asia, as in Siberia and Azerbaijan, Soviet Moslems hear the public call to prayer. Only some heed it: The vast majority of the country's 45 million Moslems do not visit mosques regular-ly. But Islam is nevertheless thriving in the Soviet Islamic culture persists in the face of the Communist Party's best efforts to stifle it, and the population growth of Moslems in Central Asia is five times higher than that of Russians, the nation's dominant and most populous ethnic group.

Government-sanctioned Islamic leaders mouth their fealty to the state - and even expound happily on the supposed similarities between Marx and Mommed — but Moslems have resisted ethnic assimilation better than any other major group, according to Western and Soviet experts.

Moscow's concern — at times its protound anxiety —is evident. Even at a time when President Mikhail S. Gorbachev has shown more tolerance toward Christian churches, the Kremlin remains deeply suspicious of the Moslem population boom and the pervasiveness of a culture it deems "feudal and retrograde."

Evidence of this deep-rooted cultural identity is usually subtle and full of contradictions. The other day, in the oldest section of Tashkent, a standard-issue Soviet wedding limousine pulled to a stop. The young couple inside — she in a billowing Western-style gown, he in an ersatz Brooks Brothers suit — seemed at first no different from the scores of Russian couples in Moscow who say their vows at a state wedding palace and then make a pilgrimage to the hush and gloom of the Lenin Mausoleum.

But this couple had been married by an imam, a Moslem cleric, and were now paying their wedding-day respects to a deity more ancient than Lenin.

The Associated Press

MOSCOW - Soviet and Chinese negotiators have reached an agreement settling most of their differences over the eastern sector of their boundary, a Soviet Foreign Ministry spokesman said Monday.

The spokesman, Gennadi L Gerasimov, said that Foreign Minister

Jiangpei, as the the accord was con-

MOSCOW - The Soviet Union poss easier for citizens to emigrate, according to Justice Minister Boris V. all of last year.

is preparing laws that will make it

"A new normative act is being worked out now to regulate ques-tions of exit from the Soviet Union and entry into the Soviet Union,

Mr. Kravtsov said in an interview carried by the official press agency

The right to travel freely and move to another country is still widely opposed in the Soviet leadership, even by figures who are considered to be in favor of liberalization. When the historian Yuri Afanasicy wrote in favor of revising the country's laws and practices on emigration last spring, he was de-nounced in articles.

Mr. Kravtsov, who gave no de-tails about the future of the emigration laws, also said that "even the procedure existing now has facilitated considerably the exit from the Soviet Union or entry into the Sovi-

He said that the government has turned down only 1.5 percent of all applications to leave the country this year and that in the majority of et Union for Soviet citizens."

Russia Reports Accord With China

On Eastern Section of Their Border

cluded. The third round of the bor-sides would continue negotiations on the remaining areas of dispute along the eastern border and had agreed to form a joint working group on their differences over the

The part of the boundary east of

The Soviet Union and China re-session of state secrets. More

Apparently reacting to an an-nouncement by Chancellor Helmut

Mr. Kravisov, however, much lower estimates. He said that two persons were in prison and five in internal exile under Article 70 of the Soviet criminal code, which prohibits anti-Soviet propaganda;

cle 227, which prohibits certain religious practices, and that one was in prison under Article 190, which prohibits the dissemination of

The justice minister said that in the expected revision of the Soviet Criminal Code, Article 70 would be changed and Article 190 would be falsehoods about the state.

dropped altogether.

at two were in prison under Arti-than 40,000 people have emigrated reassured Japan that closer ties be-this year, as opposed to 28,000 for tween Beijing and Moscow would

Kohl of West Germany in Moscow had focused on Mr. Qian's forth-last week that the Soviet Union coming visit and that they had tak-

Kravtsov lowered expectations on ister Igor A. Rogachev said a Chinese-Soviet summit meeting was being considered for next year, and China's acnior leader. Deng Xiaoping, made a similar prediction a week later.

Western human rights groups being considered for next year, and contend that at least 200 people are in prison for their political or religious beliefs and practices.

would release all its political pris-oners by the end of the year, Mr. on Oct. 6, Deputy Foreign M

Mr. Gerasimov said the two der talks began Oct. 20.

Eduard A. Shevardnadze had met Mongolia is about 2,600 kilometers with the chief Chinese negotiator, (1,600 miles) long. The western section is about 1,800 kilometers long.

Soviets Prepare to Ease

Their Emigration Laws

"We're not religious, but we are Moslems," the groom said, leading his bride through the gates of one of Tashkent's few open mosques.

Like nearly all other Moslems, the couple will doubtlessly defy Soviet norms by having their future sons circumcised and by celebrating a Moslem wedding for their daughters. When they die, they will be

. Western specialists say that the likelihood of a fundamentalist movement is almost nil. Despite the broadcasts, Moslems are cut off from their Islamic neighbors. They also recognize that their living conditions, while not up to Moscow's standards, are higher than those in many Moslem states.

But despite Soviet Moslems' ability to straddle the buried in a Moslem cemetery with an imam presiding. line between resistance and defiance, the tension be-Some officials even fear that Soviet Moslems, many tween the party and local culture remains. "What

'Almighty Allah says in the Koran that too many politicians spend their time trying to blow out the light to live in darkness. But they are running out of breath. They cannot win.7

Habibullah Soleh, an Islamic librarian in Tashkent

of whom listen to religious broadcasts beamed into Central Asia from Pakistan and Iran, will somehow begin a fundamentalist revolt. They remember with foreboding the 1986 anti-Russian riots in Alma Ata, the capital of Soviet Kazakhstan.

Last year the KGB chief of the Tadzhik Republic, Vladimir Petkel, accused Islamic clergymen in the republic of having attempted to "penetrate" the Com-munist Party and local government organs in order to wage a jihad against the regime.

On a visit to Tashkent, capital of the Uzbek Republic, two years ago, Mr. Gorbachev said, "We must be strict above all with Communists and senior officials. particularly those who say they defend our morals and ideals but in fact help promote backward views and themselves take part in religious ceremonies." Moscow then began packing the party leadership of the republic with Russians.

sumed the border negotiations in February 1987 as part of an attempt to improve their relations

after more than two decades of hostility. The relations deteriorated in the early 1960s, resulting in skirmishes along the eastern frontier. Since taking power in March 1985, President Mikhail S. Gorbachev has tried to improve relations

Chinese leaders have made better relations contingent on the re-moval of Soviet soldiers from Afghanistan, a settlement of the Cambodian conflict and reduction from Afghanistan, and efforts are under way to negotiate the removal of Vietnamese soldiers from Cam-

In Beijing, Foreign Minister Oian Oichen said his planned visit to the Soviet Union would take place in early December, and be reassured Japan that closer ties be-

On Oct. 6, Deputy Foreign Min-

Basque Separatists Free

Hostage After 8 Months

MADRID - The Basque terrorist group ETA has released a busi-nessman, more than eight months after taking him captive, the police

Emiliano Revilla, 60, a sansage maker, was freed outside a Madrid hospital, police said. Separately, a suspected ETA gunman shot and killed a Spanish policeman Satur-

- DAVID REMINICK day in the Basque city of Bilbao.

not harm other countries. Mr. Gerasimov said that Mr. Shevardnadze's talks with Mr. Tian of tension along the border. Soviet soldiers are withdrawing with the Chinese.

Moscow really can't stand," one said, "is the idea that there are tens of millions of people who resist

Montal Khalmuhamedov is the chief of ideology of the Uzbek Communist Party. As a young man, he says, his grandfather taught him aphorisms from the Koran. But now, as a grown man and party official, his view of Islam in the republic is unforgiving:

"Look, I am a Communist, a Marxist, and I won't play games about it. As a religion, Islam did terrible things. They took away freedoms, especially from women. Members of the party cannot be believers. Marxism and Islam, these are opposites.

The task of my ideological work is simple: With the help of the schools and the mass media, I want to free people of religious influence. I want my ideologi-cal work to achieve the regression of the number of people attending mosques, for which it is necessary to belongs to the scientific and materialist point of view." Elsewhere in Tashkent, a young man named Habibullah Soleh presides over a magnificent library of ancient Islamic texts.

"As a Soviet citizen and a believer," Mr. Soleh said, be admires the "strengths" of both Mr. Gorbachev and Iran's Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini: "They are two halves of the same watermelon, if you know what I mean." And to those party ideologists who would light for the elimination of "the cult" of Islam, he is patient, but straightforward:

"Almighty Allah says in the Koran that too many politicians spend their time trying to blow out the light to live in darkness. But they are running out of breath. They cannot win. These people make me furious. I'd like to put them all away."

At this he mimics an executioner decapitating the offending Communist.

Officials in Tashkent are quick to say that had communism never come to Central Asia and Islam remained the unquestioned cultural and political force, the region would have remained an economic

In fact, Soviet power has made tremendous strides in raising the standard of fiving, Before the revolution only 2 percent of the population of the Uzbek Republic could read or write; now there is near universal literacy. Women, who once were made to wear weils and remain subservient to men, work in universities, academies and administrative jobs. What is clear, though, is that Islam is not fading away.

"We are the fiber of life here," said Sheikh Abdulghani Abdulla, editor of a journal called Moslems of the Soviet Union and deputy chairman of the govern-ment-backed Moslem religious board for Central Asia and Kazakhstan. "We were here in the seventh centu ry, and I can assure you that even more of us will be here tomorrow and the day after that."

Mr. Velavati said that there was no mention of Shatt-al-Arab and that movement at the talks was being delayed "only because of Iraq's unilateral interpretation of

"So the prospects for the present

In another, development, the talks depend on Iraq," he said. "It has to put its expressions of good

British Navy caded its escort of British merchant ships through the

The Defense Ministry in London

said three frigates would remain in the Gulf to belp ships if needed.

It said the frigate Jupiter sailed into the Indian Ocean with the tanker Sandgate on the navy's

1,026th escort mission since it be gan taking ships through the Gulf at the beginning of last year. (UPI, Reuters) eign Military Order of Malta and a reserve officer in the French Army.

FLORENCE (AP) - Pietro An-

nisoni, 78, a portrait artist who painted the British royal family and President John F. Kennedy,

Mr. Annigoni was born in Milan and studied art in Florence. During died Friday of kidney failure.

Pietro Annigoni, 78,

Portrait Artist

resolution 598."

will into practice

WORLD BRIEFS

Civil Court Jails Galtieri and Officers

BUENOS AIRES (Rente/s) — A civil court on Monday ordered 12-year jail terms for former president Leopoldo Galtieri and two other members of the military justa that took Argentina into the 1982 Falk-lands war. The federal prosecutor had asked for tougher sentences. including 20 years for General Galtieri.

The president of the panel of four judges, Horacio Catini, said that the accused had reduced the effectiveness of Argentina's forces through their negligence. He said that all three officers, as equal members of the military committee that conducted the country's war effort, held equal

The court confirmed a 12-year prison sentence for General Galtieri, handed down by a military tribunal in 1984, on charges of negligence and incompetence after Argentina's defeat in the Falklands conflict with Britain. It revised to 12 years the sentences of the two other junta

Police Said to Seize 20 in Tibet Clash

BELIING (WP) - Chinese policemen detained as many as 20 persons. in a recent clash with monks at a Buddhist monastery near Lhasa, according to reports from Western sources in Tibet received in Beijing on

The five-day confrontation was said to be sparked by the Chinese overnment's attempts to control Buddhist monks who have advocated Tibetan independence from China. The government sent officials into a number of monasteries before the beginning of October in an attempt to prevent a repetition of the anti-Chinese rioting that erupted in September of less were

The sources said the latest confrontation empted on Sept. 30 after Chinese government efficials met with Buddhist monks at the Rato monastery 15 miles (25 kilometers) southwest of the Tibetan capital of Lhass. After the meeting, monks destroyed two police cars and the police arrested about 20 persons, including monks and local farmers who were supporting them, the sources said.

Soviet Radar Is Focus of Arms Talks

GENEVA (Reuters) - U.S. and Soviet arms experts talked Monday. about a disputed radar complex in Siberia that is hampering progress its negotiations on reducing strategic nuclear weapons, a U.S. official said, William F. Burus, director of the Arms Control and Disarmament. Agency, headed a U.S. delegation while Viktor P. Karpov, a Soviet arms control official, led the Soviet team in the closed meeting.

The radar installation at Krasnoyarsk has been at the center of a dispute between the superpowers for nearly two years, slowing efforts to reduce the number of their long-range nuclear arsenals. The United States holds that the complex violated the 1972 Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty, which bars the two sides from deploying nationwide defenses against strategic missiles or building bases for setting up such systems.

Beijing and Bonn to Talk Regularly

BELING (Reuters) — China and West Germany signed an agreement Monday to hold regular high-level political consultations, and German nies initialed three business accords with Chinese companies.

The protocol signed by the visiting foreign minister of West Germany, Hans-Dietrich Genscher, and the Chinese foreign minister, Qian Qichen, stipulated talks between foreign ministers or deputy foreign ministers at

The document is the first written agreement on political exchanges of views between the two countries and calls for such contacts to be epened, West German sources said. Mr. Genscher arrived in Beijing on: Sunday with a delegation including executives of computer company, Siemens AG, who signed an agreement for the joint manufacture of digital telephone switchboards in China.

Algiers Hospital Protests Riot Deaths

ALGIERS (Reuters) — About a thousand doctors, nurses and hospital workers marched around the grounds of the largest hospital in Algiers on Monday to protest the way the security forces put down riots in early

The marchers, all in white coats, carried a banner reading "No to torture" and a wreath inscribed "To the memory of the children of October." The hospital received many of the dead and wounded during almost a week of riots prompted by rising prices and falling standards of

The government says 159 people were killed and 154 wounded. Most of them were youngsters shot by the army and police.

Prague May Prosecute Dissidents

VIENNA (AP) - The Czechoslovak Communist Party daily Rude Pravo reported Monday that several of the scores of dissidents and demonstrators who were detained last week could face prosecution on charges ranging from incitement to hooliganism.

Charges of incitement are being brought against people "who spread various appeals and publications attacking Czechoslovak society,"

Under Paragraph 100 of the Czechoslovak criminal code, the penalty. . for incitement is six months' to three years' imprisonment. Rude Pravo, did not say how many people would be charged with incitement, or with other charges. On Friday, 87 people were arrested at a banned rally in Prague that was attended by 5,000 people.

TRAVEL UPDATE

Moscow may scrap visa requirements for tourists crossing the Arctic border from Norway. Brigadier General Inge Torhang, the Norwegian border commissioner, returned Saturday from a three-day visit to Leningrad at the invitation of the Soviet authorities. He told the Norwegian news agency NTB that the head of Soviet border forces in the area. Licutenant General Alexander Viktorov, had told him of planned

British Airways took off smoke-free Monday, hoping that clean air on its domestic flights will boost funds. BA said it was confident that the ban on smoking on internal services would mean a jump in the five million people it carried across Britain last year. The airline has no plans for a smoking ban on overseas routes. Scandinavian Air Systems is to start a daily round-trip flight between Tustrup-Arus airport in eastern Denmark and Frankfurt from March 27% a company spokesman said Monday.

The 17,000 taxi drivers in Athens, locked in a bitter dispute with the government over anti-pollution measures, scaled off the city center Monday, causing traffic chaos for thousands of motorists. The measures halve the number of cars, including taxis, allowed in the city each day by enforcing an odd-even number ban based on license plates. (Remers) Aero Lloyd began scheduled flights linking four West German cities Monday to become the first regular domestic competitor of the state airline Lufthansa. The Frankfurt-based carrier established services between Disseldorf and Heralizer Frankfurt and Heralizer Frankfurt.

tween Dusseldorf and Hamburg, Frankfurt and Hamburg, Frankfurt and ween Disseldorf and Hamburg, Frankfurt and Hamburg, Frankfurt and Munich and Hamburg and Munich. (AP)

Passengers departing from Brussels with Sabena had to carry their huggage on board Monday as some ground employees continued a strike over the implementation of a wage agreement, a Sabena spokesman said. Flights out of Brussels were delayed by up to 30 minutes. (Reuters)

Portugal enjoyed a sharp increase in tourism last year. At least 16.1 million foreigners visited Portugal, a 23.9-percent jump from the previous. year, the Portuguese Statistics Institute reported Monday. Spa dominated heavily, accounting for 77 percent of the total.

concentration-camp sites.

Both Germanys to Mark 'Kristallnacht'

New York City? Gramercy Park Hotel Distinguished 500 room

rez de Cuellar, began mediating a round of Iran-Iraq peace talks

Monday and got the two sides to

Mr. Perez de Cuellar said his posing military forces further apart and repatriating as many as possible, starting with the wound-

The UN chief executive first met separately with the Iraqi foreign minister, Tariq Aziz, and then with the Iranian foreign minister, Ali

Mr. Aziz confirmed that on

ATHENS - Tassos Leivaditis, 66, a leading Greek poet, died Sunday of complications following intestinal surgery.

Mr. Leivaditis's first collection of poems, "Battle at the Edge of the Night," was published in 1952. The third and final volume of his collected works was issued last year.

prolific output of lyric poetry for its controlled emotions and lively

Robert de Lobkowicz, 26,

Member of Aristocracy

Critics praised Mr. Leivaditis's

PARIS (IHT) - Prince Robert

Tuesday there would be a direct 100,000 prisoners of war as fast as south.

main objectives were moving op- and Iraqi sovereignty over the strameeting between the two sides as tional frontiers as specified in UN proposed by Mr. Pérez de Cuéllar. Security Council resolution 598.

"We resume direct negotiations The resolution provides the tomorrow," Mr. Aziz said Monday, agenda for the peace talks and describing his session with the sec-agree to meet.

Akbar Velayati.

botel overlooking Gramercy Park. Excellent Restaurant. Cockrail Lounge, Piano Bar and Room Service. Multi-lingual staff. Minutes to

Singles $105-115 Doubles $110-120 Suites $150-250

Group Rates Available. Call Gen. Mgr. Tom O'Brien Fax 212-505-0535 Telex 668-755 (212) 475-4320

Several special exhibitions on the history of Jews in Germany have aheady opened, including major ones in Nuremberg and East Berlin, and radio and television have initiated special programs, including a panel discussion last week with concentration-camp survivors and or call your local Utell office.

The major television networks have sched-uled extensive coverage of official commemorative ceremonies on Nov. 9.

The main West German ceremonies will be held in Frankfurt, the home of a major Jewish mity in Germany before the Nazi terror. Chancellor Helmut Kohl, President Richard von Weizsäcker, the presidents of all states and major church leaders will join Jewish leaders for memorial services at the main Frankfurt synagogue. They will then inaugurate a new Jewish museum, and the formal ceremonies will conclude with a special program of music and readings at the Old Opera. In East Berlin, the East German parliament has scheduled a special commemorative meeting on Nov. 8, to be followed by a silent mass On Nov. 10, the cornerstone for a new synagogne will be laid in the East German capital. These and other events will be attended by 40 leaders of American Reform Judaism specially invited for the anniversary.

West Berlin has also scheduled a silent march, the central event in a program that fills was to give the night its name, "Crystal Night." Though the Nazis had harassed and peocuted German Jews before and would d more terrible things after, Kristallnacht of be identified as the moment when no clash could any longer claim ignorance of Nazis intended.

The list of other commemorative events will include memorial services at Dachau and other

And virtually every major city and community has announced special programs. In Munich, the mayor will preside over a commemorative gathering at the old town hall, while in Cologne,

the schedule of events includes processions from different corners of the city culminating at

The date entered history when, ostensibly to avenge the assassination of a German diplomat in Paris by a Jew, Josef Goebbels ordered a nationwide pogrom by the National Socialists,

By daybreak, 91 Jews were dead, hundreds were hart, and thousands of synagogues and Jewish shops and home were in rums. The shattered glass on the streets of German cities

the opera house, where the mayor will speak

If you travel Executive Class in the air, shouldn't you stay Regency Class on the ground?

At Hyatt Regency Delhi. the book of hospitality translates into the global language of husiness travellers.

The Hyatt Business Centre, replete with hi-tech facilities. awaits your urgent command With personal computers, telex and telefax machines, and a discreet secretarial service in

For those of you who wish to (ly higher still, the Regency (Jub presents an entire floor of corporate luxury. Thoughtful little touches rejuvenate your tired muscles. While tennis courts beckon the sports minded. like special elevator passkeys, a Four restaurants camper the executive palate. Valentino's concierge service and personalised stationery complement serves the flavours of Italy. elegantly appointed rooms and Pearls, authentic Chinese. Aangan is a taste of India. While suites. While an exclusive lounge and a conference room complete the ideal executive If a workout is part of your daily schedule, step into the Hyau Firness Centre.

A nine-station multigym, jacuzzis, chill pools, saunas, steam buths, massages and a swimming pool

Regency Dennison on a special meaning.
Hospitality redefined TOUCH for business travellers. HYATT REGENCY DELHI

Cafe Promenade brings you the

At the end of a long, hard

Regency Class at Hvatt

day, unwind at the million-dollar

You'll soon find that club discotheque, Oasis.

Bhikairi Cana Place. Ring Road, New Delhi 110 066. Tel: 609911. Th: 031-61512 HYT IN. Fass 678833. For reservations at any of 44 Hyant International Hotels or 89 Hyant Hotels in North America, call Hyant toll-free, or your travel planner.

Business Center, Sightseeing,

Banquet/Meeting facilities.

21st St. and Lex. Ave. N.Y.C.

By Serge Schmemann New York Times Service

Ali Akhar Velayati, the Iranian foreign minister, arriving Monday in Geneva to continue Gulf talks.

UN Chief Sets Up Iran-Iraq Meeting

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatches
GENEVA — The United Nations secretary-general Javier Peters with Stantive."

"We will behave in good faith patriations."

"We will behave in good faith patriations."

and it is up to the other side to show similar good faith," he said.

Mr. Velayati later accused Iraq of keeping the talks deadlocked by insisting on parallel clearance of tegic Shatt-al-Arab waterway dividing the two countries in the

"We are prepared as we have said over and over that dredging tier running down the middle as agreed in 1975," he said.

control over the waterway, Mr. Vo-layati said, troops would already have been withdrawn to interna-

Tassos Leivaditis, Greek Poet, Dies

He was the oldest surviving son of Prince Edouard de Lobkowicz, a

Paris-based financial adviser descended from an ancient Bohemiam noble family, and of Princess

Françoise de Bourbon Parma, niece of the last Austro-Hungarian

Prince Lobkowicz studied at Bucklast Abbey, a Benedictine school in England, and the Univer-de Lobkowicz, 26, scion of two of in banking, but this was cut short Pope John XXIII and Presidents Europe's oldest aristocratic lines, by the diagnosis of a brain tumor Johnson and Kennedy.

empress. Zita died in Lebanou on Saturday, his three years ago. He was a Knight of family announced in Faris on Mon-Honor and Devotion in the Soversity of San Francisco, where he his career, be painted portraits of majored in history and economics. the British royal family, the shah of

He had been intended for a career Iran and his wife, Farah Diba,

Without Iraq's demand for full can begin if it is based on the fron-

BONN — The night of Nov. 9-10, 1938, has always stood out as a fateful turning point in the annals of the Nazi terror, and with the approach of the 50th anniversary of what has come to be known as Kristallnacht, both Germanys have announced plans for a broad range of nationwide ceremonies, conferences and other commemorative acts.

events, including memorial services, concerts, theater programs, literary readings or ceremo-

The anniversary has taken shape as a major act of national atonement and remembrance. Virtually every city and community has announced one or more days of commemorative nies, to be held by governments, political par-ties, churches, schools and organizations.

صكرات المصل

OPINION

Israelis Will Show Them How Free Voting Works

By William Safire

WASHINGTON — The election in Israel this week has this startling similarity with America's election: Swing voters believe what their candidates are saying about each other.

In the United States, that explains why so many undecideds take George Bush to be an elitist, racist meanie, and why so many others take Michael Dukakis to be a frozen, incompetent softy.

In Israel, that is why so many "loaters, take Labor's Shimon Peres to be a slippery manipulator out to give away the nation's security, and so many take Likud's Yitzhak Shamir to be a rigid hawk incapable of making peace. But the truth is that all those dispar-asements are largely false. In both demecracies, whoever wins or loses will be a more astute political figure and a befter all-around human being than almost any leader who now struts and frets on the international stage.

Other similarities in electioneering exist. Democrats in America know that their number two, Lloyd Bentsen, is infinitely more capable than the head of the ticket, Labor politicians there know that their number two, Yitzhak Rabin, would run far ahead of the widely distrusted Mr. Peres. And only in'a campaign's final weeks are a pars two edged swords brought out which is why Jesse Jackson and Ariel Sharon have lately surfaced to rouse

The state of the s

200

- Caring Fall

ल स्ट क्ल

क्रांड य क्यांड

೯ ಜುಡಿಜ್ಯಾಟ್ಯ

ಾ ಬಿ ಮಾಡ್ತು

يدونا بعندا ت

SEC NUMBER

Seini Batt Bi

a was from the

··· v medie

CONTRACTOR

in in river to the second contract of the sec

14.0 THE WEST

コース・マンス 佐田

Printed the second

The Party of the Party of the Learnest the

ಲ್ಲಾಟ್ ∄ಚಿತ್ರಾ

ಎ. ಕಮ್ಮಾರ್ಡಾರೆಗ

and a substantial contraction of

at the section by

· · · · · · Ten imum a distanti di ್ಟೆ ಬ್ಲಾಯಾಜ te. Tertara atta supporters and roil detractors.

4

The great differences between the two elections are these: First, American candidates are campaigning on tangential or symbolic issues — death penalty, fervor of allegiance, mainstreamism while the Israelis are dealing with the gut issues of security and survival. A mistake could cost them everything. Second, Israel's voters are minding their own business - not telling Americans (or Canadians or Pakistanis) whom to vote for. Mr. Dukakis's election would offer Israel more friendship, but not the power or will to back it up; a Bush-Baker-Tower "Texas triumvirate", would pro-vide the strength but would be likely to

Arab Voters to Woo

THE Palestinian uprising has trig-gered waves of solidarity among Arab citizens of Israel, who are likely to defect from mainstream parties in Tuesday's elections. With a voting population capable of electing 14 or 15 members of the Knesset, Israeli Arabs will probably contribute only three or four to the mainstream parties; the rest of the vote will go to three mainly Arab parties, two of hich are pariahs in Israeli politics. Labor would be wise to consider negotiating the support of all three Arab-supported parties after the election.

- Shibley Telhami, commenting in the Los Angeles Times.

twist an evenhanded knuckle in the back. No wonder the Israelis are neutral. Contrariwise, the rest of the world is eaning hard on Israeli voters to elect Mr. Peres, the more malleable, accommodative candidate.

This international pressure plumbed new depths when Mr. Peres acted as the booking agent for Jordan's King Hus-sein on ABC's "Nightline." The little monarch (who never faced a Jordanian voter, and who is in a mit over his unpopularity among Arabs in the West Bank) endorsed Mr. Peres and dumped all over Mr. Shamir. Not since the Soviets tried to defeat Richard Nixon has there been such a ham-handed attempt by an imdemocratic power to influence a democratic election.

Will it work? I'm told that the bizarre campaign weapon backfired in Israel, on the theory that the candidate of my enemy is not my friend. However, the cumulative pressure from abroad -including lopsided media commentary, horrified cooing from American doves and one-sided quacking from American lame ducks — may persuade some ner-vous Israelis that a Likud victory would isolate the nation. It would not.

We would all do well to let Israel decide its future for itself. If we oppose imposing a settlement," we should resist influencing its choice of a leader.

If Mr. Peres wins (45 mandates to 35 for Mr. Shamir's party would be decisive), then Israel's supporters in America would try to see that an international conference called to transfer sovereignty of portions of the administered territories to local Palestinian Arabs did not degenerate into a threatening PLO state. If Mr. Shamir wins (a 62-mandate right-wing coalition would be decisive). then presumably the intifada would see little hope of progress through violence; direct negotiation would be stressed as the route to peace; hawkish friends of Israel would remind Likudniks of their unique ability to deliver on genuine au-tonomy for peaceful Palestinians.

If, as the polls now show, neither side wins, we're all in the soup: another coalition and years of the wrangling that weakens. Even so, an ally is an ally; despite Israeli indecision, the next erican president and Congress would do what is needed to offset Soviet sales to Syria and Libya, and Britain's mindless arming of the Saudis. That's what is so terrific about the U.S. presidential system. Whoever wins even if by an eyelash, as in 1960 - wins it all, and for a fixed term. Voters for the losers gulp and salute, and democracy and national stability are served.

Show your surrounding monarchies and dictatorships the glory of a free election, democratic Israel, Next week, America will show the world bow the majority rules the free superpower. The New York Times.

THIS ONE WE CALL DUKAKIS AN ESKINO WORD MEANING HOPELESSLY STUCK IN ICE.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Regarding "High-Tech Europe: A New

The writer's views seem to be based more on hope than on reality. European electronic industries need international nancing in order to survive fierce com-and Far Eastern rivals.

The first of Mr. Merritt's hopes is the semiconductor. Does be know how very few chips have been sold by European companies to Japan, the largest market in the world, even after the drastic appreciation of the yen in late 1985? U.S.

and Japanese makers still enjoy 90 per-

The second hope is a new high-definition television, HDTV for short. I also hope that European companies win the race, but they suffer from technological

Major European manufacturers of high-tech goods, such as Philips, Olivetti and Thomson, complain about distribution difficulties, complicated assemblerand production-cost disadvantages.

cent of world market share.

Optimism in the Air" (Opinion, Sept. 22) and "New Europe: The Spirit is Willing" (Opinion, Sept. 23), by Giles Merritt:

Don't Expect Brazilians to Sacrifice for Your Oxygen

l can't refrain from reacting to the New York Times editorial on Brazil certainly would produce less of that runing its virgin forests ("Scorched stuff if its indispensable ingredient, oxygen, came at the price it deserves.

HERBERT GRAF. ing to youngsters to please stay away from sex, and telling them why. He has not been successful so far.

We are telling the Third World to abstain from doing all those silly things we did, and with the same purpose: first to make a living and then to make money.

Aren't we selling them those enormously effective, quick tree-cutting tools? Aren't we the ones decorating our houses, apartments and shopping malls course, at bargain prices, because we business strategies, technological advan-need a lot of money for other things, like tage, international marketing and fiyear or buying new cars and stuffing petition from their American, Japanese, phones and faxes into them. Just for fun. While those forest-destroyers struggle to make it through the day.

There is a simple solution, but I haven't read much of it so far: We, the rich and "developed," shall have to pay a heavy monthly or yearly rent for those trees to be left alone. Listing environmental arguments is a waste of newsprint. A starving man is not interested. Everybody accepts as a fact of life that the oil which warms and moves us has to be purchased, sometimes at a stiff price. In exactly the same way we will have to "purchase" the oxygen we need to get the energy out of that oil. (And to keep us alive, by the way). It is a raw tariff trade barriers in Japan. The Europeans still do not quite understand the importance of quality control.

We talk a lot about carbon dioxide subcontractor relations and other nonmaterial we are taking for granted.

Their Japanese rivals are strong, even in the face of the yen's appreciation of 50 percent over the last three years, because of technical advantages in production, the ability to develop new products and markets, and management - and absolutely not because of "protectionism." Without an effective, competing business strategy, the EC's high-tech trade gap will only widen further.

MIKE M. NATORI.

Le Havre '44 Remembered

Regarding "Two Quests for Redress Over a French Port's Ordeal" (Oct. 10):

As a Frenchman who was in Normandy, near Le Havre, in September 1944, I disagree that this tragedy is forgotten. One need only point to a recently re-edited book, widely sold for several years, which describes hour by hour and street by street the 12 last days of fighting in the city that was destroyed by British carpet bombing: "Le Havre '44 a Feu et à Sang," by E. Florentin, published by Presses de la Cité, Paris.

As for William Douglas-Home, I hope that his court-martial conviction will be quashed. Le Havre should ask the French government to award him the Legion d'Honneur for trying to save the lives of Le Havre's civilians.

PIERRE PELIKAN. Le Chesnay, France.

Financial Advice: Beware Of Furloughed Boy Scouts

By Dave Barry

M lAMI — Today we're going to discuss financial planning, a topic that happens to be very timely for millions of Americans right now because I can't think of another one.

When I say "financial planning." I mean, in layman's terms, "the various things you do when you are engaged in financial planning." To understand why this is so important, let's consider the famous true fable about the grasshopper and the ant.

It seems that many years ago, there was this lazy grasshopper who sat around all summer long watching "The

MEANWHILE

Young and the Restless" while this hardworking ant was husily gathering food. When winter came, the grasshopper had nothing to eat, while the ant was snug and warm in a little house filled with gum wads and worm organs and chunks of putrefying raccoon flesh.

Finally the grasshopper, starving, came to the ant's door and said, "Can I have some food?" And the ant said: "Well, 1 AACCKK —" and they were both crushed by rocks dropped on them by Boy Scouts on a nature walk. This was a very poor financial decision, when you think how much money these boys could have gotten for a pair of talking insects.

It is exactly this kind of tragedy that financial planning was designed to avoid. That is why today we are going to talk about sound investment strategies that you can use to guarantee that you have enough money to spend your Golden Years in financial comfort, or at least in a nice appliance carton, which is where you'll be living after you send your children through college, the way things are going Statistics show that if your child is now 5 years old, by the time he's ready for college you're going to really hate his hairstyle. Also turnon will be very high. College administrators tell us that by the year 1998 it will cost you $178 million just to put your child through a BAD college, one with a nickname like The Fighting Room Fresheners."

Where are you going to get that kind of money? The ideal solution, of course, is to go around robbing college administrators at gumpoint. A less satisfying but more legal solution is to get started on a sensible investment program. In our family, we have developed such a program, which is diversified into three steps:

STEP ONE: Every week, rain or shine, one or more of us gets sick and we go to the doctors' office and pay varying amounts of money in exchange for finding out that we are sick.

STEP TWO: Every six or eight months, whichever comes later, 1 sit down at the kitchen table with huge piles of medical receipts and attempt to fill out my medical insurance claim forms, which, in the time-bonored tradition of forms, have been designed by mildly retarded cocker spaniels. The questions go like this: 'l. What is your name?" "2. What is the panent's name?" "3. Are you the same as the patient?

(If 'no,' then who is?)" "4. What was your name again?" And so on. It's slow going, but I stick to it, because I know that only by filling these forms out can we arrive at: STEP THREE: The insurance company mails us an informative statement ("The amount shown below represents your total accrued redemption MINUS your deductive comprehensible PLUS your remittance of remorse TIMES your "). Sometimes they also send a check representing an actual percentage of what we originally paid the doctors, which we then wisely reinvest in more doctors' fees or, if it is a Friday night, rental movies.

Of course you may not feel you have the financial "savvy" to embark on a complex investment program like this. in which case you might want to consider engaging the services of a financial plan-ning professional. This is a qualified person who takes custody of your money and then, using his knowledge, training and experience, flees to the Bahamas. Ha ha! Forgive me for making a small financial joke. The truth is that most financial planners have made a deep commitment to their profession in terms of having business cards printed up, and I strongly recommend that you turn all your money over to one of them after asking a few routine questions: ("What is your name?" "Is that a plane ticket?").

Another essential part of your personal financial program is, of course, 1-1-I'm putting this in secret code because if I write out the words "life insurance," you might read them aloud, which would awaken the insurance agents hanging by their feet from your eaves, causing them to swarm down your chimney and dive repeatedly at your head until you let them review your Future Financial Needs.

Still just kidding, of course. Often they come in through the windows.

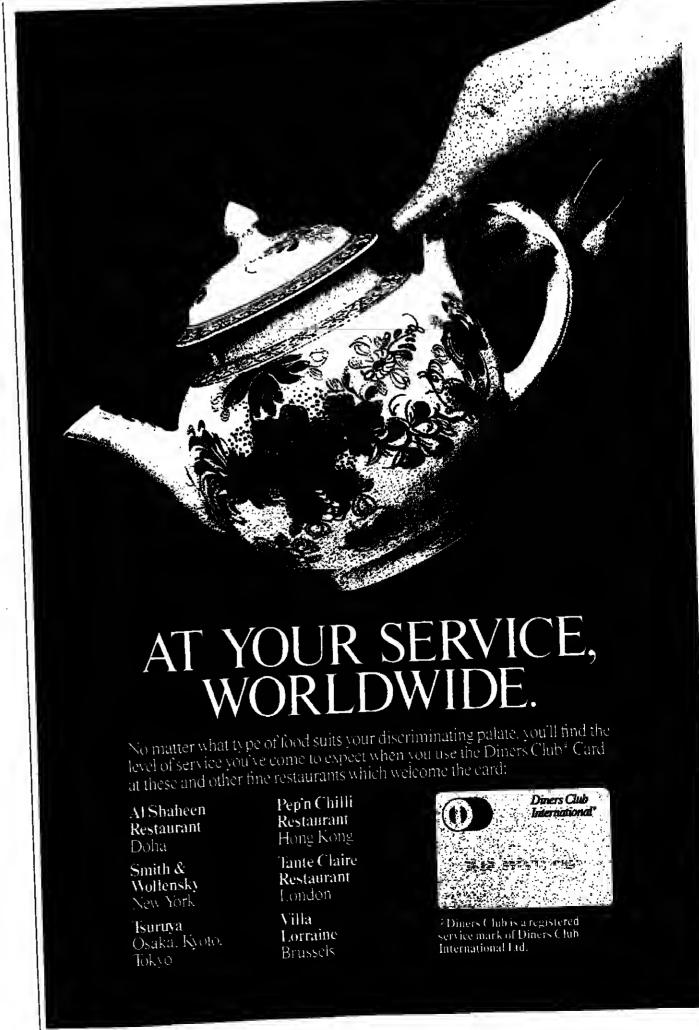

No, really, I hope you professionals out there are taking this in the spirit of "good fun," and if I have offended you, I urge you to write a careful, reasoned, thoughtprovoking letter and throw it away unopened, which is how I'd handle it.

But getting back to investment strategies: The important thing is, whichever one you pick, you have to STICK WITH IT. Don't get discouraged! Remember. John D. Rockefeller started out with nothing, and today, thanks to smart fi-nancial planning, be's dead. He probably got tired of filling out his medical forms. TODAY'S MONEY TIP: An excellent place to invest all your money right now is in a "Savings and Loan" institution, which is just like a regular bank except it has boards on the windows. Knight-Ridder Newspapers.

federation.

ing of camels.

Imelda Marcos Pleads Not Guilty in New York

NEW YORK - Imelda R. Marcos pleaded not guilty Monday in a loud, clear voice to a $268 million federal racketeering indictment charging that she and her husband, Ferdinand E. Marcos, the deposed president of the Philippines, used noien government funds to buy New York real estate. A deputy in the courtroom in the U.S. District Court asked Mrs. Marcos, 59, if she wished to waive a reading of the 79-page indictment that could send her and her husband to prison for the rest of their lives.

"Yes," she replied in a strong

"How do you wish to plead?"
"Not guilty," Mrs. Marcos said, squeezing a white handkerchief in Judge John Keenan set bail at $5 illion and refused to detain Mrs. Marcos. He ordered her to stay in New York for 72 hours or until the bail package was approved.

Most of the assets believed held by the Marcoses have been frozen by courts around the world, and Judge Keenan said he wanted to ensure that the bail money was not obtained through the racketeering scheme alleged in the indictment. None of the eight other defendants was expected at the hearing but all were subject to arrest under federal warrants.

The Marcoses and five other defendants, including the Saudi bil-tionaire Adnan Khashoggi and a California bank, are accused of transferring $103 million in stolen funds into the United States to buy four prime New York buildings and of defranding two U.S. banks of $165 million to refinance the properties.

A dozen anti-Marcos protesters chanted outside as Mrs. Marcos silently entered the Foley Square

"Justice, justice must prevail! Send the Marcoses to jail!" the demonstrators chanted. Mr. Marcos, 71, said his weak heart made the trip to New York from Hawaii impossible. His arraignment was postponed The Marcoses face four racketeering counts and, if convicted, a maximum of 50 years in prison and lines totaling $1 million. Also named in the racketeering dictment were the former Philippines ambassador to the Vatican Bienvenido Tantoco Sr.: his wife. Gliceria Tantoco; California Overseas Bank and its chairman, Robert Benedicto, and its former presi-dent, Rodolfo Arambulo.

ness to seek a quick conclusion to

Mr. Genscher also reaffirmed

Bonn's willingness, with sufficient advance preparation, to participate in a Soviet-proposed European

The home of a Palestinian was blown up after he reportedly confessed to the attack on an Israeli bus.

ISRAEL: Labor Fears Backlash Following Bus Attack

patriots."

Gdansk and meet with Mr. Walesa

police and army troops.

(Continued from Page 1) showed Likud had picked up support in the days after the car bomb

"But when civilians are killed, a mother and her babies, it's much more of a serious matter," a senior Labor Party strategist said. "This will burt us. No doubt."

Campaign activity, usually low key on the last day before elections, halted completely Monday, and Likud was restrained in trying to use the incident to its advantage.

In an interview, Benjamin Begin, a Likud candidate, said, "These tragedies do have an impact. People are well aware of what's going on. The situation is quite clear. But we need to show some sensitivity. campaign manager, said: "I very The funeral was only a few hours much hope that Jews won't change their votes, just as the Jews dido't Likud strategists have been say-Likud strategists have been say- change their vote after the incident ing all along that they do not need of the Lebanon war four years to use violent actively to boost their ago." campaign. A Likud member of the He seemed to be referring to the massacres at the Sabra and Chatila parliament, Dan Meridor, said last week that his party had not actively used the Palestinian uprising in its refugee camps in Lebanon in 1982. Though the Likud controlled the campaign ads because "people see it every day in the news." government then, it did far better than expected in the 1984 elections. "It helps us all by itself," he said.

The prime minister's office took similar approach Monday. Avi Thinking optimistically, Mr. Wiezman said: "Perhaps this incizner, a senior adviser to Prime dent will lead to a greater vote for Minister Yitzhak Shamir of Likud, Labor because the public will uncalled on Israelis to "put politics derstand that without a solution in aside" as it considered the attack. the area, it won't be possible to Ezer Weizman, the Labor Party have peace."

tions as a means of keeping Bedou-in tradition alive and establishing ige between ruler and ruled.

EME-ATES: Dubai's Task Is Melding Old and New

was being given into the hands of nonlocals" have loosened the com-Abu Dhahi alone is reckoned to mitment of some emirates to the have about 3,000 racing camels, which cover a five-mile course in "The individual emirates are trywhat sometimes accurs a lengthy 14 ing to retain as much independence as possible," a Western diplomat said. "There's been a counterattack The jockeys, said Dick Collins, a British veterinarian who looks after by the old against the new." racing camels in Dubai, are "very And, if a nation's sports say anysmall and come from India, Pakithing about its society, that conclustan or Muscat." Some are as sion may he borne ont in two anyoung as five or six years, and none, Mr. Collins said, weighs cient pursuits that survive hunting with falcons, and the racmore than 40 pounds (18 kilo-

"There are young middle class Dubations taking up falconry," said As they race, trainers roar alongside on a parallel track in four-wheel-drive vehicles, bellowing in-Cheryl Remple of Laramie, Wyoming, who runs the falcon hospital structions into microphones. with her husband, David. "Maybe transmitting to radios taped to the jockeys' chests. Television vans it's a way to get back to their tradi-tions," she added. videotape the leading events for

(Continued from Page 1)

By tradition, the birds are trained and flown and released, all in the same year-end season of relative cool, because the fierce summer heat kills them. But the airconditioned hospital allows the birds to be kept cool and alive in the summer months to hunt a second season.

"There's a kind of political thing to it, too," Mr. Remple said. For a falcon trainer from the desert, he says, the pursuit means "getting close to the sheikh" and sharing in the largesse.

Each year, Mr. Remple said, the Guif's rulers migrate, mostly to Pakistan, with large parties of followers and their falcons to spend a month hunting.

"People say there is less and less interest," Mr. Remple said, "but there seem to be as many purchases," at an average price of $3,000 a hird.

If that seems pricy, try camel racing. A thoroughbred winner, by most accounts, can fetch $1 million or more. Yet this sport, too, funcbeverages low in alcohol.

in a speech to magistrates. But I concluded that the nui-

Any restrictions that reduce public disorder would be welcomed by Chief Inspector David Furness of the British Transport Police.

His officers have been inundated

Some workers in the financial district have refused to work over-

of the problem, the police held a two-day public session a few days ago to allow irustrated commuters to express their concerns.

3,000 commuters approached the police at two railway stations, Liverpool Street and Fenchurch

"The majority of complaints

If such events represent one tramaintain it - then the Emirates Golf Chib stands as a monument to the urge to preserve another that predates oil: commerce. Its British manager, Rodney Bogg, said, "The Emirates Golf Club was built to promote Dubai as the biggest trade center in the Arab world."

The clubhouse, built to resemble Bedouin tents, looks out over a 7,100-yard (6,490-meter), par-72 championship course that con-sumes a million gallons of water a night from automated sprinklers to stay green when high summer sends daytime temperatures on the bil-liard-smooth fairways to 110 degrees (43 degrees centigrade).

The membership is a fully subscribed 500, many of them expatriates, who pay annual dues equivalent to about $3,200.

LOUTS: New Menace in Britain

(Continued from Page 1) the local authorities to solve the

These actions include the estabishment last year of a ministerial group to develop government strat-egy against alcohol abuse, higher penalties for selling alcohol to mipors, increased pressure on the police and courts to close badly managed bars and lower taxes on

There are still some understandable misgivings about making the simple act of drinking on the streets an offense," Mr. Hurd said sance and distress caused to ordinary citizens by groups of mainly young people becoming drunk and behaving badly was such that it was worth trying a bylaw to see if it could help."

with complaints about passengers who, after leaving respectable jobs in London's financial district, get drunk and create disturbances at railway stations and on trains.

time for fear of being cornered in a train late at night by a loutish pas-In an effort to gauge the extent

In less than two hours, about ported cases of indecent assault or indecent exposure," Mr. Furness said in an interview at the Liverpool Street station.

"Indications were that those committing the offenses were men between the ages of 18 and 35 who held responsible jobs in the finan-cial markets. But indications now are that it is impossible to stereo-type the offenders except to say they are between 14 and 30 years sold and from a cross section of society. The "lager louts" are the latest issue in a continuing debate about the cause and extent of alcohol abuse in Britain, which has received international attention in recent years because of violence by English soccer fans at major European compentions.

The debate was fueled this year when new laws allowed pubs to stay open all afternoon in England and Wales, ending restrictions that were introduced in World War I in an effort to halt afternoon drunkenness among munitions workers.

Publishers of an annual survey of beers blame the growth of the "la-ger-lout culture" on slick, aggressive marketing of lager, which is lighter in taste than traditional British ale.

Stricter rules governing the advertising of alcoholic beverages were recently introduced to ensure that advertisements do not encourage drinking among young people.

■ Ban Tested in Coventry : An "alcohol-free zone" under the new bylaw was declared Monday in the center of Coventry, En-gland, Reuters reported.

Coventry is the first city to receive parliamentary approval for the £100 fine. Signs showing crossed-out beer mugs mark the

KOHL: Overstatement Is Reported

(Continued from Page 1)

and some other Western countries believe that the political prisoners number 200 or more. "There was some confusion," a West German source said. "Kohl had the impression or created the impression that this was something completely new." There were clear signs of irritation between Bonn, on the one hand, and Washington and London on the other, over the Kohl A U.S. official was displeased by West German officials' comments, delivered to a reporter on a background basis, that tough U.S. bu-man rights positions were the principal obstacle holding up conclusion of current East-West talks in Vienna in the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Eu-

The Soviets, as a condition for concluding the Vienna talks, are seeking Western agreement to participate in a future human rights conference in Moscow. Britain and, to a lesser extent, the United States are resisting. In another sign of a West German diplomatic tilt toward Moscow, Mr. Genscher quickly v alcomed on Sunday a one-day-old Warsaw Pact statement of willingsummit conference on reducing conventional forces.

the Vienna talks.

POLAND: Government to Shut Down Lenin Shipyard INFANTS: Classes and Diapers (Continued from Page 1)

working industries, A report by the state journal Rynki Zagraniczne earlier this year cited the Lenin shipyard as the best-performing facility in the industry, with the lowest losses and highest exports. This year it was scheduled to build 11 ships.

panies are in the steel and metal-

The possibility of closing the shipyard was first raised publicly by authorities in May during the first of two waves of strikes. After that strike ended, a threat of bank-runtey faded. When a new strike broke out in August, however, government officials again claimed the yard was risking bankruptcy, even though employees allowed work to continue on two key projects.

The decision to close the ship- gleeting at the same time the everyyard came after a burst of measures by Mr. Rakowski's new govern-compatriots." ment, which were designed to win popular support. During the last two weeks anthorities have announced an in-souls' Day. It also came only two crease in pensions for the elderly, days before the scheduled arrival of the abolition of a burdensome system of coal-rationing for farmers, the easing of restrictions on foreign travel and the opening of the meat processing market to the private

On Friday, Mr. Rakowski appeared on television to recite those accomplishments, then noted that Western journalists had described him as hostile to the roundtable negotiations with Solidarity.

on Friday.

"I would be a bad prime minis-ter," he said, "if I were mainly the Lenin yard and ended with the shooting of dozens of workers by concerned with the roundtable, no-

(Continued from Page 1)

as a consequence, drop out of classes. A recent report by a citywide commission on teaching values The announcement of the closing came at the beginning of a two-day holiday as Poles celebrated All stated that about 80 percent of students who have children leave school for good.

Each of the three centers is full, days before the scheduled arrival of Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and each has a long waiting list. At Hart, for example, about 24 girls from the junior high and from nearby Ballou High School have of Britain, who is due to visit signed up in hopes of having a bed open for their child soon. Mr. Thatcher, whose visit was estponed earlier following the August strikes, is also scheduled to Infant centers are being planned lay a wreath with Mr. Walesa at a at two other high schools, but Solidarity monument outside the school officials said that even with main gate of the shipyard. The those additions, more than half of monument commemorates a 1970 the population of teen-age mothers workers' uprising that also began at in city schools will not be served. About 350 students gave birth during the past school year, accord-that number, 113 were junior high students. That was an increase from the 1986-1987 school year, when 88 Washington junior high students gave birth.

Helen Blank, director of child care issues for the Children's Defense Fund, a national child advocacy group, said other large U.S. cities had experienced similar trends among junior high students. And she said that as those numbers rise, so do objections to junior high infant centers. "They are catching on very slowly around the country," Ms. Blank said. "But nowhere yet do they meet the need."

"We just don't have enough said Millian Harrison, a child development specialist who directs the Hart center. "It's sad."

We invite you to a free stop-over.

Stopping over in Madrid between any two international flights is now free. The City Council of Madrid invites you to enjoy its MADRID-AMIGO Programme: a night's stay at and a car for completely no charge. Fashionable Madrid, with its unique combination of art, culture and entertainment 24 hours one of the best hotels in the city, dinner, a show a day. You have a friend in Madrid now.

WARM TO THE EXPERIENCE

Bush Holds Huge Lead In Survey of 50 C. In Survey of 50 States money invested a hear the Emiraca as a monther the Emiraca as a monther the erve another than the erve as a finite to the begges and the highest lab was boil to the begges late a world.

built to resemble oks out over a meter), per-72 urse that conlons of water a summer sends

s to 110 de.

a fully sub.

ет ехраілі.

ues equiva-

tain

assault or Furness the Liveruat those were men nd 35 who

. the Finan-

ations now

e to siereond 30 years

section of re the latest

ebate about of alcohol

ich has re-ention in te.

violence by major Euro-led this year

ed pubs to in England

rictions that

wid War Im

noon drunk-ins workers.

uzi surveyoj

h of the "Jalick, aggres-traditional ring the ad-

Per erages

ed to ensure not encoursung people

oventry

one" under clared Monevenus. En-

Cutty to as approval for is showing the ha

igrade).

*WASHINGTON — George was based on polls as well as inter-Bush is the overwhelming leader in the race for the White House as the mesidential campaign enters its fiand week with Michael S. Dukakis Bush has built a solid core of supmaking late gains that have Demo-port in the customarily Republican gats hoping for a comeback, according to an Associated Press surdey of the 50 states.

The survey shows Mr. Bush leading in states with 359 electoral es, even though he has not yet locked up the 270 that would assure him of victory. Mr. Dukakis' total is far smaller — 78 electoral votes from states where he is leading Nine states with 101 electoral votes me considered toss-ups, with Illistrength in the South and Rocky with commanding advantages in Mountain West, while Mr. Dukakis New Mexico, Utah, Kentucky, Inhas failed to accomplish the same diana and Montana.

states - including Ohio, Texas, California, New Jersey and Michigan — but party surveys over the past several days suggest nation-wide gains for Mr. Dukakis.

regions of the South and Rocky Mountain West. Mr. Bush also leads in several key battleground

A new ABC News poll put Mr. Bush ahead, 51 percent to 44 percent, in California. The poll of 510 moss, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin day and Sunday and has a margin of error of five points. New polls The AP survey indicates Mr. also showed Mr. Bush with a dou-Birsh has maintained Republican ble-digit lead in New Jersey and

YOUTH: A Shift to Republicans

(Continued from page 1)

1980, Democrats outnumbered Republicans among voters less than 30 years old by a margin of 2 to 1. Now, the parties are virtually even. The impact of the Reagan years of the preferences of young voters an be seen most startly by follow-ing the voters who began joining the electorate when Mr. Reagan was first elected president.

In 1980, only 20 percent of the voters between the ages of 1g and 29 years old identified themselves as Republicans, 42 percent of them said they were Democrats. The rest called themselves independents or chose a minor party or no party at

Four years later the same age group — now between 22 and 33 years old - started shifting: 28 percent identified themselves as Republicans, and only 35 percent

This year, the Republicans are near parity. Among voters between the ages of 26 and 37 — the same age cohort—the figures were 33 percent Republican and 35 percent

Some of this shift toward the Republicans can probably be explained by the political law that proportion of conservatives inpeople often become more conser- creased: From 25 percent in 1980 varive as they grow older, what to 27 percent in 1984 and 32 per-Kariyn Keene, the managing editor cent in 1988. of Public Opinion magazine calls the "marriages, mortgages and kids effect." But since other generations did not go through quite this sharp a change, some of it must also be explained by the impact of the Rea-is that in 1980; the 18- to 29-year- whelming favorite.

old age group split about the same as the rest of the electorate in its party allegiance. Now, it is more Reonblican, while the electorate as a whole remains more Democratic

The Republicans' biggest problem with the young has not been getting their support but getting them to vote. Younger people have always turned out at a lower rate than their elders, and the Republi-cans suffered in the 1986 Senate elections from an unusually low turnout among the young.

Young people are of particular interest to political scientists and party officials, however, because the allegiances they form can stay with them for the rest of their lives. When voters who came of age during the New Deal identified with the party of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, they provided the impeins for a realignment that made the Democrats the nation's dominant political party.

The young voters tracked since 1980 displayed a shift in the way they saw themselves ideologically similar to their shift in party allegiance. In 1980, 28 percent in this group called themselves liberal; the figure dropped to 24 percent in 1984 and 18 percent this year. The

Academics and political consultants who have studied the youth vote have many explanations for their movement toward the Republicans, but the most powerful is the simplest: Young Americans have known only Presidents Reagan and Another way to look at the shift Carter, and Mr. Reagan is the over-

Mr. Dukakis on the campaign train. His daughter Kara and an actor, Rob Lowe, are at right, and at left is Senator Alan Cranston.

LIBERAL: For Dukakis, a Metamorphosis to Populist From Technocrat jection of confidence.

celebrating on Nov. 8.

The Republicans are already

(Continued from page 1)

election eve, Mr. Dukakis proposed they merge that time into an hourlong televised debate to "let the American people decide which one of us can best unite the country."

Mr. Bush scoffed Monday at Mr. Dukakis's embrace of the liberal label and rejected the call for an election eve debate, The Associated Press reported from Louisville. Kentucky.
[Mr. Bush recalled that Mr. Dukakis had "jumped all over me for using the 'L' word" in their last

["Well, speaking of my opponent, yesterday, miracle of miracles, headlines, read all about it. he's using the liberal label again,' Mr. Bush said.]

Mr. Dukakis' campaign had called the 10-car train he rode Sunday from Bakersfield to Stockton the "Victory Special." But the buoyant traveling staff quickly renamed it the "Surge Express." Last Tuesday, an exhausted Mr.

set after a listless interview on the fall campaign was damaging to Mr. ABC News "Nightline" program, after repeatedly dodging the "liberall' label. He since has turned into a the campaign, but many also say free-swinging campaigner and has both candidates are responsible free-swinging campaigner and has both candidates are responsible consistently performed better on and a recent poll by Newsweek the stump than at any time since the Democratic National Convention in July. In a chat with reporters on his campaign plane this weekend, Mr. Dukakis said that "I'm articulating better now" and offered several

One explanation was simple, he said: "Love."

Kitty Dukakis has been traveling with her husband more often recently, Mr. Dukakis noted. "I'm a bappier guy when my wife's around," he said.

He said his decision to drop prepared speech texts and TelePromp-Ters and speak to his rallies using a handful of notecards had also made him "a heck of a lot better" in talking to people.

He also said the public displea-

Dukakis walked gloomily off the sure with the negative tone of the standard "In the Mood" at every train station, and that was just right for a day that had the feel of old-Bush. Polls show that some voters time politics, except for the presblame Mr. Bush for the nature of ence of television crews with their high-tech gear and the staffers talking into their cellular telephones.

Mr. Dukakis's firm declaration magazine showed that people overwhelmingly blamed the press. of his liberalism on Sunday could lead to an ironic endgame for the Although several national and state-by-state polls continue to give 1988 campaign. In an election that has seen candidates in both parties carefully avoiding the label "liber-Mr. Bush the decided edge in public opinion, Mr. Dukakis's belief al," the next few days may well turn that he is in the midst of a "surge of into a running debate over how the momentum" has given him an inword should be defined.

"I'm not going to let the Repubpopping the champagne corks in their penthouses," Mr. Dukakis lican Party pervert that word," Mr. Dukakis said.

He offered his own explanation said with a langh to a big crowd at the station in Bakersfield. "But the tradition — yes, the liberal tra-dition of Franklin Roosevelt and we're the ones who are going to be our campaign directly to the Amer-The campaign played the 1940s good jobs for every American."

THE HUSTINGS

Dukakis Assails Bush on Arms Policy

WASHINGTON (Reuters) — Governor Michael S. Dukakis, the Democratic presidential candidate, accused President Ronald Reagan and Vice President George Bush on Monday of botching a decision on

America's next land-based nuclear missile. On a nationally televised morning TV program, Mr. Dukakis said Mr. Reagan and Mr. Bush had failed to decide during their eight years in office whether to make the 10-warhead MX missile or the single-warhead Midgetman the next U.S. land-based nuclear missile.

"The administration has really made a hash of this," Mr. Dukakis said. "For eight years they haven't been able to decide on either." He added, "We're worse off today than we were eight years ago." Mr. Dukakis is on record as opposing both missiles.

Name-Calling in a Minnesota Race

MINNEAPOLIS (NYT) — In recent weeks, Hubert H. Humphrey 3d has accused Senator David F. Durenberger, his Republican opponent in the U.S. Senate election in Minnesota, of being an embarrassment to the

For his part, Mr. Durenberger has imperially derided his opponent as a pale shadow of his father, the former vice president and 1968 presidential nominee. "I feel sorry for him, hung with that name," said Mr. Durenberger, 54, who has served in the Senate since 1978. "After all, he can't go back to selling prescription drugs like his father once did."

The most recent public opinion poll by The Star-Tribune, a Minneapolis newspaper, showed Mr. Durenberger leading Mr. Humphrey, 53

Fed Up With Polls? Try Mumbling

SAN FRANCISCO (NYT) - Fred Wickham is so fed up with the polls "electing" the president before the election that he is founding a nonpartisan organization intended to unhinge all those high-priced pollsters. Appropriately, it is called Poll Scramblers.

"The daily publication of poll results performed by private polling organizations has undermined the electoral process," says Mr. Wickham, a San Francisco artist. "The secrety of the voting booth is the only appropriate place for polling to occur.

Mr. Wickham's plan is to invalidate the polls by purposely scrambling the results. "We do this by lying," he says. "We've all lied at one time or another, but this is our first opportunity to be proud of it." When the pollster asks a question, Mr. Wickham says, "Raise doubts. Refuse to answer. Or hem and haw. Answer and wink. Shake your head no, and say

yes. Mumble. But get the message across that your answer is suspect." Willie Brown, the Democratic speaker of the California Assembly, was asked why Mr. Dukakis has not been doing better. "My guy didn't understand that to win in this country these days you've got to campaign down to a 13-year-old's level of mental development," he said. (NYT)

Senator Daniel Patrick Moyahan isn't running for re-election. He's walking. The New York Democrat is far ahead in the polls, has campaign money to hum and is facing a little-known Republican lawyer, Robert McMillan, A poll released last week by the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion showed Mr. Moynihan ahead by 67 percent to 20 percent with 13 percent undecided.

Inquiry Is Asked Into Article on CIA

WASHINGTON - The chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence has asked the Reagan administration to investigate whether administration officials leaked classified papers to the authors of a newspaper article de-Sunday. "We need a president in scribing corruption in a secret U.S.

program to aid Cambodian rebels. The chairman, Senator David L. "Mr. Bush is coasting and we're John Kennedy." he said at the Amfighting," be continued. "He's trak station in Hanford. "Presisaid he was "deeply troubled" by reading the polls, and we're taking dears who are on the side of the references in the article to an apaverage family. Presidents who be-parently classified State Departlieve in economic opportunity and ment document on which much of the article was based.

Sunday's Washington Post, described a scheme in which military officers and others in Thailand had stolen $3.5 million from a $12 million-a-year CIA program to aid non-Communist rebels inside Cambodia.

Accounting controls over the assistance were tightened after the discovery, and no American aid is now being diverted, the article said.

The program, one of several approved by Congress and managed by the CIA, is officially secret, but its outlines have been publicly known for some time.

11 Toll-Free Save up to

It's never been easier or more economical to subscribe to the International Herald Tribune. Just call your toll-free number and tell the operator which subscription period you prefer. You may pay by credit card or we will invoice you or your company. If a toll-free number is not available in your country of residence or if you prefer to order by mail, just complete e coupon below. 2. 1988 for new subscribers only.)

| Country/Cun | rency | TOLL-FREE TELEPHONE NUMBER | 12 months (+52 RRE issues) | ONE-YEAR SAVINGS | 6 months (+26 FREE issues) | 3 months (+13 FREE issues) |
|--|----------------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Austria | A. Sch. | 0660 396 | 4,400 | 3,608 | 2,500 | 1,350 |
| Belgium | B.Fr. | (02) 218 45 43* | 11,000 | 7,200 | 6,000 | 3,300 |
| Denmark ⁴⁴ | D.Kr. | 0430 00 80 | 2,700 | 1,304 | 1,500 | 830 |
| | F.M. | (90) 60 30 30* | 1,760 | 1,334 | 970 | 540 |
| Finland | F.F. | 05-436 436 | 1,500 | 1,230 | 830 | 455 |
| Fronce | DW. | 0130 25 31 | 580 | 403 | 320 | 176 |
| Germony | . £ | 0130 23 31 | 135 | 83 | 74 | 41 |
| Gr. Britain | Dr. | 691 02 42 | 23,500 | 23,820 | 13,250 | 7,300 |
| | £Irl. | 0710242 | 155 | 118 | 85 | 47 |
| Ireland | Lire | | 360,000 | 295,200 | 200,000 | 110,000 |
| Itoly | | 49 49 60 | 11,000 | 7,200 | 6,000 | 3,300 |
| Luxembourg | LFr. | | 600 | 492 | . 340 | 185 |
| Netherlands | R. | 06-022 08 15 | + | 1,276 | 1,100 | 600 |
| Norway | N.Kr. | (02) 41 34 89* | 2,000 | 26,780 | 14,300 | 7,900 |
| Portugal ^{es} | Ēsc. | (01) 80 71 23* | 26,000 | | 17,000 | 9,400 |
| Spain | Ptos. | (91) 401 29 00* | 31,000 | 21,780 | 1,100 | 600 |
| Sweden | S.Kr. | (08) 21 01 90* | 2,000 | 1,276 | | 141 |
| Switzerland | . S.Fr. | 046 05 68 00 | 455 | 455 | 255 | 171 |
| Rest of Europe, I form, Fr. Afr., M | N. Africa, iddle East S | | 470 | Varies | 260 | 145 |
| Rest of Afr., Gulf | | | 620 |] by | 340 | 190 |
| Central/Latin Ar | | | 540 | country | 295 | 160 |

To: Subscription Manager, International Herald Tribune, 181 Avenue Charles-de-Gaulle, 92521

ARTS/LEISURE

U.S. Retailers Hope To Beat Fashion Crisis

A PROGRAMMENT STATES OF THE STATES OF

By Suzy Menkes International Revald Tribune

N EW YORK — The American fashion shows opened here Monday — an unprecedented five days after the close of the Paris collections.

days arrer me case of the Paris collections.

For the fashion professionals, the lack of the traditional 10-day breathing space allows a global view of what is to be offered for the next spring/summer season. Retailers and suppliers on both sides of the Atlantic also have to face up to the current crisis of consumer confidence in high fashion, where too many designer labels are change too for any suppliers. designer labels are chasing too few customers.

Ten years of steady —or even heady —growth have made designers into superstars and their fashion empires worth megabucks. Now there are signs that the Style Decade — as the '80s have been dubbed — may be running out of steam.

NEW YORK FASHION

The crisis is that women are not buying " says Kal Ruttenstein, Bloomingdale's senior vice president for fashion design. "Everybody for the past year has been blaming Paris fashions and the skirt lengths. I personally believe this latest season has produced just what we need. Women are going to be excited by the mood of the shows, by the pyramid shapes, by the new liquidity. It's going to kill off the too tight, the too short and the too sexy."

Fashion — and especially fashion petalling—

Fashion — and especially fashion retailing — thrives on change, and the major buyers have returned to the United States from Paris generally pleased with the European collections. But customers may be more wary of investing in yet another designer image - at

The current season started slowly, yet the news from Manhattan's plate-glass battlefront is not all bad.

"We're doing fine because we know what we're doing," says Saks' Ellin Saltzman hluntly. "It's terrible of me to say this, but every time I think things are fine, I read there's a crisis. Things really are not that bad. But we as a store have to do much more to help the customer, because there is no one direction in fashion The selection and editing undertaken by the stores is not always approved by the designers, who feel that their image is often watered down. When Ralph Lauren opened his flagship store on Madison Avenue two years ago, it was a major statement from a leading American designer whose business had been built up -and still lies - in stores. Italy's Giorgio Armani is now embarking on a massive American development, both for the main collection and the Emporio line, in which the parent company will set up retail outlets and control the architecture, the merchandise and the display of the entire Armani package. "There is something wrong with retailers in the U.S.A.," says Gabriella Forte, the powerful woman at Armani's right hand. "There is a deep crisis because the stores aren't owned by retailers any more, but by bankers and cinema corporations. You can do market analysis as much as you want, but there still has to be a symbiosis. You need to have people who love retailing.

And it's not true that, if you can buy china, you can be moved to buying clothes. Who wears tea cups on their

Dawn Mello of Bergdorf Goodman - the Ameri-

image than a smaller company or than "a family run service store like Nordstrom." Bergdori's new menswear store, due to open in the spring of 1990, is expected to bring its flair to retailing men's designer

Barney's, run by the Pressman family since it was founded in 1923, started out as a discount men's clothing store, and its most recent expansion is a men's store opened in September in the World Financial Center. Last month, Barney's launched a national retail company, which will open three stores — in Boston: Short Hills, New Jersey; and Manhasset, New York in the Ed. 1 1000 York — in the fall of 1989.

"Customers across the country want fashion, but they want a choice of both well-priced and designer chandise," says Gene Pressman, whose new stores will combine established names, young designers and private label merchandise.

This last is a thorn in the side of the high fashion signers who feel that the American stores are too quick to rip off creative designs at a cheaper price. To retaliate, most international designers have intro-duced lower price lines of their own. But this, say the buyers, can confuse the customer and weaken a designer's image.

In a ruthlessly competitive world, both designers and retailers have to keep one step ahead. Blooming-dale's, the store that spawned the concepts of the "Saturday Generation," recreational consumption and retailing as theater, has seen its innovative ideas copied by stores around the world. Bloomies, which the Canadian entrepreneur Robert Campeau bought from Federated last spring, may not now be as unique as when it and Diane Keaton starred in Woody Allen's "Manhattan." But it is also expanding: The latest of its chain of 17 stores opened in Chicago in September.

Next year, Bloomingdale's will celebrate the bicentennial of the French Revolution with a major "Vive la France" promotion. The store will spend $30 million. says Marvin Traub, its chairman since 1978. He calls it "the most extensive presentation of French merchandise ever made ontside France.

In spite of this entente cordiale, and a 10-year love affair with Italian fashion, European designers still accuse American stores of using designer merchandise as window dressing, rather than buying it in depth or attempting to put over the designer's message to the "Intellectually, I find America turned in on itself at the moment," says Jean-Jacques Picart, partner of Christian Lacroix, who was given American superhype a year ago.

"America is such an enormous country, and when it behaves in a protectionist way, it belittles itself," says Picart. "In fashion, we are finding Europe very posi-tive at the moment in the spirit of 1992. In America, we are doing well in the specialty stores like Ultimo in Chicago, or anywhere where the same person who buys the merchandise also sells it. We need a sales service. We are not like selling boxes, just any product. We are fashion."

The international designers - whether European or American - know that Manhattan's mighty stores have made the designers' names, their reputations and their fortunes.

"Designer fashion has been like a great orgy," says Forte. "It was like the fall of the Roman Empare — we all are and drank fashion until we vomited. This is now can store generally accepted to be in the forefront of selling designer clothes—admits that stores that have been bought out have a harder time creating a fashion period of calm."

Stores such as Bergdorf Goodman (above) and Bloomingdale's

Bach to Fusion and Back With Joachim Kühn

tional Herold Tribune PARIS — American jazz musi-cians often credit preacher fathers or a mother who sang in a gospel choir with opening their ears. The East German pianist Joachim Kühn traces his jazzline back to having grown up around the corner from a church in Leipzig where Johann Sebastian Bach's music was performed at Sunday services. "Bach wrote some swinging bass lines," be says.

Kilhn gave his first plano recital at the age of 6, playing Schumann's "Kinderscenen." His older brother, Rolf, was practicing the clarinet and there had been Benny Goodman records around the house for as far back as he could remember. as the count remember.

Like many East European musicians of his generation — he was born in 1944—he is grateful to the Voice of America's Willis Conover for widening his horizon. The West German producer Horst Lippman described his playing in 1965 as "not just free jazz in its most advanced manner, it's also music that swings like mad." He used to dream of playing with American

He went West by way of a jazz contest in Vienna in 1966 and has not been back to Leipzig since. Living in San Francisco, Los Angeles and New York, he played with the likes of Don Cherry, Philly Joe Jones, Gato Barbieri and Jack De-Johnette, His German side ("Yeah -I goess I'm German. Very German.") was seduced by the technological challenge involved with jazz-rock fusion's extensive and complex array of electronic hardware. His fascination with America took on the color of money. With newly grown hair accentuating a strong chin, wearing flowered silk scarves, playing at major events surrounded by stacks of speakers. amplifiers, synthesizers and thick clusters of cables, he dreamed of stardom now. He was a "keyboardist" — the word "pianist" was about as stylish in the '70s as "liberal" is in the '80s.

By 1983, however, Külm had become convinced that fusion had no future. Bored with it in any case, be sold his keyboards. "It's been getting worse and worse," he says cians may not even be aware of it, let on which be collaborated with pulled the plugs. He came back to Europe, where there was still some demand for creative acoustic music. The West German Goethe Institute sent him to tour in Asia and ping one to Australia — in return for his endorsement. He has written classical compositions and performed them — usually with Rolf conducting — in West Berlin, Co-logue and Hannover. There is a Bechstein in his home in a comfortable Paris suburb. Last month he performed a series of solo concerts in Mexico and Colombia. Solo piano concerts do not make him particularly nervous; he's been now. "Fusion musicians are totally interchangeable. Electricity allows all. He likes being responsible for no individuality, you can change drummers and nobody knows the difference. The music has no personality. It's not even really about freedom. He wrote and performed music anymore. Some of the musi- solo piano music for "Dark," a bal-they can't afford to admit it to the dancer-choreographer Carolyn themselves. It's all about selling Contract the Carolyn Contract the themselves. It's all about selling Carlson earlier this year at the Themore records and filling bigger at the de la Ville in Paris. "Dark" combines the best of acoustic and combines the best of acoustic and Work dwindled alarmingly after electronic worlds. Written and im-he turned off the switches and provised notes were fed into a digital board operated by his old-friend, the violinist and sound engineer Walter Quintus, who "treat; ed" them back to Kilhn who then. reacted to the reaction. So there-Africa Bechstein provided him was the warmth of the Bechstein with concert grands — even shipplus the flexibility of a synthesizerplus the flexibility of a synthesizer-The dancers interacted with both parts and the sum of the parts.

Pianist Joachim Kilhn; "I wasn't always going in a straight line.".

"It was a real adventure," he says. "We never knew what was going to happen next."

Kāhn is one of those rare improvisers who makes it a point to listen to his old records, which invariably involves listening to old mistakes. .

"I've been getting better and better and better, that's for sure," he says. "But going through all my 140 albums chronologically can mean real suffering. I wasn't always going in a straight line."

Saturday, Kühn gives on impr vised solo recital in La Cigale, 120 Boulevard de Rouchechouart, in the ninth annual Paris Jazz Festival.

ENJOY WORKING AND I LIKE BREAKFAST BUT I NEVER MIX THE TWO. ??

I've always wondered how people can talk about business when what they're really concentrating on is getting the right amount of butter on their toast.

To me a working breakfast, or one that works for me, is a breakfast that gives me time to compose myself and relax before the day begins.

This morning was perfect. I told the waiter when I had to leave, everything came in plenty of time without my having to ask for it and I didn't have to talk to another soul until I'd finished.

By the time I'd left the Marriott I was ready for anyone.

Garden House, 18 Pinsbury Circus, London EC2M 7EP

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1988

WALL STREET WATCH

Experts Fear That Market Lacks Underlying Strength

By FLOYD NORRIS

T-EW YORK - It takes more than takeover stocks to make a strong stock market, and some analysts are starting to worry that this market has little else to offer. Those concerns were intensified last week when the Dow Jones industrial average fell 1.5 percent, its worst weekly performance in more than two months, despite the flurry of takeover action and speculation.

In terms of the major averages, that decline came after the market had reached its highest levels in a year. The Standard & Poor's 500-stock index and the New York Stock Exchange composite average had even climbed above their levels of Oct. 16. 1987, the Friday before the

But by some other measures, the market has been far less healthy. John A. Mendelson, a technical analyst at Dean Witter Reynolds Inc. points to the advance decline line for NYSE issues as a reason to be worried. It is a leading measure of what is known as market breadth

hances-choreographs

oon carner this targe

de la Ville in Para

sines the best of tree

rottic worlds Watte

sed notes were fel m

board operated n

d, the victim and

Walter Cramina

to the reaches

the warmeth of the ke

the flexibility of and

g to happen never smid records - and a

ives listering :

Se peru Seitte beite.

md bester, and

"But going to age

Mr. Chr. Chr.

seffected | water

eday, Kuse m.

theday, Kure pa. 3 Sala securio e la ca med de Rouver de Monard Para da fa

COTCAGA: ...

,这是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间, 第一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们就是一个时间,我们 barometers, however, indicate that a sharp fall is not inevitable.

Various market

That line, using Jan. 1 as a zero base, is formed by adding to the day's figure the number of stocks that rose each day, and subtracting the number that fell. It rises if most stocks go up on most days, but lately that has not been happening.

The advance-decline line hit its high for the year so far in March, at a time when the Dow climbed to 2.087, then a postcrash high. The Dow reached higher levels in April, July and again this month, but each high on the average was matched by a smaller and more anemic rise in the advance-decline line.

"Virtually every major stock market decline has been preceded by a significant divergence between the popular averages and the advance-decline line," Mr. Mendelson said.

He noted that this divergence dates from March and is thus seven months old, the same period of time between the peak in breadth in the spring of 1972 and the big bear market that began in December of that year. In 1987, the advance-decline line them back to Kara peaked in March, while the market averages kept climbing until August, a five-month lag.

Sencers interacter : ODAY'S takeover stocks may simply be a distraction from underlying market weakness, Mr. Mendelson said, much as the "Nifry 50" were in 1972. Those stocks, favorites of Food the sum of the THE A REL LAND We never have to the era such as Xerox and Avon, rose ever higher late that year as money managers concluded that they that would keep on climb-Win is one of the coning. Their ascent masked weakness in many other issues. When the market fell, the Nifty 50 were among the hardest hit. Embo makes marke.

If last week's slippage in the advance-decline line continues to the point where the figure falls below the low reached on Sept. 1. Mr. Mendelson said, it "would be a serious negative development for the stock market.'

The NYSE advance-decline line is not the only measure of market weakness. Neither the NASDAQ composite average nor the American Stock Exchange market-value index rose to new 1988 highs in October, and the breadth picture in those markets is even grimmer than the one on the New York Stock Exchange.

The barometer is not necessarily forecasting a sharp fall, however, Anthony W. Tabell, managing director of Delafield, Harvey, Tabell Inc., sees parallels to the bull markets that began in 1946 and 1978. Both saw poor market breadth the first year, and were followed by lackluster markets. He sees a pattern for some time "in which the market essentially goes nowhere."

Sears To Sell Tower

Firm to Buy Back 40 Million Shares

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatches

CHICAGO - Sears, Roebuck & Co., struggling to improve a lack-luster earnings record, announced a restructuring Monday that in-cludes the planned sale of the Sears lower, the world's tellest building in what would be one of the largest real estate transactions ever.

Sears, the world's largest retailer, said it would take a fourth-quarter aftertax charge of $425 million for expenses related to inventory costs. expected office relocation expenses and other organizational changes.

The company also said it would sell its Coldwell Banker commer-cial real estate subsidiary and buy back as many as 40 million, or about 10 percent, of its shares outstanding. That would cost more than $1.6 billion at current prices.

Sears has been the subject of takeover rumors recently because of its lagging share price and un-der-performing divisions.

The company was expected to take some action to improve the value of its stock after it announced last week that third-quarter profit fell 16 percent to $344.2 million, the third consecutive quarter that earnings had declined.

It attributed the results to flat merchandise sales and intense competition. Sears Merchandise Group has steadily lost market share in recent years as it tried with little success to update the 102year-old company's image.

Sears stock fell $1.875 to $41.75 share Monday on the New York Stock Exchange after the restructuring was announced.

The company gave no asking price for the Sears Tower, its headquarters. But analysis have esti-mated that it could be sold for up to $1.8 billion. The tower, built in 1974, rises 110 stories, or 1,450 feet (440 meters), from the grid of Chicago's Loop business district.

Edward Brennan, Sears' chairman and chief executive officer, said the structure would continue to serve as headquarters for the company, although the 8,000-employee merchandise group would be moved to smaller facilities over the next several years.

(AP. Remers)

Competition Stiffens for Perrier

As in Europe, Rivals Begin Push in U.S.

By Steven Greenhouse New York Times Service

PARIS - Gustave Leven, the white-haired chairman of Source Perrier SA, has turned Perrier the sparkling water sold in little pear-shaped green bottles - into a chic beverage among America's smart set.

Now be hopes to extend that success, converting the United States into a cation of mineral water drinkers. But as it tries to broaden its market in the United States, Perrier faces tough oew competi-tion, not unlike the rivalry at home that has eaten into a market that once seemed its own. Once the runaway market leader, Perrier has found that strong ri-vals such as Badoit are closing in. Perrier is still far and away the

No. 1 bottled water company in the United States, thanks to several recent acquisitions. Its aim now is to double bottled water consumption there by 1993.

Americans drink about 15 quarts of bottled water per persoo annually; the French consume about 65. The stakes are considerable. If it meets its goal, Perrier esti-mates, its U.S. water sales could reach $1 billion by 1993, in a market that is expected to grow market that is expected to grow to $4 billion by then.

That would give a further boost to a company whose shares have already risen sharply on a wave of speculative huying. Perrier shares closed last Friday at 1,276 francs each on the Paris Bourse; a month earlier, they stood at 1,195.

But putting spring water from the hills of southern France, Arkansas or Maine in American refrigerators, picnic baskets and offices will be oo easy feat. For one thing, many Americans view bottled water as a byped-up product for the Palm Springs elite rather than middle In addition, Perrier's two main rivals in Europe — BSN with Evian and Nestle SA with Vittel - are now trying to elbow their way into the U.S. market. Nor are PepsiCo Inc. and Coca-Cola Co. sitting on their hands. Both have recently acquired bottled water companies to test the market. Pepsi and Coke are in it in a very small way right now, but they might get into it in a much larger way some day." said William Deal, executive director of the International Bottled Water Association, a trade group in

Perrier's bottling operation in Vergèze, France.

While Perrier charges ahead in the United States, it seems to be sliding backward at home. Perrier's sparkling water has been losing share to BSN's spar-kling water, Badoit.

Meanwhile, Perrier's leading still, or concarbonated, water, Cootrexeville, has lost sales to Evian and Vittel. Some consumers say Contrexéville has too many minerals. In addition, financial analysts have repeatedly criticized Perrier for its small profit margins, and there are recurring rumors that suitors are jockeying to take over Perrier once Mr. Leven retires.

When you talk about Perrier, you are talking about a legend," said Sylvain Massot, an industry analyst with UBS/Phillips & Drew, a London brokerage.
"Mr. Leven is a genius," she said. "He has done tremendously in marketing. But the problem that Perrier faces is that he is getting a bit old and it is oot clear who is going to replace him."

Preaching the benefits of mineral water has made Mr. Leven rich. He owns almost 20 percent of Perrier, which sold 4 billion bottles of water in 125 countries last year.

Its revenues have rocketed See PERRIER, Page 15

Kraft Price Rises As $13.5 Billion Deal Is Agreed

By Robert J. Cole

New York Times Service NEW YORK - Kraft loc. shares surged more than $7 Monday after the food giant agreed to a sweetened, $13.5 billion cash takeover offer from Philip Morris Cos., the tobacco and food conglomerate, marking the biggest merger agreement in corporate history.

Kraft's stockholders will get $106 a share under the deal ancounced late Suoday, and the shares Monday moved close to this level. They advanced $7.125 to close at $103.625 on the New York

The combined company would knock Unilever, the British-Dutch group, out of first place as the world's largest producer of coosumer goods.

An even bigger deal, the $20,3 billion offer made by Kohlberg, Kravis, Roberts & Co. for RJR Nahisco Inc., is still under negotia-

In Tokyo, Japanese banking sources told Reuters that 14 Japanese banks had joined a syndicate headed by Citicorp to finance the Philip Morris takeover. Of the total $12 billion credit line Philip Morris has set up with the syndicate to huy Kraft, about $1.95 hillion will be put up by the Japanese banks, the Making the announcement with Kraft, Hamish Maxwell, chairman and chief executive of Philip Morris, said, "As we have stated from the outset, we believe the combina-tion of Philip Morris and Kraft will create a U.S.-based food company that will compete more effectively in world food markets."

John M. Richman, chairman and chief executive of Kraft, said, "Our shareholders are receiving full value, and this merger is the best possible outcome for our employees, customers and the communities in which we operate."

Philip Morris is the maker of Marlboro cigarettes, Miller beer, Maxwell House coffee and Ronzoni spaghetti, among other prodncts. In addition to Kraft cheeses, iocluding Philadelphia hrand cream cheese and Velvecta, Philip Morris will now add such other well-known Kraft brand names as Sealtest ice cream, Parkay margarine, Light o' Lively yogurt and Miracle Whip salad dressing.

ter might resign.

ordered the increase.

Stockholders who have owned Kraft shares for as little as two weeks will profit greatly from their investment: Kraft stood at $60.125 a share when Philip Morris first offered to buy the company on Oct. 17, for $90 a share, or $11.5 billion in cash.

Kraft executives and employees may not see very much change in the combined company, except for the oew ownership.

Mr. Richman will remain Kraft's chairman and also become a Philip Morris vice chairman. Michael A. Miles, Kraft's president and chief operating officer, will remain presi-dent of Kraft and take on the addi-tional offe of chief executive officer, continuing to report to Mr.

Kraft's ecormously valuable name will survive as a subsidiary of Philip Morris.

Philip Morris touched off a maor Wall Street rush to buy shares in food companies with its initial $11.5 billion bid. But within a week Kraft's directors rejected the $90-ashare offer and proposed instead a complex dividend package that it valued at $110 a share.

The package called for iovestors to get $84 in cash plus $14 in high-yield securities known as junk boods. Stockholders would also

See KRAFT, Page 13

Fed Buying Reverses Dollar's Fall

NEW YORK -- The dollar reversed sharply Mooday, turning a steep early loss into gains against most currencies, after the Federal Reserve Board, the U.S. central bank, intervened repeatedly during European trading.

Some dealers suggested that the Fed action, which supported the dollar against the yen, was aimed at pushing the U.S. currency higher rather than merely smoothing out its decline. In European trading, the dollar had plunged to fourmonth lows before recovering. At the close in New York, the dollar rose to 1.7863 Deutsche marks from 1.7728 DM at Friday's close. It advanced to 125.675 yeo from 125.625 and to 1.5068 Swiss francs from 1.4938.

The British pound fell to $1.7685 against the firming dollar, from $1.7715 on Friday, while the U.S. eurreocy advanced to 6.0975 French francs from 6.0358. speculation that the finance minis-Business confidence in the government was further croded two weeks ago when the central hank

In Europe, the dollar had been sliding on renewed worries about the U.S. trade deficit and jitters before the Nov. 8 presidential eleccent, feeding expectations of still higher inflation and prompting the dismissal of the senior official who

The Fed first intervened as the dollar dropped to 124.80 yen, its lowest since June 10, dealers in London said. It again bought dollars as the U.S. currency rose up through 125 yen and was in the market a third time in the New York morning session, paying 125.40 to 125.50 yen, U.S. dealers

The Bank of Japan, which inter-vened last week to support the dollar against the yen in a move seen as ensuring a controlled slide in the U.S. currency, was also reported in the market again Monday.

Dealers said the dollar's tooe remains bearish, but added that it seemed likely that the Fed would

See DOLLAR, Page 15

Currency Rates

| | Cross B | ates | | | | · ·-, | | | 0 | a. 31 |
|---|---|----------|----------|------------------------|-----------------------|----------------------------|-----------------------|--------------------------|---------------------|--------------------|
| | | | £ | D.M. | FJF. | 11.1. | Glar. | B.F. | S.F. | Yen |
| | Amsterdant | 7,7935 | 3,5505 | 7,7276 | 0.2304 | £1516 • | | 5.77 7 ° | 7.3393 | 1,4002 |
| | Brussels(a) | 37.09 | 44.01 | 20.9495 | 4.143 | 28187 * | 18.575 | | 24,1035 | 0.2974 |
| | Frankfurt | 1.7684 | 1146 | | 6.293 | 0.1345 * | 0.8667 | 4747 * | 1.1075 | 1,4185 * |
| ú | London (h) | 1,7678 | _ | 3,7503 | 70.7618 | 2347.00 | 3.5568 | 66.07 | 2.654 | Z71,525 |
| ř | Milan | 1,314.40 | 2342.25 | 743.95 | 217.29 | | 659.75 | 35.468 | 883.30 | 10.558 |
| | New York(c) Poris | 7 | 1.7685 b | 1,7843 | 6.0975 | 1.327.56 Closed | 2014 | 11.65 | 1.5064 | 125,675 |
| | Tokyo | 125.45 | 223,865 | 70,525 | 20.65 | 0.1054 | 62,415 | 3.365 | 2700 | _ |
| | Zurich . | 1,493 | 2.6531 | 0,847 | 0,2445 | 0.1132 * | 0,7467 | 40141 | _ | 1,1737 |
| | I ECU ISDR | 1,171 | 0.4582 | 2,0721 | 7.9734 N.Q. | 1,5/1.56 | 2.3368 2.6531 | 43.45% 49.9302 | 1,7442 | 146,026 |
| | Closings in t o: Commerci augled; N.A.: | al trans | D: To be | i Zurich, ny one pi | fixings i rund; c: | in officer ca To buy or | nders. N ne dollar | evr York e ; ": Units | dosing n of 100; | otes. N.Q.: not |

| APPLIED THE | | | | | | | | |
|--|---|--|----------|--|-------------------------|---|------------------------------|------------|
| Carrency Argen, ousited Austral, 5 Austral, 5 Beig, Rn, fr. Brezil Crez, Canadian 5 Chinese years' Depish icrone Egypt, pound | 1.2202 12.43 39.38 436.01 1.2192 3.7221 6.821 2.3129 | Carrency Fin. marking Greek drac. Hone Kong S Ladion rapes tode, rusion Lrish S Lareell shek, Kawatii dhaar Maloy, rhee. | 2.6705 | Currency Mex. pess N. Zagland S Nip. Active Phil. secs Port. escudo Saudi riyal* Slap. S S, Kor, wan | 4.1333 6.60 20.70 | Currency S. Afr. rand Soviet ruble* Spen, pesseta Swed, krona Tolwan S That both* Terkish tira UAE dirbam Venez, bolly. | 117. 24. 25.2 1673. | 464月1585月7 |
| NAW YORK TOR | 3 (1)(0) | Mourage . (1900) | I FEMAL) | | | | | | | | | marked * (loca | | | | | | |

Interest Rates

| Bure | cure | cy Be | esits | | French | | | . 31 |
|------------|---------------------|-------------|------------|-------------|-----------|-------------|---------|---------|
| | Deller | D-Mark | Swiss | Sterling | Franc | Yen | ECU | SDR |
| 1 morris | 84-84 | 4 19-4 16 | 764-774 | 11 %-11 % | 74.77 | 4 14-4 14- | 74.7% | |
| | | 44-64 | 2 2 | 11 76-11 76 | | 4 W-4 W- | 774-7% | 7 % |
| 2 mouths | 21/2-274s | | | | 8-814 | 4 We-4 We | 7 -7 W | 7% |
| 3 Dageriks | 8 72-874 | 4 74-4 76 | 3 3 | | | 47-4% | 7/2-7/4 | |
| é months | 875-87b | 4 74-4 74 | 37-37 | 11 14-12 % | 938-97K | | | |
| 1 year | B14-874 | 476-5 | 376-4 | 11 16-11 16 | 8 H-8 W | 475-476 | 7/2-7% | / % |
| Sources: | Morgan G | varanty (Di | ollor, DAL | SF, Pound, | FF, yen); | Lloyds Bank | (ECV); | Reuters |

Key Money Bates On 31

| Discount rate | 9/2 | 642 | |
|---------------------------|---------|---------|--|
| Prime rate | 10.00 | 10.00 | |
| Federal funds | 8 5/16 | 814 | |
| Com paser 78-179 days | 7.85 | 7.85 | |
| 3-month Traceury bills | 7.34 | 7.37 | |
| 6-tocolis Tradsury billis | 7.46 | 7.49 | |
| 2-month CD's | 8.00 | 7.85 | |
| 3-month CD's | 2.00 | 1.00 | |
| Japan | • | | |
| Discount rate | 21/2 | 212 | |
| Codi money | 3 15/16 | 3 13/16 | |
| 2-month interbook | 43/16 | 43/16 | |
| 3-month Intertent | 414 | 414 | |
| West Germany | | | |
| Discount rate | 31/2 | 31/2 | |
| Lambard rate | 5.00 | 5.00 | |
| Oversight rate | 442 | 41/2 | |
| - month laterbank | 470 | 4.85 | |
| 3-month interbook | 4.90 | 5.00 | |
| 6-month later bank | N.A. | | |

U.S. Movey Market Funds

Telerate Interest Rate Index: 1.135 Source: Marrill Lynch, Telerole.

Gold

412.45 Cled. 412.25 412.40 412.75 41325 41325 412.75

6 on Stock Malpractice

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatches SEOUL - South Korean state SEOUL — South Korean state my from being consumed by hyper-prosecutors arrested six people inflation. Monday in a major crackdown on

The six, incloding dealers on the Scool Stock Exchange and officials of Daewoo Securities Co. and Shinyoung Securities Co., were charged with breach of trust and breaking securities laws.

The prosecutors charged three postal workers from the exchange and three employees of securities firms, including two from Daewoo Securities Co., for allegedly manipulating prices. All six were remanded in custody.

A further six people were charged with similar offenses bot were released, officials said.

The prosecutors accused the six of making 400 million woo ($563,000) m illegal profits from stock deals. They alleged that some of the six leaked crucial market information to their relatives, while others used inside information to make profits for their own ac-Counts.

They were accused of altering stock transaction times to take advantage of rising prices while allo-cating stocks whose prices were falling to ordinary investors.

Dealers said the arrests had little impact on the market, because the malpractice, though ocver before prosecuted, was an open secret among many investors. The composite index, the exchange's ba-rometer, fell 10 points to 730.9 shortly before closing Monday on modest turnover.

.The fall reflected nervousness about a government plan announced on the weekend to ban the use of investor aliases from 1991. dealers said.

A South Korean newspaper said the arrests would heighten public distrust of the market by highlighting "structural malpractices" in-volving collusion between postal workers and securities dealers. The Chung Ang newspaper de-manded that the investigation be expanded to cover rumored cases of market manipulation by institutional and other large investors to raise political funds during the ten-me of former president Chun Doo Hwan.

The Seoul stock market, capitalclosed to foreign investment. The government plans to open the market to direct foreign investment by banning the use of trader aliases.

Seoul Arrests Brazil Scrambles to Control Deficit and Inflation ings on wage increases imposed by Mr. Nobrega, moves that led to

By Alan Riding
New York Times Service

RIO. DE JANEIRO - Uoder attack from labor groups and business organizations, the Brazilian government is scrambling to find oew ways of controlling its huge budget deficit to prevent the econo-

The October inflation rate of stock price manipulation involving stock price manipulation involving investigations into 25 securities monthly rate ever recorded here, and an inflation rate of 532.3 percent for the first 10 months of the year is also a record. The inflation rate for 1988 is now expected to reach 900 percent.

"We already have the first signs of byperinflation," said Antonio Delfim Neto, the chief economic policy maker in the military regime that left office in 1985. "The government is having trouble rolling over its internal debt; savings are being withdrawn, and there's a surge of sales." In recent weeks, Brazilian investors have also moved rapidly out of cruzados, the local currency, into dollars and gold. In October, the price of a dollar on the black market jumped to 770 cruzados, from 535, while the free-market price of a gram of gold went to 9,720 cruzados, from 6,630. The official value of the dollar on Friday are 463 of the dollar on Friday was 463

Although the effect of the ecooomic turnoil is so far principally being felt at home, it is causing concern abroad, not only because many large multinational corpora-tions conduct husiness in Brazil but after a so-called economic solidarialso because the country's $120 hil-lion foreign debt is the largest in Mexico, will ease inflationary presthe developing world.

Brazil recently coded an 18-mouth suspension of payments to its commercial bank creditors in a

The October inflation rate of 27.25 percent was the highest monthly rate ever.

An inflation rate of 532.3 percent for the first 10 months of this year is also a record.

violating the spending and deficit International Monetary Fund with a view toward curbing inflation.

The Brazilian finance minister, Mailson da Nobrega, who is an increasingly isolated figure, has prepared several tax measures, known as "fiscal shock." But it remains unclear whether President José Sarney is willing to announce the new package before Nov. 15. when municipal elections will be held throughout the country. The measures would oot only reduce purchasing power but also eat into siness profits.

broad rescheduling of its foreign contend that an accord between debt, but already it appears to be management and labor will have a minimal effect on inflation unless goals that were oegotiated with the the Sarney administration moves at the same time to slash its expenditures. They believe the pact should include commitments by the govsures by eliminating the race be-

Sharp differences within the administration, as well as strong resistance from civil service unions, many of which are striking for

Rather, the government is hop-ing that the early conclusion of a much-vaunted "social pact" be-and Aureliano Chaves, the minister tween management and trade of mines and energy, ignored ceil-

as a member of our

Boards of Directors

This month, for example, two powerful members of the cabinet, Anionio Carlos Magalhaes, the

We are pleased to announce the election of FRANK A. BENNACK, JR.

DCNY CORP. DISCOUNT CORPORATION OF NEW YORK 58 Pine Street, New York, N.Y. 10005

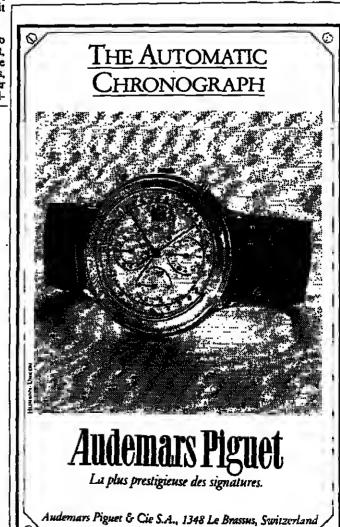

Brazil's new constitution took effect on Oct. 5. A clause limiting real interest rates - the rate charged or paid over inflation - to just 12 percent paralyzed banking activities for several days until the government ruled that it required en-abling legislation before it became With Mr. Samey providing little suddenly raised the monthly interest rate it was paying on overnight deposits to 50 percent, from 39 per-

Uncertainty also increased after leadership in the current crisis, the vacuum of power has been filled hy rumors that the government might decide to impose new freezes on wages and prices, although this possibility has been insistently denied by Mr. Nobrega.

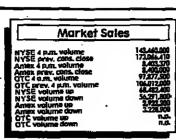

::\ ::\

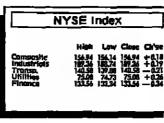

Dow Jones Bond Averages

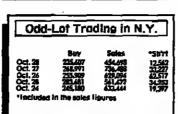

ACMSen 134 114 ACMSen 130 185 AMCA AM Intl AM

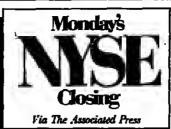

Allery Jan 78 1 Allery Jan 78

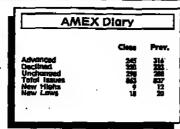

NYSE Dlary #59 575 579 1972 19

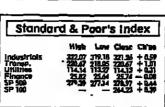

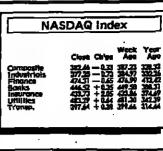

Tables include the nationwide prices up to the closing on Wall Street and do not reflect late trades eisewhere

Sits. Charge Quot. Carine

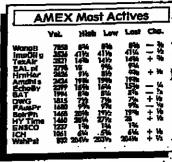

DIN. YEL PE

NASDAQ Digry 1,039 672 2,740 4,571

Div. Yki. PE Mile High Law Qual. Circu

1.22 40 9 26 17 15 .40 43 10

AMEX Stack Index

PAYABLE: DECEMBER 15, 1988 RECORD: NOVEMBER 18, 1988

DECLARED: OCTOBER 26, 1988

Continuous dividend payments since 1939.

Cyril J. Smith

Vice President & Secretary PANHANDLE EASTERN

CORPORATION

Houston, Texas 77251-1642

N.Y. Stocks Little Changed

Vinited Press International Mr. Johnson also noted that many investors NEW YORK — Prices on the New York had retreated to the sidelines in anticipation of Stock Exchange closed little changed to slightly lower Monday in moderate trading amid investors' concerns about the future financing of leveraged buyouts and acquisitions.

The Dow Jones industrial average was off 1.24 to close at 2148.65. The dow had risen 9.06 level of confidence because some of their confidence in the confidence of their confidence of their confidence in the confidence in anticipation of the confidence in anticipation of the confidence in anticipation of the government's September report on the leading economic indicators, due Tuesday, and Friday.

The Dow Jones industrial average was off 1.24 to close at 2148.65. The dow had risen 9.06 on Friday.

Declines led advances, 732 to 694. Volume was about 143.46 million shares, down from 144.27 million shares, down from

Standard & Poor's 500 index rose 0.59 to close at 321.26. The price of an average share gained Analysts said the market was weighed down by investors' concerns about the future of borrowing for takeovers, which began last week when Alan Greenspan, chairman of the Federal Reserve, warned the banking industry to be more cautious in its lending policies. Concerns were heightened when a major offering of junk bonds — high risk, high yield securities frequently used to finance takeovers — was postponed by First Boston.

poned by First Boston.

"There is a general nervousness, a tentativeness, based on seeing the full picture of the leveraged buyout and acquisition business," said Hugh Johnson, head of the investment policy committee at First Albany Corp.

"Investors have awakened to the darker side of takeovers. When this happens, people head for some place safe, such as in U.S. treasury bonds," he said.

1.24

.30 1.2 .08 1.8 .72 3.8 1.57,e14.0 .72 2.2

Dir. Yid. PE TOS High Law Qual. Chine

on Friday.

Declines led advances, 732 to 694. Volume was about 143.46 million shares, down from 146.32 million traded Friday.

Broader market indexes showed a slight gain. The NYSE composite index rose 0.15 to 156.94. Standard & Poor's 500 index rose 0.59 to does 150.056.94.

"There is enough money on the sidelines to support a few good stocks," Mr. Chalasani said. citing selected takeover issues as well as compa-nies that have released favorable earnings re-ports and other positive news in the past few "But there is not enough money to support the entire market."

He predicted the market would look "uninteresting for the next few months as investors continue to focus on a few selected issues and ignore the broader market.

"The market is also focusing on short-term interest rates, which are high," Mr. Chalasani said. The federal funds rate, or the fee charged on overnight loans, is holding in the 84 percent to 8% percent range.

"On a positive note, this is a market not totally fueled by takeover issues," he said.
Southern Co. was the most active issue, off % to 22%. The holding company goes ex-dividend Tuesday. RJR Nabisco followed, off 14 to 834.

37% 26% BCE g 18% 14 BET 8% 4 BMC 21% 25 BRE 19% 15 BRT 40% 29 Baimo 1254 3174 30 17 45 7/4 2 3074 41 19 93 2614 2.44 J90 4.6 13

BORTFISH

BORTFI 2.71812.4 1.56 27 14 .051 1.60811.2 9 1.82 10.7 10 1.46 9.9 72 3.2 7 1.60 5.6 14 1.86 3.6 16 1.364 4.6 8 1.368 4.6 8 1.388 6.7 84 1.80e 1.10e 1.72 2.47 3.54 4.54 2.40 1.76 1.80

25V2 GAP 35V4 GATX 95V2 GEICO 24 GEO 25V4 GTE 30V4 GTE 30V4 GTE 30V4 GTE 30V4 GTE 30V4 GOBell 13V4 Gollost 2V2 Gollost 2V2 Gollost 2V4 Gollost 2V4 Gollost 2V4 Gollost

A major international conference cosponsored by the International Herald Tribune and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher, and Flom

LONDON, NOVEMBER 10, 1988

The last two years have seen a dramatic upsurge in international corporate mergers and acquisitions. As the number of such international transactions has increased, the use of hostile tactics has also begun spreading rapidly, even among European and Japanese companies. These developments present business executives and public officials with important challenges

The International Herald Tribune and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher and Flom have developed an exceptionally timely program which will address the effect of this new wave of international mergers and acquisitions upon business strategies and

A distinguished group of speakers will address the meeting including:

Joseph Flom

Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher and Flom
Commissioner Joseph A. Grundfest,

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission
Ambassador Alfred H. Kingon

U.S. Ambassador to the EC and former Presidential Assistant Robert Maxwell

Chairman Massaell Communication Communication

Chairman, Maxwell Communication Corp. plc

John Hennessy _____ CEO, Credit Suisse First Boston

George Magan

Director, J.O. Hambro Magan & Co. Ltd.

Sir Michael Palliser

Chairman, Samuel Montagu & Co. The Honorable Peter Peterson = Chairman, The Blackstone Group

Bruce Wasserstein Chairman, Wasserstein, Perella & Co. Jean François Verstrynge ______ Member of the Cabinet of Peter Sutherland, European Commission Reto Domeniconi :

Executive Vice President, Nestle SA

Herald Eribune For full program information, please either fax your business card to (441) 240 2254

telex your full name and address to 262009

or telephone (441) 379 4302

Mergers and Acquisitions Conference International Herald Tribune 63 Long Acre, London WC2E 9JH

| 1 | 140 | 141 | 140 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 | 141 |

2 245 1.5 18 2.6 1.7 11 3.77 7.4 1 3.90 7.4 1 3.90 7.4 1 1.28 3.7 14 1.28 3.7

6722496 V) 7644 V 7645 n 1,00 10.4 253

n 1,00 10.4 255

n 1,00 3.8 12 540

1,34 7.1 10 241

1,44 27 94 117

1,10 2.8 19 1176

1,20 5.7 7 63

1,10 2.8 19 1176

1,20 5.7 7 63

1,10 2.8 11 14 135

1,10 2.5 14 35

2,00 13,378 10 135

2,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

4,00 13,378 10 135

14.7 (株式) 15. (大学) 15. (大学)

24 24 1,50e 7.1 8 1,14 7 7 48 14 21 2,50e 11,2 5 24 42 7.4 11 1,65 11,2 1,23 12,3 7.6 7.7 54 1,6 1,10 11,3 1,10 12,8 1,49 8.4 17 がいません。 1200年 - 1400年 - 140

12 Manth High Low Slock

11/4 3/4 Ooklind
40/2 25/4 Ooklind
71/4 5/4 Ooklind
71/4

Company Results

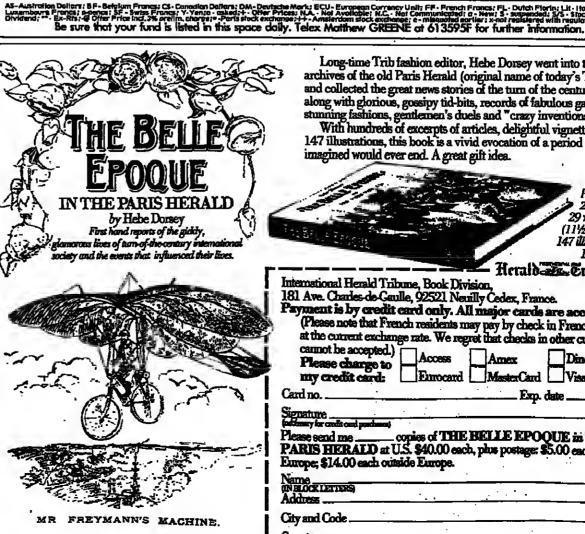

1997 27,400 417,90 1,05 1997 75,400 2,710 7,370 1907

1年19月1日日本日本市场的企业的企业的企业,这个专项的企业的企业,是一个工作的企业的企业,是一个工作的企业的企业,是一个工作的企业的企业,是一个工作的企业的企业,是一个工作的企业的企业,是一个工作的企业的企业,是一个工作的企业的企业,是一个工作的企业的企业,是一个工作的企业的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,并不是一个工作的企业,也可以是一个工作的企业,可以是一个工作的企业,也可以是一个工作的企业,可以是一个工作的企业,可以是一个工作的企业,可以是一个工作的企业,可以是一个工作的。 1788 214.50 1.71 0.71 1788 47.00 24.50 24.50 1987 201.40 9.21 0.79 1967 400.50 30.99 2.66 1982 1987 200.70 187.70 30.70 27.10 6.81 6.72 1982 1987 1983 1987 85.40 26.70 2.78 2.27 1987 731.50 45.60 0.74 Der Shore 200 Leggett and Platt Tra Quer, 1798 1'
Revenue 177.0 (7
Net Inc. 17.0 (7)
Per Shore 10.07
9 Months 1988
Revenue 598.40
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10.07
10 1947 (74.40) 10.00 0.54 1947 594.20 24.50 190 MAC 190 MA 1 1992 1 290 30.30 1.93 1997 7.800 220.40 5.43 1962 1762 1763 2150 215 1988 19.440 205,10 5.34 Bus, Sys. 1989 219.90 2 (0.49 1988 1,020, 8 40.50 1,97 1997 289,50 11,20 0,54 1997 879,40 31,10 1,85 Natco Chemical and Quer. 1988 Revenue 2488 2 Nof Inc. 2488 Per Store 0.49 1987 216.90 21.30 0.57 Marton 1986 390,77 14.70 0.67 7968 1,860, 91 895,31 & 3,31 2 Fist Crp SANTA BAR.
3rd Quor. 1992 1992
Net Inc. 2,00 10133
Per Shore 0,13
Per Shore 1962 1997
Net Inc. 2,42 236 1947 300.40 12.00 1957 1759 1759 1759 1759 3rd Quar.
Revenue _____
Oper Net ____
9 Menths
Revenue ____
Oper Net ___
Oper Shore__

444 28 Reyron Filth Light Representation of the control of the con

545 545 875 875 (a) Stor Corv. Pund USD S 92.5
BANGUE SCANDINAVE EN SUISSE
BENEVA
(w) BSS Bond Fund SF 74.55
(w) BSS Intersec. SF 162.25
(w) Global Bond Se Equity SF 162.25
(w) Free Mets/Alin Secs. SF 162.25
(u) Free Met 207.15 (201.11)
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03
198.03 SKA ENSKILDA BANKEN 14,70 21,97 14,67 13,19 31,75 25,65 18,10

INTERNATIONAL FUNDS (Quotations Supplied by Funds Listed)

Long-time Trib fashion editor, Hebe Dorsey went into the archives of the old Paris Herald (original name of today's Trib) and collected the great news stories of the turn of the century—along with glorious, gossipy tid-bits, records of fabulous galas, stunning fashions, gentlemen's duels and "crazy inventions."

With hundreds of excerpts of articles, delightful vignettes and 147 illustrations, this book is a vivid evocation of a period no one imagined would exert end. A great gift idea. imagined would ever end. A great gift idea. Hardcover, 147 illustrations, 16 in color. Herald Eribune -International Herald Tribune, Book Division, 181 Ave. Charles de Caulle, 92521 Neuilly Cedex, France.

Payment is by credit card only. All major cards are accepted. (Please note that French residents may pay by check in French francs, at the current exchange rate. We regret that checks in other currencies cannot be accepted.) Access Please charge to my credit card: Emocard Card no.

Please send me ____ copies of THE BELLE EPOQUE in THE PARIS HERALD at U.S. $40.00 each, plus postage: $5.00 each in Europe, $14.00 each outside Europe. Name ON BLOCK LETTERS Address

1-11-88

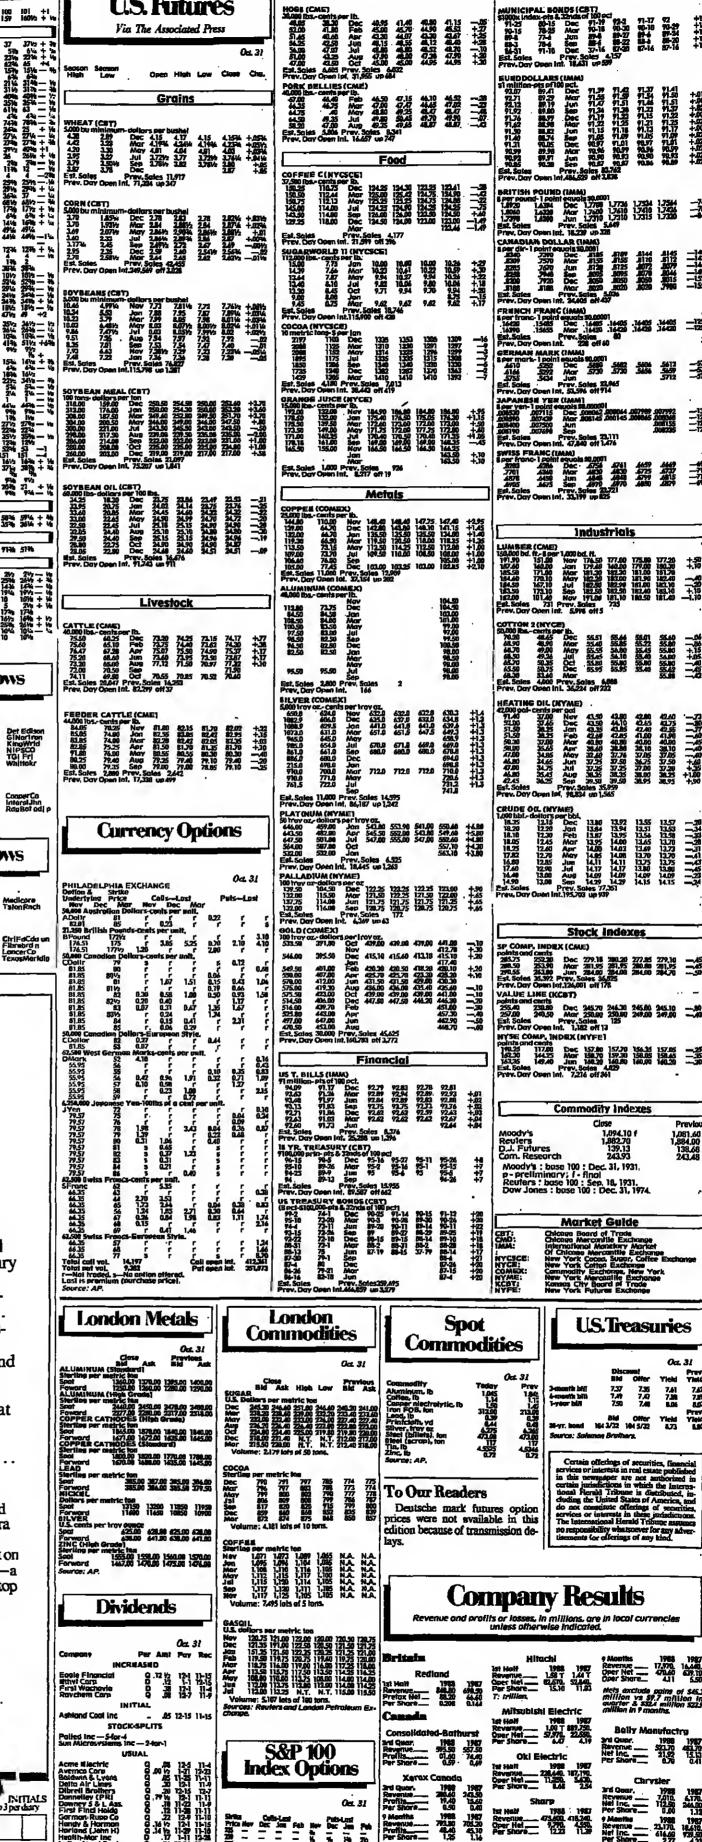

صكذاءن الأصل

6781 615 105 279 159 209 216 304 26% 14% 19% 10% 20% 17% 16% 26%

Medicore Tsion Rnct

Via The Associated Press

of 100 oct 91-19 92-2 90-16 90-30 89-4 89-27 88-4 87-20 37-16 87-20 30-les 4.157

1135 1135 1136 1035 1030 1030 #189 #155 #125 #095 #050 A) 44 A) 70 A) 70 A) 70 A) 50 A) 20

91-17 90-18 88-4 87-16 92 90-27 87-24 88-20 87-16

£145 £112 £079 £046 £015 7900

+50 +10 -20 +10 +10 -1.10

1,081.60 f 1,884.00 138.68 243.48

Oct. 31

177.26 180.30 181.76 182.40 183.10 183.10

55.01 55.22 55.40 55.40 55.40 55.40

42,60 42,60 40,60 35,10 37,05 36,75 77,00 36,95 42.05 42.55 44.50 37.55 37.50 37.50 37.50 37.50 37.50

43.80 44.10 43.85 42.85 40.80 37.76 37.25 37.25 37.35 37.35 37.35

Our big success story is our pocket diary: thin, flat and elegant.

Year after year — even at a period when diaries abound —the International Herald Tribune flat, silk-grain leather diary is the hit of the season.

Ingeniously designed to be thinnerthan-thin, it still brings you everything . . . including a built-in note pad with alwaysavailable "jotting paper". Plus there are conversion tables of weights, measures and distances, a list of national holidays by country, a wine vintage chart, and many other useful facts. All in this incredibly flat little book that slips easily into a jacket pocket.

The perfect gift for almost anyone . . .

including yourself. Please allow 30 days for delivery. - Personalized with gold initials (up to 3 at no extra This handy Notepaper sheets fit on note pad the back of the diary -a is terrifica simple pull removes top sheet. Comes with notepaper refills. Herald Erro — Quantity discounts are available. __Plenty of space for appointments.

Herald Eribune International Herald Tribune, Karen Diot, Special Projects Division, 181 Avenue Charles-de-Gaulle, 92521 Neuilly Cedex, France. Payment is by credit card only. All major cards accepted. 1989 IHT Pocket Diaries. Please send me. (Please note that French residents may pay by check Price includes initials, packing and postage in Europe.

in French francs, at the current exchange rate. We regret that checks in other currencies cannot be accepted.) Please charge to my Access Visa Amex Cardiff card: Eurocard Diners MasterCard credit card: Exp. date Card No.

Signature.

—Format 8 x 13 cm (5¼ x 3 in.).

U.S. S2beach U.S. S24each US STEach Address 1-11-88 City/Code/Country

صكذامن الأصل

Budget Rent-A-Car to Be Bought Out

This will be the second time in two years that Budget has been taken private by Gibbons, Green and Budget's management. Budget went public in May 1987 at $14 a share. It was previously held by Transamerica Corp., which sold Budget in 1986 in a leveraged buyout to Gibbons, Green and Budget will be merged into a subsidiary of Beech Holdings, a newly formed corporation. Beech's voting nonparticipating common equity will be owned by the Fulcrum II limited partnership, in Budget's senior management.

CHICAGO - Budget Rent-A-Car Corp. will be acquired for $333 million by an investment group led by Gibbons, Green van Amerongen Ltd. and Budget's management in a deal financed primarily by Ford Motor Co., officials said

Budget, the third largest rental car company in the United States and the only one still publicly held, said that Beech Holdings Corp, would pay $30 a share for the Chicago-based company's 11.1 million shares outstanding.

Budget shares rose $10 Monday in over-the-counter trading to

Unilever Buys SCM Unit From Hanson of Britain

British-Dutch foods and consumer goods conglomerate, agreed Monday to buy Durkee Industrial Foods Corp. from a U.S. unit of Hanson PLC for a intal of $185

Durkee, a maker of specialty oils, bakery and confectionery products for the food service and processing industries, was acquired by Hanson, the aggressive British coup known for its U.S. takeovers, part of Hanson's purchase of Hanson paid $930 million for SCM. The Durkee deal means that Hanson has now realized approximately $1.2 billion from the sale of LONDON - Unilever PLC, the of intense takeover and buyout activity in the food business, particularly in the United States, which is driving up prices of food stocks and making big multinational groups even bigger.

> Unilever said it was buying Dur-kee through its U.S. holding com-pany, Unilever United States Inc. Durkee had operating profit of about $11.1 million on sales of $174 million for the year ended Sept. 30, 1987, Unilever said.

Hanson has followed a similar strategy with another major recent U.S. acquisition, of Kidde Inc. It bought the group for $1.6 billion last year, and since has sold off

The deal was struck Sunday in which Gibbons, Green is general New York, a Budget spokeswom-an, Jody Wilson, said.

Budget said its present manage ment group would invest in voting participating preferred stock and would continue to run the compa-

The acquisition will be financed primarily by Ford through an investment in nonvoting preferred stock of Beech Holdings, lo return, Budget and Ford have signed a long-term supply contract continuing their existing supply relation-ship; it was not immediately clear whether Ford would supply more cars to Budget under this contract. More than 60 percent of Budget's cars come from Ford.

The amount of Ford's investment was not disclosed, and a spokesman did not know how much of Beech Holdings would be owned by Ford through its preferred stock holdings.

Neither Ford nor Budget officials could immediately comment on whether Ford's interest in Budget might pose antitrust problems.

Budget reported a 57 percent advance in third-quarter earnings, to $8.8 million from $5.6 million in the third quarter of 1987. Revenues rose 32 percent to $152.1 million. from $115.6 million in the same 1987 quarter.

Budget ranks behind the No. 1 rental-car group, Hertz Corp., and Avis Inc. Ford already has a stake in Hertz, and earlier this year arranged the sale of a 20 percent stockholding in the company to a U.S. subsidiary of Volvo AB of (AP. Reuters)

Randal W. Donaldson, manager of media relations for

Pension Funds Reluctant Players in KKR Bid for Nabisco

By Anise C. Wallace New York Times Service

NEW YORK - Most of the cash behind the $20.3 billion buyout offer for RJR Nabisco Inc. will be provided by the retirement funds of Coca-Cola Co., Georgia-Pacific Corp. and United Technologies Corp.; the endowment funds of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Harvard, and the pension funds for state employees of New York, lowa and Michigan, among others.

These investors along with some banks will be provid-ing about $2 billion of the total buyout cost. The actual investment by each partner varies. The rest of the money needed for the buyout will come from bank loans and

Although the organizations are not prohibited from backing unsolicited takeover attempts like the one being made by Kohlberg, Kravis, Roberts & Co. for RJR Na bisco inc., the use of their money in this deal could embarrass the investors. These executives and officials may not want to be viewed as threatening the management of one of the best-known companies in the United States.

Robert A. Bowman, state treasurer of Michigan. Its state retirement fund is a participant in the deal. "We're invested in this deal whether we like it or not," be said. "If this becomes the standard deal, I think all the

"Hostile deals bother us - sure they bother us," said investors would get nervous."

The identities of investors in partnerships like the Kohlberg, Kravis fund is typically considered a private matter. State laws in Delaware, where the partnership is on file, do not require that the names be made available to the public. However, a list of the partners in this fund was made available to The New York Times by one of the investors involved. Among the more than 70 partners in the buyout fund are two of RJR Nabisco's corporate neighbors in Atlanta

 Coca-Cola and Georgia-Pacific.
 Over the weekend, officials at Georgia-Pacific confirmed that their pension fund was a partner in the buyout fund. But John F. McGovern, senior vice president for legal affairs, declined to comment on the company's policy toward using pension assets to finance unwelcome akeovers of other companies.

Coca-Cola, explained that his company's pension fund time that Coca-Cola bought a subsidiary of Beatrice Cos., an earlier leveraged buyout financed by Kohlberg, Kravis. We have made no additional commitments to that pool, and we have no voice in how those funds are itilized," he said. In addition to Coca-Cola and Georgia-Pacific, other companies that have committed a portion of their pension

'Hostile deals bother us — sure they bother us. We're invested in this deal whether we like it or

Robert A. Bowman, Michigan treasurer

funds include Avon Products Inc., Chevron Corp., Hughes Aircraft Co., International Telephone & Telegraph Corp., Raiston Purina Co. and United Technol-

The partners in the Kohlberg Kravis, Roberts-1987 Fund have not actually transferred their capital to the buyout vehicle. Under the terms of the limited partnership agreement, however, the group has agreed to commit equity capital of more than $5 billion, which Kohlberg, Kravis can use to make investi

Kohlberg, Kravis pioneered the concept of the leveraged buyout, a transaction in which investors use a small amount of cash and a large amount of debt to take a publicly held company private. The firm uses the structure of a limited partnership to raise money from company pension funds, university endowments and state retire-ment funds. The partners have limited liability and limited investment discretion in the eventual investment.

Any portion of that huge capital pool can be raised within a matter of days when Kohlberg, Kravis makes a so-called capital call to its partners. Kohlberg, Kravis has said that it plans to spend $2 billion in equity from this fund to finance the RJR Nabisco buyout.

Last week a oumber of officials and state retirement funds expressed uneasiness about the buyout firm's latest strategy. While they are closely watching the battle, none of the officials said they would refuse to provide the capital for the buyout of RJR Nabisco.

Some said they might have problems with the invest-ment because RJR Nabisco has operations in South Africa. Many state retirement funds have a policy requiring that no investment be held in companies that do business

Under the terms of Kohlberg, Kravis buyout partner-ships established in the early 1980s, the partners' funds could not be used in hostile takeovers. The idea was to make a friendly offer to the management, which they hoped would continue to run the company after it was taken private. But the 1987 fund contains no such prohibi-

Although Kohlberg, Kravis's offer for RJR Nabisco is conditioned on approval by the company's board, it has not been welcomed by F. Ross Johnson, RJR Nabisco's chief executive, who has said he wants to lead his own team of investors in a buyout of the company.

The list of partners in the Kohlberg, Kravis buyout fund is impressive, including names of some of the country's largest corporations, its most prestigious educational in-stitutions and some of the largest banks in the world. Among the educational and nonprofit organizations that are backing the buyout fund are Harvard University, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Swarthmore College and the Salvation Army. Also included as equity investors are several domestic and overseas banks. Last week Alan Greenspan, chairman of the Federal Reserve, in a letter sent in a congressional committee, raised the question of whether banks might find themselves overexposed after investing in these huge deals if a

Among the banks participating in the Kohlberg, Kravis fund are Bankers Trust Co., Bank of New York, Chase Manhattan Bank, First National Bank of Chicago, Manufacturers Hanover Trust, Security Pacific and Wells Fargo

Foreign institutions include Canadian Imperial Bank, Industrial Bank of Japan, Mitsui Life, Mitsui Trust and Nippon Credit of Japan, British Telecom and Credit

KRAFT: Stock Soars as $13.5 Billion Takeover Is Set

The three pieces together consequently were valued at $110, Kraft contended. Wall Street professionals, who bought the stock all the way up to $102.875, watched the price in amazement last Tuesday as at ended the session at $102 - up $10 for the day. Clearly, they thought, Philip Morris would bid

But instead of continuing to bid, Mr. Maxwell attacked the "feasibility" and "the real value" of Kraft's dividend package.

As relations between the two seemed to cool, at least from a public perspective, Mr. Maxwell studiously gave no hint as to what his next step might be; no price increase seemed to be in the cards and traders seemed disheartened.

have kept their shares, which Kraft maintained would have sold for around $12.

The three pieces together consebegin looking at other food compa-nies. By last Thursday, Kraft's stock had fallen by $3, to $94,50. Kraft's stock jumped $2, to $96.50, on Friday with traders expecting some development. Philip Morris's directors had voted unanimously last Wednesday to authorize Mr. Maxwell to negotiate with Kraft.

Shortly after the close of the exchange Friday, advisers to the companies set the deal in motion.

Philip Morris said it was prethat was at least as good as the hoard will have grown to more than current value of Kraft's complex $2 billion by the time the deal is $110 package.

No numbers were mentioned, Some arbitragers complained But both sides felt secure enough rette sales.

that Philip Morris was trying to for Mr. Maxwell to hold secret ne-

Mr. Maxwell's first real offer, according to those at the scene, was $104; Mr. Richman said he thought that $106 was "more like it." Mr. Maxwell said $104.50; Mr. Richman stuck to $106, Mr. Maxwell came up $1, to $105.50

On the basis of Kraft's 127,4 million shares on a fully diluted basis, even a rise of 50 cents would cost Philip Morris another $64 mil-ing broadly, stuck ont his hand to Mr. Maxwell said in an interview Sunday that, in addition to the $12 pared to make an offer for Kraft billion credit, Philip Morris's cash completed next mooth. He said the additional money was coming from people close to the situation said, strong European and Asian ciga-

Bid Battle for Nabisco Appears Less Likely

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatches NEW YORK - The stock of RJR Nabisco Inc. fell Monday as the prospect of a bidding battle for the food and tobacco giant appeared to recede.

Over the weekend, RJR's financial advisers decided that they were unlikely to match the $20.3 billion that has been offered by Kohlberg. Kravis, Roberts & Co., people close to the situation said.

The decision suggests that in the oext few days, Kohlberg, Kravis will either back away from its $90-Eventually, Mr. Maxwell, smila-share offer or walk away with the prize if it can line up the necessary financial backing from banks.

> RJR Nabisco's stock dropped $1 to close at $84 a share on the New York Stock Exchange. Over the weekend Kohlberg, Kravis started to receive the confidential financial information on had requested to formulate its buyout deal. Most important to the company's prospects are its own projections of revenues and profits, people close to the situation said. Those figures will be essential in determining whether the company could support the more than $15 billion in debt that would be required in a buyout. F. Ross Johnson, RJR Nabisco's chief executive, started the bidding process in October when he and his chief financial adviser, Shearson Lehman Hutton, announced that they were contemplating a buyout offer at $75 a share.

They were clearly surprised by Kohlberg, Kravis's offer. "The $90 bid changed everything," one source said. He added that Mr. RJR Nabisco's operations that it

The strategy of Mr. Johnson and his financial advisers seems to be to see whether Kohlberg, Kravis will attempt to lower its bid once it examines the company's data.

A source close to Kohlberg, Kravis indicated that pulling back seemed unlikely at this point. (NYT, Reuters)

■ RJR in China Venture

R.J. Reynolds Tobacco International Inc. has set up China's first joint tobacco venture with Xiamen Cigarette Factory and Xiamen SEZ United Development Co., the official China Daily reported Monday, according to an Agence France-Presse dispatch from Beijing.

The $21 million venture, 50 per-cent owned by RJR, will produce Johnson and Shearson did oot be- 2.5 billion cigarettes a year when it lieve RJR Nabisco was worth $90 a reaches full operation, including share, making the prospect of an immediate counterbid shim. BNP Mortgages

Mortgages for expatriates resident in the UK

* 100%, interest only

*Fast, personalised service

Phone Rosemary Yoko 01-380 5214

BNP Mortgages Limited is a wholly-owned subsidiary of largest international banks.

EUIOBUSIII ESS

Are you getting your business ready for the new shape of the world's largest trading bloc?

Today's marketing maps of Europe will be unrecognisable by 1993. A company proud of having 20% of its national market in 1988 can expect, by 1993, to have only 3% of the European market, at best. And by 1998 new competition could savagely reduce even that — unless you plan and respond

Which is where EuroBusiness comes in.

Until now, the European business community has had no business magazine designed exclusively for it. There was only one way you could keep up with your competitors in the ever-changing world of mergers, acquisitions, new products, law, pricing, personnel, finance, training, organisation, technology and so on. That was to undertake the expansive management exercise of trying regularly to digest three or more "regional" business newspapers, six weekly or monthly magazina and countless specialist newsletters.

Not any more.

EUTOBUSINESS is Europe's own new business monthly. It puts Europe first. One magazine helping you identify and assess the legal, financial, economic and consumer changes taking place.

At less than £30/$50 a year, you'll find it's an insurance policy your company can't afford to live without.

Order your annual subscription now from:

FF 270 p.a. Europeriodiques S.A., Parc d'Activites de Pissaloup BP 104, 78191 Trappes Cedex, France

Tel: (1) 3062 93 86 BF 1.800 p.a. Subscriptions Department, W.H. Smith Belgium S.A.

Bld. Adolphe Max 71 - 75.

1000 Brussels, Belgium

Tel: (02) 219 2708

SKr 250 p.a. Esselte Tidskiftscentralan. Box 638, $-10128 Stockholm. Tel: (08) 23 79 90

PSH Presse-Service Hamburg GmbH.

2000 Hamburg 36, Germany

DM 72 p.a.

Fl 75 p.a. Swets Subscription Service, P.O. Box 830, 216052 Lisse, Holland Tel: (0) 2521/19113

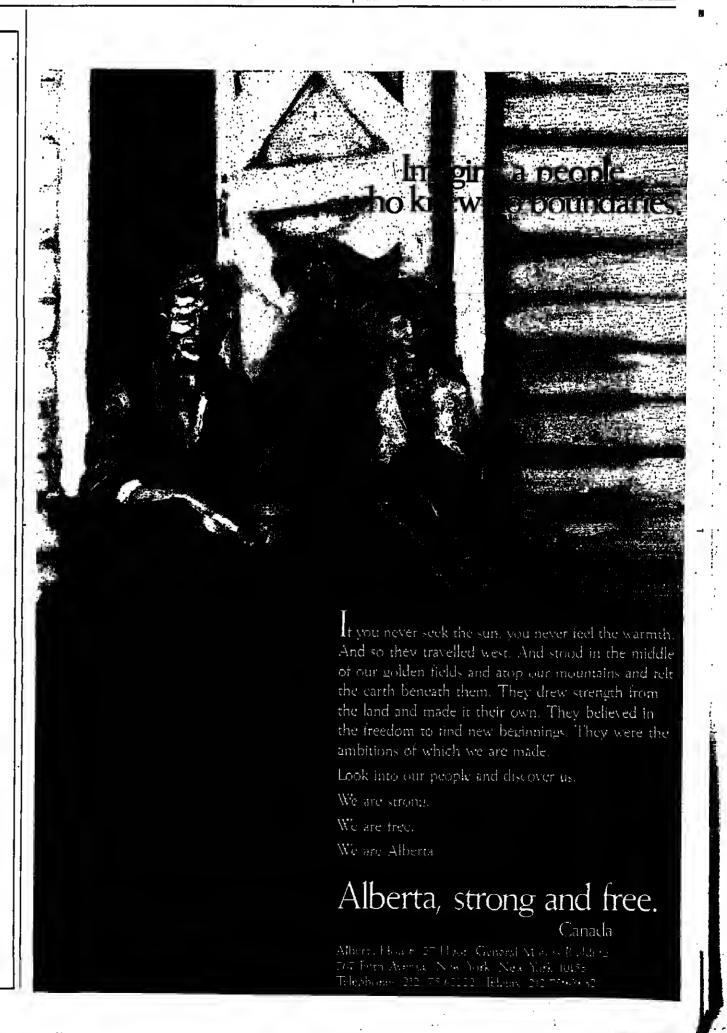

U.K. £18 Rest of World £30 Eurobusiness Ltd., 21 Gold Street, Saffron Walden, Essex CB10 1EJ, England Tal: (0799) 21150

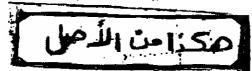

EUroBusiness is also now on sale at principal newstands and bookshops throughout Europe.

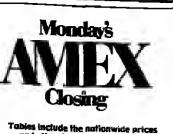

Postfach 304 081.

Tel: 040 343377

Garmany

835 MARINE SALANDA SAL .55 2.1 Via The Associated Press 314 ABM G
416 AIFS
617 ALL Lob S .12 9 1
317 AMIC S .12 9 1
11 AMI IN WI
217 AMI IN WI
218 AT AFC G
218 AT AFC G
218 AT AFC S
219 AT AFC S
218 AT AFC S
219 AT AF 46 22 145 40 25 145 136 107 83 2 14 52 20 14 54 27 14 134 27 14 134 27 15 40 15 17 132 44 THE PARTY OF THE P 28e12.5 12 21n 14 13 .16 2.4 13 .67e 1.7

6% Determ
6% Dater
1% VibeLou
7% O'Lesti
1% DeCore
1% O'Lesti
1% DeCore
1% Decore
1% Decore
1% Decore
1% Decore
1% Decore
1% Discoon

314 EAC
315 EECO
416 EH08
24 ESI
24 ESI
25 ESI
25 ESI
25 ESI
26 ESI
27 ESI
27 ESI
27 ESI
28 ESI
27 ESI
28 ESI
27 ESI
28 E

25h 12 16 17h 48h 15h

25 — 13 131/2 + 36 51/4 63/4 — 16 53/4 + 16

Floating-Rate Notes

Deutsche Marks

Pounds Sterling

Japanese Yen:

onmans KING SIZE ROTHMANS SATISFIES

THE BEST TOBACCO MONEY CAN BUY

We are seeking the collaboration of an EXPERIENCED INTERNATIONAL FIRM Abber Heil 71 Gb
Abber Heil 72 Gb
Abber Heil 72 Gb
Abber Heil 72 Gb
Allbaret + Leit-Vigel
Angel Seen Vi Angel 18 Seen Vi Bardet Vigel
Bardet Vigel that have the capability as well as the knowledge to manage a modern type service garage and body shop that is specialized in Europe an made cars, Mercedes, BMW, etc. in Kuwait. Interested firms please write to:

P.O., Box 806, Safat 13009 - Safat, Kuwait Telex: 23883 MITCO KT, Fax: 484 0279

Attention: General Manager

DOLLAR: Fed Intervention Helps Currency Recover

London Dollar Rates

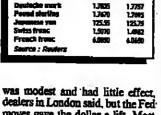

be ready to intervene whenever necessary in the run-up to the elec-

"I can't see the Fed is going to let the dollar fall or fly ahead of the election," said David Deakin, senior foreign exchange manager at EBC Amro Bank in London. Several dealers said they expected further declines once the elec-In Frankfurt, dealers reported o sign of Bundesbank moves to upport the dollar and said that vas unlikely at current rates. The dollar closed at 1.7835 Deutsche marks in London, up from 1.7757 DM at the close on Friday. but it eased slightly to 125.55 year

The British pound eased to $1.7670 against the firming dollar, from $1.7695, while the U.S. currency rose to 1.5010 Swiss francs from Friday's 1.4962 and to 6.0850 French francs from 6.0650.

moves gave the dollar a lift. Most dealers say the Fed mainly hoped to keep any decline in the dollar

The rot seems to have stopped for now but the dollar is pointed lower in the longer term," said Tim cents to the dollar, down nearly 1.5 Fox, economist with Barclays Bank cents from Friday's close of $3.04 Global Treasury Services.

The bearishness is based on a ever wins the U.S. election, little or weekend polls showing a drop in nothing will be done to correct the huge U.S. budget deficit.

The easing of any pressure for higher U.S. interest rates and a feeling that the dollar needs to be lower anyway to help close the trade deficit have contributed, they added. The pound had a quiet day and ended unchanged from Friday's closing 76.4 on its trade-weighted index. Dealers said the pound was unlikely to move much before Tuesday's autumn economic statement by the chancellor of the Exchequer, Nigel Lawson, when he will update economic targets.

dropped sharply on fears that Canfrom damaging the election ada's pro-business Progressive chances of the incumbent Republi- Conservative government was losing support in the campaign for the country's Nov. 21 election. The currency closed at 81.58

Meanwhile, the Canadian dollar

videly held market belief that whoket was shocked by a senies of Traders in Ottawa said the marsupport for the Progressive Conser-

Rand Hits Record Lows Against Most Currencies

JOHANNESBURG — The South African rand, under pressure because of the weak world gold price, fell to record lows Monday against most major currencies.

Traders, recognizing that a low gold price depresses South Africa's export earnings, sold the rand down to 4.39 to the British pound, and it plummeted against the Deutsche mark and the yen. Gold closed at $411.25 an ounce in London on Monday. The rand dropped to 2.49 to the dollar, near its record low of 2.50. That level was reached in August 1985, just before international banks cut credit lines to the country amid anti-apartheid pressures. "The rand is in a very vulnerable position following the recent weak performance of the gold price," Trust Bank of Africa Ltd. said in an economic review. The currency is already under considerable pressure from a weak balance of payments, a worrying decline in the gold and foreign exchange reserve position and very bearish senti-ment in general." Gold and foreign currency reserves are at their lowest level since mid-1986. Rumors swept financial markets on Monday that the government would soon allow a rise in interest rates. There was also speculation of an imminent package of direct import and credit curbs.

Economists said that a capital drain, blamed on low real interes rates, disinvestment and heavy debt repayments to foreign banks, were contributing to the rand's slide.

PERRIER: The Competition in U.S. Begins to Stiffen

(Continued from first finance page) from $350 million in 1980 to almost $2 billion last year, and it still holds about 55 percent of France's bottled water market, with such brands as Perner, Volvic, St.-Yome and Contrexéville.

"Over 40 years, you build something every day, and after 40 years you have something big," Mr. Leven, 74, said in a rare interview. In early 1946, Mr. Leven's father, the head of a family brokerage firm, asked him to find a buyer for a small spring in southern France that its British owner wanted to

The younger Leven contacted an old family friend, Samuel Bronfman, scion of Seagram Corp. of Canada, to ask whether he wanted to add the Perrier spring to his beverage empire.

Mr. Bronfman asked his friend to wait until autumn when he would come to France to visit the

Mr. Leven didn't wait. He visited the famed bubbling spring in the town of Verglze, whose springs have been known since Roman times, and decided to buy the spring and its bottling operations even though — or perhaps because — they were in such a

Mr. Leven saw Perrier employ ees filling the small green bottles by plunging them into the spring by hand. Workers sometimes used their feet to help put the bottle cans Explaining his decision to buy. Mr. Leven said: "When something's in bad condition, you expect to be able to make it better. It was a well-known name with no

Perrier sold 10 million bottles in lot of cachet: Even though its sales were small when he bought it, it was available at most clite bars and

He revolutionized the bottled water business and caught his main competitors. Evian and Vittel, unawares through a device little used otels in Europe and the United in this staid industry in the 1950s:

Gustave Leven, Perrier's chairman and guiding force.

AT A GLANCE Source Perrier SA

All dollar amounts in thousands, except po

| Year ended Dec. 81 | 1967 | 1986 |
|---------------------------------------|-------------|-------------|
| Revenues · | $1,950,000 | $2,060,000 |
| Net income | 93,000 | 43,138 |
| Earnings per sh | are $12.60 | $5.57 |
| Current labilities | | 1,338,872 |
| Long-term debt Stopk price, Oct. 2 | 7, 1968 | |
| Paris exchange Stock price, 52-we | | 208 |
| | | |

1946. By 1952, Mr. Leven and his controlled more than half of the four partners had boosted sales to manuring French market and was looking for new challenges. Not

He recognized that Pernier had a surprisingly, he turned to the Unit-ot of cachet: Even though its sales ed States. Several consulting firms he hired all told him he would be foolish to try to sell sparkling water in a land of Coca-Cola and gin-and-tonic drinkers. He ignored the consul-"We hired one man and one secretary in a small room in New York, and we thought we couldn't tle soared from 3 million bottles a year in 1976 to 200 million in 1979 as Perrier made its mark.

Today, Perrier accounts for 80 percent of the bottled water imported into the United States. "I thought that Americans would want to drink something without alcohol or sugar," Mr. Le-ven said. "It exploded much higher than I ever thought."

In 1980, Perrier bought Calis-toga in California and Poland Spring in Maine for undisclosed

At that time, Poland Spring was nearly bankrupt with $4 million in sales, but by 1987 Perrier had pushed its sales to $80 million.

"I was against buying Poland Spring," said Ronald V. Davis, president of Perner's U.S. opera-tions. "Lech Walesa and strikes in Poland were on the front page day after day. I was sure everyone thought that Poland Spring came from Warsaw and it would never work. "But Mr. Leven had such faith in the American market, he said,

'Let's buy it,' and he was right." Mr. Leven continued to show his faith in the American market when Perrier laid out $450 million last year to buy Beatrice Cos.' huge Arrowhead water division, which had $220 million in sales.

Slight Decline in Treasury Rates Expected, Without Action From Fed

By Kenneth N. Gilpin

New York Times Service NEW YORK - Interest rates on Treasury notes and bonds could move a bit lower, credit market analysts predict, even without he assistance of the Federal Reserve Board. The Fed's Open Market Committee will hold its monthly meeting this week to discuss nonetary policy. And, while recent economc data suggest that economic growth is slow-og, inflation is still running at a rate rapid nough to rule out any easing in monetary olicy, the analysts said.

"The Fed can't ease policy," said Alan nai, chief economist at Boston Co., "beuse inflation is still too high. But the econ-ny is looking soft. That indicates no change Fed policy for the rest of the year, and that a big plus for the fixed-income markets." even without a spur from the central k, some market participants contend that og technical conditions and the recent rray in the corporate bond market ld continue to benefit Treasury issues. that forecast is accurate, the yield curve en short-term and long-term issues will 1 even further, and perhaps become bond market, despite all of the concerns intensify if short-term rates fall much fur-about inflation, has the benefit of no event ther, however, casting doubt on whether an-risk," said Neal M. Soss, chief economist at other dip could be sustained.

It is presty clear that the government

primary dealers. In the fiscal year ended Sept. 30, by comparison, 44 primary dealers were bidding on $97 billion of net new marabout inflation, has the benefit of no event risk, said Neal M. Soss, chief economist at First Boston Corp. He was referring to the fact that government bonds are not subject the implications of buge takeover bids for Kraft Inc. and RJR Nabisco. "Because of that risk, capital is being reallocated out of the corporate bond market and into a broad range of other markets, including Treasuries," Mr. Soss said. "Right now yield curves in some countries, like Britain, are inverted. I wouldn't rule out the possibility of an inverted yield curve here." By the end of last week, the curve at the short end of the market had already become inverted, meaning that investors are more willing to hold two-year maturities, for example, than to invest in the overnight market for federal funds. By late Friday, the Treasury's two-year 81/4 ercent notes were offered at a price to yield 8.23 percent. On Monday, the overnight federal funds rate rose to 8% from 8% percent, where it had been for several weeks.

Strong technical factors continue to bol- ketable debt. ster the intermediate and long-term sectors to takeovers or acquisitions as in the corpo-rate bond market, which has been rattled by the Treasury will announce Wednesday the the implications of buge takeover bids for size of its quarterly refunding auctions, ana-current 94 percent believether issue that masize of its quarterly refunding auctions, analysts said the new issues should be easily

Before the refunding announcement, analysts were projecting that $26.75 billion worth of new three-year and 10-year notes and 30-year bonds will be sold, beginning

The estimates are based on the assumption that President Ronald Reagan will sign tech-nical corrections legislation that anthorizes the Treasury to sell new 30-year bonds. "The upcoming supply is not a problem," Ramirez. So far for the market, said Maria Fiorini Ramirez, a has been issued.

A big reason the new debt is likely to be absorbed with little difficulty is because more government bond dealers are pursuing managing director at Drexel Burnham Lam-

The fact that the Treasury has been barred tures in 2018. By the end of last week the closely watched bond was offered at a price to yield 8.80 percent, the lowest daily close since it was issued nearly six months ago. The drop in issuance of new debt is not limited to the government market; supply has also contracted in the corporate, municipal and mortgage markets. New issuance of corporate bonds, including high-yield, high-risk "junk bonds," to-taled $225 billion in 1985, according to Mrs. Ramirez. So far this year, just $170 billion

The figures for 1988 do not include the recent spate of stunning takeover offers, which will largely be financed by high-yield securities. The importance of those offers, most especially the competing leveraged buyout proposals for RJR Nabisco, continue

Div. Vid. PE Wills 16th Low 4 9.M. Christ 10th Low Stock

This list, compiled by the AP, consists of the 1,000 most traded securities in terms of dollar value, 11 is undated below a year. Via The Associated Press

12 Manife High Low Stock Div. Yld. PE 100s High Low 4 P.M. Christ

25/4 13/4 BERT 3
7/4 BERT 3
7/4 BERT 3
7/4 BERT 3
7/4 BERT 3
15/4 SH 34 BERT 1
15/4

The control of the column of t

27% Claims
Claim

Div., Yild, PE 100s High Law 4 9.Al. Office High Low Stack Div. Yild, PE 180s High Low 4 P.Al. Chips

ral funds rate rose to 8% from 8% percent, there it had been for several weeks.

In 1986, Mrs. Ramirez noted, $180 billion in Treasury debt was distributed among 40 market.

buyout proposals for RIR Nabisco, continue to reverberate through the corporate bond in Treasury debt was distributed among 40 mass advertising.

JAMES STANDARD STANDA

By the mid-1970s, Mr. Leven U.S. sales of the little green bot-Div. Yid. PE 100s High Low 4 P.M. Chrys

| Title | Titl

- 16 # 1991年 1992年 1992年

PART STATE S

神がない

Page 8

BOOKS

AN EMPIRE OF THEIR OWN: How the Jews Invented Hollywood

By Neal Gabler. Illustrated. 502 pages. $24.95. Crown Publishers Inc., 225 Park Avenue South, New York, N. Y. 10003.

Reviewed by Christopher Lehmann-Haupt PERHAPS the point of Neal Gabler's lively history, An Empire of Their Own: How the Jews Invented Hollywood," is like the story of the three blind men who tried to describe an elephant. Countless observers have written brilliantly about the tail and trunk of Hollywood. But no book has quite gotten the whole animal that Gabler's does.

The point of Gabler's book is "that the American film industry, which Will Hays, president of the original Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, called 'the quintessence of what we mean by "Ameri-ca," 'was founded and for more than 30 years operated by Eastern European Jews who themselves seemed to be anything but the quintessence of America."

Gabler, a film critic and teacher who has served as cohost of the Public Broadcasting System's "Sneak Pre-views" television show, does two significant things with the theory he has identified.

First, he uses it as an organizing principle for a narrative history of Hollywood. Second, he employs it to explain his characters — why they created a Hollywood in the first place, why they made the films they did, why they behaved as they did while making those films.

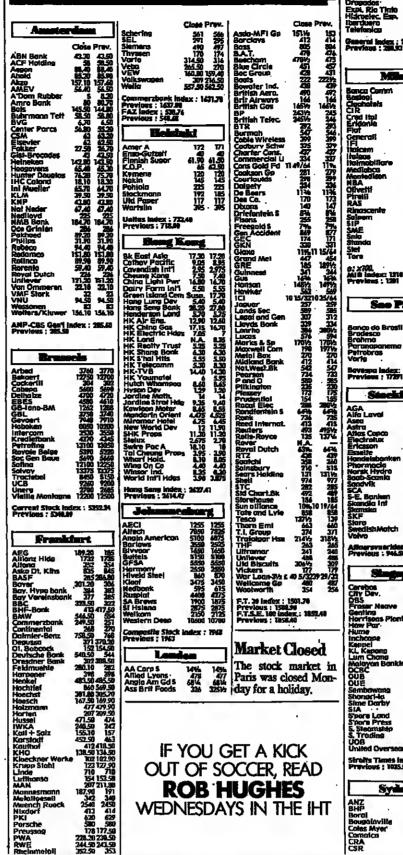

The first use is successful, on the whole. He traces a handful of Jewish movie moguls throughout their long careers: Adolph Zukor of Paramount Pictures, Carl Laemmle of Universal Pictures, William Fox of the Fox Film Corp., Louis B. Mayer of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Harry and Jack Warner of Warner Brothers, and Harry Cohn of Columbia Pictures. By doing so, he has found a way of telling the whole story that is compact and

The second use has both its successes and failures. Gabler persuades us that the Hollywood Jews were driven by "a patrimony of failure," their fathers having by and large been destinite and ineffectual, and that the movie industry attracted them because it presented fewer social and financial impediments and because it de-manded the sort of judgments of public taste that people from "fashion and retail" were practiced at making.

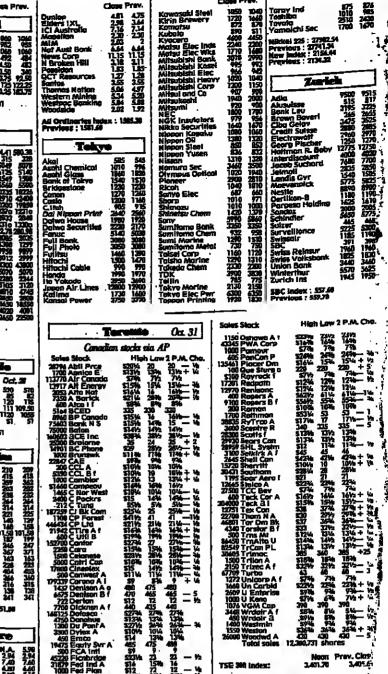

On the other hand, his chapter on Hollywood politics, called, somewhat lamely, "Refugees and British Actors" after what Senator Gerald Nye in a 1941 speech accused the industry of swarming with, is overdetailed and murky, it arrives at the not exactly original conclusion that while the Jewish executives were cowardly, expedient, arrogant, stupid and reactionary in response to the Communist which hunts after World War II, "they were also in the grip of a deep and legitimate fear: the fear that somehow the delicate rapprochement they had established between themselves and this country would be destroyed, and with it their lives."

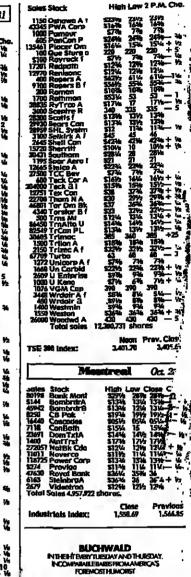

Christopher Lehmann-Haupt is on the staff of The New York Times.

World Stock Markets Via Agence France Presse Closing prices in local currencies, Ocs. 31

IF YOU GET A KICK OUT OF SOCCER, READ ROB HUGHES WEDNESDAYS IN THE IHT

CHESS

By Robert Byrne

Tal Tournament last month in Til-burg, the Netherlands, was won by Anatoli Karpov in excellent form. The former world champion from the Soviet Union finished the elite donble-round competition with a two-point lead over the field and was awarded the first prize of 20,000 guilders (about $9,800). Second place was captured by the British grandmaster Nigel Short.

In an almost leisurely way, Karpov repulsed an attack by the Dutch grandmaster John Van der Wiel in the ninth round and soon wiped out all resistance by a sharply executed transition to the endgame.

In the popular, flexible Flohr-Zaitsev defense to the Ruy Lopez, marked by 9...Bb7, it had become standard for Black to play 12...h6. In playing 12 Qd7, Karpov was harking back to a game between Robert Huebner and Lajos Portisch in Brussels two years ago. Karpov followed this through 16 b3, when, instead of blocking the position with 16_b4?! as Portisch had done, he kept avenues for counterplay open with 16...Qc7.

ACROSS 1 ---- mater

5 Prayer at a meal 10 Spa in England

14 Froth

15 Assistants

Menagene" Williams

20 Restaurateur

Leonard Siye

Musketeers

23 Currier and

24 Earth Comb. 26 Separated 29 A lempest in a 32 Boston airport

33 Slender

42 Fluent

44 Curse

50 Eaf out

35 Heroic poem

37 Wing for Amor 38 Grave

41 Dockworkers

45 Pitch pipe, B g

47 Slept noisity

19 Bai order

22 "The ----

16 Monster 17 160 square

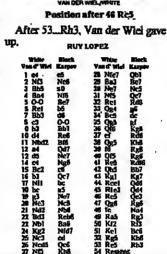

mass his forces on the queenside. So intent was he about obtaining active counterplay that he did not hesitate to open the c line with 25 ... cd!, even though that meant letting the white knights seize outposts wih 26 Nod5

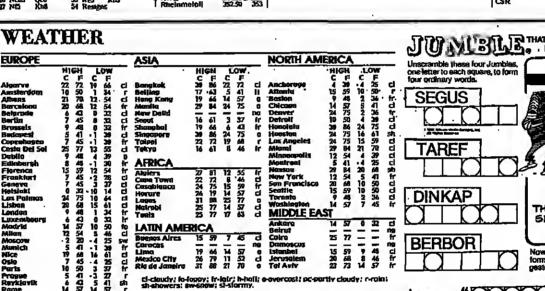

Van der Wiel could not exploit 28...Qb7 by 29 Rb1? because 29...Be7 30 Ne7 Ne5 31 Nd5 Nd3 32 Qd3 Be4 costs White material.

After Karpov had secured his position with 32...Rd8, the white a pawn could not long be held. Accordingly, Van der Wiei put his faith in a mating attack with 33 Qg4 g6 34 Bc5 dc 35 Qg5. After 35...gf 36 Qf6 Kg3 37 ef, it was not certain that the former champion could not have snatched a second piece with 37...Rd3 - he could have repelled 38 Re4 by 38... Rd4 and 38 Qg5 Kf8 39 f6 by 39. Nd7 — but he surely established quicker control over the situation with his 37_Rd6.

Van der Wiel could not take the exchange with 44 Bg6 hg because after 45 Rc5 Qd7 46 Qg4 Qd2 47 Rf1 Nd7 48 Rg5 Bf3 49 Qh4 Be2 50 Ra1 Bc4, he would be lost. Karpov's pseudo-queen sacrifice 46_Qe3!, ended nues for counterplay open with 16_Qc7.

After opening the b line with 17_bc 18 bc, he used moves 18-24 to 51 Rb5 Rt3 52 Be2 Be4.

JUNETE THAT SCRAMBLED WORD GAME, by Henri Arnold and Bob Lee THE LONGER THAT SERGEANT STAYED IN THE ARMY Now arrange the circled letters to form the surprise arrawer, as sug-gested by the above cartoon.

Siroits Times Ind.; 1039.27 Previous : 1035.93

1060 952 1066 492 494.50 494.50 73.75 73.75 73.75

251,00

Jumbles: OBESE BALMY HAMMER THEORY Answer: People with wanderlust seldom feel this-AT HOME AT HOME

West Germany: the land of quality craftsmanship. West Germany: the land where 300,000 Goldstar TVs and 400,000 Goldstar VCRs are produced every year.

7 Interhame 7 Ipsco 9 Ivoca A I 1 Janvock Kerr Add Lobott Lobott Lobiow Ca Lumonics

Computers/Audio/Video/Hosne Appliances Floppy Disks/Audio & Video Cassettes

49 Covers walls.

51 Aincan chief 52 Performed 55 Actiess

60 Portal 61 Glowing coal 62 Cultivals 63 Bancroft or

64 Area under a

65 Gabor and Tanguay 65 Humble 67 Midges 68 Victor Borge

DOWN

1 At a distance 2 Crazy 3 Astor or Martin

4 "God Bless 5 Choked 6 Gets one 3 goal 7 Jewish month

a Stop 9 Tee predecessor

New York Times, edited by Eugene Male

11 Ripening agen 12 Elm or fir 13 Present 21 Baking chambers

22 ---- la-la 25 Knee 27 Counts heads 28 Encore 30 Think 31 Rooler,

33 Artisan 34 Homophone for hymn 36 Freeway Bights 39 Paradise 40 Single step

43 Actress Cathleen Collins 46 Modernized 48 Disencumber 49 Spanish preste

51 Prepared to be knighted 52 Rib donor 53 Ice-cream holder 54 Musical sound

56 Eastem bishop's title 57 Prima donna 58 Verve 58 Other

61 Roe

PEANUTS DOGS AREN'T ALLOWED SORRY, SNOOPY..YOU CAN'T 60 WITH US ... ON THE SCHOOL BUS. 3

WHO

ARE THOSE

FOR?

NOBODY .. I

THOUGHT SOME

FLOWERS MIGHT

BRIGHTEN UP

THE ROOM

YOU WANT TO

BRIGHTEN UP

THE ROOM, TAKE

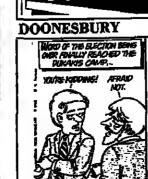

POWN YOUR

MOTHERS

PICTURE

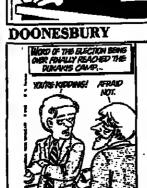

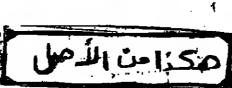

SPORTS

Golden State Warriors, who have better three-point shooters, the last 11 seasons.

star he was in college?

ward in the NBA?

hands and a lot of questions.

ston Garland. A healthy Larry

the director of player personnel and this season has added the duties of coaching the Suns.

Out West, It's Still Catch the Swift Lakers

By Sam Goldaper New York Times Service

NEW YORK -- And the Westorn Conference winner in the Naional Basketball Association will be? In the Midwest Division, it could be the Dallas Mavericks, or

All have the necessary ingredients not only to win the title but to challenge the Los Angeles Lakers in the playoffs should they meet. The Mavencks, deep, talented and experienced, pushed Los Angeles to seven games in the confer- won 54 games but were hampered ence final last season.

The Jazz, big and strong, drew national attention in the previous round by heating up on the Lakers with their inside game and outrum-ning them before succumbing in a and barring injury. Denver can reseven-game series.

and a defeated

many rela

rmant it are to the

TVS

: produi

there is Vice was season, Miami and San Antonio, the other division members, figure to be pilmg up losses.

After having advanced to the conference final for the first time in and the surprising 5-9 Michael Ad-icks left their roster untouched.

Although he acts up every so ofBullets and the Kings, set an NBA

Although he acts up every so of-ten, Mark Aguirre remains the acknowledged leader, a role he has held since he came to Dallas for the 1981-82 season. A 24.9-point career scorer, he is the small forward on the starting line with Sam Perkins and the 7-foot, 2-inch (2.18-meter) James Donaldson, who became a big force in the middle late last season.

Derek Harper and Rolando Blackman, a former all-star, make up the starting backcourt.
The surprise has been 6-11 Roy

Tarpley, who won the Sixth Man Award for averaging 13.5 points and 12.7 rebounds and erasing talk that the Mavericks were a "soft" team. a fumoy man but usually conservative in his predictions. Not this time.

He is predicting between 50 and 55 victories and he could be right. The Jazz won 47 games last year with an already big front line of Mark Eaton (7-4), Karl Malone (6-(6-11). They got even bigger with the addition of 6-11 Eric Leckner, the top draft choice from Wyoming, and Mike Brown (6-10) and Jose Ortiz (6-10), whn came in trades. - Malone, fifth in the league in

After five seasons of reported turmoil among players and coach, the Rockets will try to start over with Don Chancy, the new coach, and a revamped front line.

Akeem Olajuwon, Ralph Sampson and Rodney McCray, once considered the front line of the future, are no longer together. Sampson was traded to Golden State in midto Sacramento between seasons. In return, Houston came up with what could be another frightful combination of the 7-foot Seikaly is a center or a power for-Olajuwon and the 6-11 Otis ward in the pros and how good Thorpe. Olajuwon was the only player in the league to rank among We top 10 in scoring (22.8), rebounding (12.1) and blocked shots and 10.2 rebounds in Sacramento. tle and Portland, which may be with the highest per-game average.

At small forward. Chancy has several choices: the hot-shooting Purvis Short, the experienced Mike Woodson or a young Buck Johnson. When Olajuwon rests, there is Joe Barry Carroll. The key is Eric (Sleepy) Floyd, a creative guard who can play well the Utah Jazz, or the Houston when he is happy, which he was not last season. The first-round draft choice, Derrick Chievous, averaged 23.4 points last season at Missouri.

Doug Moe was voted coach of the year when the Nuggets won the division title after many had picked them to finish at the bottom. They in the playoffs by injuries to Lafayette (Fat) Lever and Jay Vincent. With the addition of Walter Davis, a six-time all-star with a 20.5-point career scoring average, peat as the division champion. While the four teams are expect-ed to beat up on each other all talented team. Though only 6-3, he was Denver's best rebounder and posted 11 triple doubles in scoring. rebounds and assists. Then there is the prolific scoring of Alex English

> The Lakers would like to send Kareem Abdul-Jabbar into retirement with a seventh championship ring.

record with at least one 3-point basket in 43 consecutive games. Reserve Jay Vincent is a 15.4

I in rebounding two years ago. Larry Brown may need every restore the Spurs to their former prominence, although David Robinson may be able to hasten the process when he arrives, perhaps in time for the playoffs. For oow, the Spurs have a fine backcourt in Alvin Robertsoo and Johnny Dawkins. Greg Anderson, regarded as a project when the Spurs made him their top 1987 scoring (27.7) and fourth in re-bounding (12.0) is getting better. So is John Stockton, the playmaker, who led the league in assists (13.8). last season. Willie Anderson, a 6-7 swing man and the 1988 top pick, could be another good one. It will be interesting to see what Brown gets out of Dallas Comegys. who came from the Nets in the Walter Berry trade, and Albert King, traded from Philadelphia. What is a team from Florida doing in this division? Dwayne (Pearl) Washington and Billy Thompson really are. Pacific Division good enough to challenge for a di-vision title elsewhere but here will continue to chase the Lakers.

NBA PREVIEW

Among the have nots, Phoenix is rebuilding, Golden State will try to remake a winning team under Don Nelson, back coaching after a one-year absence, and the Los Angeles Clippers will find out if six firstround draft choices in two years can turn a big loser into a winner. Sacramento, which couldn't win in the Midwest Division, will have the same problems here.

The Lakers fulfilled their coach's guarantee last season and became the first team to win successive tisince the Celtics in 1968 and '69. There were no promises for the coming season from the coach, Pat Riley, or anyone else. But there could be an incentive.

Quietly, the Lakers would like to send Kareem Abdul-Jahbar into retirement with a seventh championship ring. The 7-2 center, who has rewritten the NBA record books during his 20 pro seasons, has announced this will be his final year.

Some of the spare parts are gone - Kurt Rambis, Milt Wagner, Wes Matthews and Billy Thompson but in their places are Orlando Woolridge, potentially a big scorer, and David Rivers, who is discovering the difference between starring in the Notre Dame backcourt and helping the Lakers.

And the old guard of Abdul-Jahhar, Magic Johnson, Byron Scott, James Worthy, A.C. Green, Michael Cnoper and Mychal Thompson is still intact.

Two years ago the Portland Trail Blazers finished 16 games behind the Lakers in the division. Last season, it was nine games. This year? Under the new ownership of Frank Layden, the Jazz coach, is scorer, and the top rookie is Jerome Paul Allen, who made his fortune funny man but usually conservatione, who led the National Colletat the age of 35 in computer softgiate Athletic Association's Division ware, this is a young, talented team. Terry Porter is an excellent playmaker, Clyde Drexler, who averyear on his five-year contract to aged 27 points last season, is a ng star and Jerome Kersey was good enough to displace Kiki Vandeweghe at small foward.

The return of 6-10 Steve Johnson, who missed 39 games with injuries, should help. But the big Trail Blazer story has been 7-foot, 270-pound (122-kilogram) Kevin Duckworth, who went from unwanted secondround draft pick to being named the league's most improved player after averaging 21.4 points and 8.9 re-bounds in the last 49 games.

Many of the Sonies spent much of the summer in the California League learning coach Bernie Bickerstaff's new up-tempo offense, which some have said emulates the Lakers' running game.

Scattle, the only team with three 20-point scorers, has lost Tom Chambers and his 20.4 average. The expansion Miami Heat will But it still has Dale Ellis (25.8) and have a lot of losing Along the way Xavier McDaniel (21.4). The Son-Ron Rothstein, whose defensive ics were one of the better offensive wizardry was a big plus for the Pistons, will find out if 6-11 Rony season but one of the poorest on the defensive boards.

Enter Michael Cage, who earns his living rebounding. The 30 he grabbed against the Sonics on the final day of the season enabled him This is a division of haves and to edge Charles Oakley for the (2.71). Thorpe averaged 20.8 points have nots. The haves include Seat-league title, which goes to the player

Don Nelson has been a big win- last February with a series of ner both as a player and as a coach. trades. Larry Nance and Mike He has five championship rings. Sanders went to Cleveland for from his playing days with the Celtics and a 540-344 record after Mark West and small forward Tycoaching the Milwaukee Bucks for rone Corbin. James Edwards was 11 seasons. With those credentials sent to Detroit for Ron Moore and it will be interesting to see how long. Jay Humphries to Milwaukee for it takes him to make a winner of the Craig Hodges, one of the league's made it to the playoffs only once in Phoenix used its two first-round draft picks for Tim Perry from Nelson has quite a mess on his Temple and Dan Majerle, a swing man out of Central Michigan. Fi-Will he trade Ralph Sampson, or nally, it signed Tom Chambers for can the 7-4 giant ever become the experience and points and teamed him at forward with Armon Gil-Can Chris Mullin play small for- liam, who can also score.

The last time the Clippers made Nelson made an excellent draft the playoffs was in 1976, when the pick in Mitch Richmond, a hig franchise was based in Buffalo and guard who will play alongside WinJack Ramsay was the coach.

They may not make it again this Smith, who missed 62 games with a time but the future would be thigh injury last season, would help brighter if they could sign Danny the rebounding.
Cotton Fitzsimmons, who has Manning, the first player selected in the draft. No matter when they spent much of his baskethall life sign Manning, both he and the elping six franchises, is at it again. Clippers have lost valuable time He started in Phoenix last season as getting to know each other.

If coach Gene Shue can get any help from Norm Nixon, who has missed the last two seasons with The retooling of the team began foot problems, and if 7-foot Benoit last spot

THE BUILDING

Pittsburgh nose tackle Gerald Williams held on to Ken O'Brien for a sack, but the New York quarterback's teammate, former Steeler linebacker Robin Cole, made eight tackles, got two sacks and recovered a fumble that set up a touchdown in the Jets' 24-20 victory, their first over the Steelers.

By Claudia Levy

Washington Post Service

WASHINGTON — For four games this season, the Bethesda-Chevy Chase Boys Cluh's football team in suburban Maryland had practically rolled over the competition, winning three and tving the fourth in the Montgomery County Recreation De-partment's league for 12-, 13- and 14-year-olds.

It was playing the kind of hard-charging "contra football" that had helped make America strong.

the assistant coach, Todd Hansen, often told the boys during practice. Hansen had even had "contra" patches sewn onto their jerseys, using the name of the Nicaraguan rebels.

But when they showed up for a contest with Seneca Valley. Hansen and the coach, Matt Hampton, sat them down on the grass and confessed that the game was up. The team had just been disband-

New coach Don Nelson: A mess on his hands at Golden State.

Benjamin comes to play every night, the Clippers could possibly sneak into the final playoff spot. The Kings sold out their makeshift arena for every game last season and are close to selling out the new, bigger one. But although the fans are hungry for a winner, they will have to wait. Without Reggie Thous and Oris Thorpe, who averaged 42.4 points, it's difficult to see where the improvement will come from on a team that won only 24 games last season.

The likely playoff teams: Lakers. Trail Blazers, Sonies, Mavericks, Nuggets, Jazz and Rockets, with the Suns and Clippers battling for the

'Contra' Team Was Against Rules

SAN FRANCISCO - Quarterback Steve Young caromed off puryards from scrimmage, with two minutes left to play in Sunday's Young. Joe Montana's eager understudy, prides himself on his legs thighs as thick as tree trunks, calves like coconuts - and they almost quit on him at the end of one of the most dramatic touchdown runs ever hy a quarterback.

He had had just enough strength, though, and more than enough willpower, to lurch over the goal line with two minutes left to beat the Minnesota Vikings, 24-21.

in the second half, with hig plays in both halves. Wilson was 18 of 30 passing for 243 yards, and was sacked twice. Young, 14 of 25 for 232 yards, was sacked four times in his first start this year. Montana was on the sideline in street clothes because of back and rib injuries. But no one hit Young in those was not in good enough shape to fmish that run. Giants 13, Lions 10: In Pontiac, Michigan, a fumbled handoff by the National Conference East. from fourth-string quarterback John Witkowski, playing after Rusty Hilger suffered a slight concussion

Giants at the Lions' 22-yard line. to Lionel Manuel and Joe Morris kicked the field goal on third down, with 1:13 gone in the extra period. die Murray's 37-yard field goal with 5:19 left in the fourth quarter. Then McFadden's 57-yard kick on the final play of the quarter fell far week. About half of the B-CC players were just 100

The season seemed to be going great, going like gangbusters," the father of one player said. "And

"We knew something wasn't right after my other coach saw a kid drive off" at the wheel of a car after the game, said Kevin Hill, head coach for Mongomery Village, which B-CC walloped, 200-

Hampton, 26, a management analyst with the federal government's General Accounting Office, who has been a coach for five years, denied altering his players' birth certificates. But team members said Friday he had told them that a friend registering and weighing in players at the start of the season had altered the ages at his request.

hig and too old to be in the league.

Young Lurches 49 Yards, 49ers Beat Vikes by 3

ple-clad players like a pool ball, spun toward the side of the field. rolled back up the middle and flopped across the goal line, 49 National Football League game.

Candlestick Park shook with the roar from 64,517 throats. And the Sao Fraocisco 49ers swarmed around their new hero. But Young jogged off the field feeling, oddly, a hit embarrassed

For excitement and surprise, that broken-field jaunt topped Young's 73-yard touchdown pass to wide re-ceiver John Taylor, filling in for in-jured Jerry Rice, and Minnesota quarterback Wade Wilson's 67-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Carter. It was a game dominated by defenses in the first half and offenses final steps, and he didn't trip over anyone. He just got tired.

"I tried to tell my legs to keep going," he said. "I couldn't believe

Detroit's Garry James on the first play of overtime set up a 33-yard field goal by Paul McFadden, which put New York alone in first place in James took a straight handoff late in the fourth quarter. But run-ning over left guard, James fumbled the ball forward and linebacker Lawrence Taylor recovered for the

Phil Simms threw a six-yard pass The Lions had ned at 10 on Ed-short, forcing the NFL's fifth over-time game this year.

Hilger's 15-yard touchdown pass lead on the first play of the second quarter. But McFadden kicked a 42yard field goal late in that period and Morris's one-yard TD run, after a 31-yard pass interference penalty against Detroit's Bobby Watkins,

NFL ROUNDUP

gave gave the Giants a 10-7 lead with 4:47 left in the third quarter. The Giants had trailed by 7-3, with 9:13 to play in the third quarter, when they started the 61-yard, seven-play drive that ended with Morris's touchdown. Simms threw to Mark Bayaro for nine yards and to Maurice Carthon for nine, then flipped passes to Otis Anderson for gains of four and three yards dur-But the key pass was one that fell incomplete. With second-and-11 at the 34, Simms threw into the right corner of the end zone, out of the reach of Manuel, but Watkins was flagged for interference. The Lions argued, but to no avail; replays are not allowed on judgment calls. The call gave the Giants first down at the one, from where Morris scored. The game drew only 38,354 fans in the Silverdome, There were 5,026 no-shows. Oilers 41. Redskins 17: In Houston. Drew Hill broke out of a receiving slump with three touchdown catches and the Oilers' defense forced six Washington turnovers, four of which set up touchdowns. Hill scored on pass plays of 22, 33 and 11 yards from Warren Hill, who had dropped a catchable hall in the end zone at a turning point in the previous week's loss to Cincinnati. had opened Sunday's game with another drop in The Redskins had a three-game winning streak ended as the Oilers' defense recovered five fumbles and got one interception, Defensive end Ray Childress recovered three of the fumbles, including two by quarterback Doug Williams. Williams also was sacked three times, Seahawks 17, Chargers 14: In Seattle, rookie Kelly Stouffer passed for two touchdowns, the second a six-yarder to fullback John L. Williams with 3:43 left that beat San Diego and put the Seahawks into first place in the American Conference West.

Mark Malooe's second louchdown pass to Anthony Miller in the fourth quarter cut the margin to three points with 53 seconds to play. But Sleve Largent recovered San Diego's on-side kickoff. Stouffer, replacing injured regular Dave Krieg for the fifth game in a row, had thrown a 23-yard touchdown pass to rookie Brian Blades with 52 seconds left in the first half

Raiders 17, Chiefs 10: In Los Angeles, Steve Beuerlein returned as the Raiders' starting quarter-back and passed for 248 yards to help beat Kansas City for the second time in three weeks

Beuerlein, who started the season's first three games before being replaced by Jay Schroeder, was 18 of 29 passing with one interception. Bo Jackson and Marcus Allen each scored a touchdown for the Raiders. Allen, who rushed for 70 yards on 21 carries, became the team's all-time leader in touchdowns with a one-yard dive late in the second period. (AP, UPI) ■ McMahon Out 4 Weeks

The Chicago Bears lost quarterback Jim McMahon for at least four weeks when his right knee was injured Sunday in the 30-7 loss to the New England Patriots, The Associated Press reported.

Clarence Fossier, the team phy-sician, said the oft-injured McMahon would miss more than a month if a torn ligament or cartilage dam-

ESCORTS & GUIDES

LONDON INTL ascorts for Japonese + Orientals. Major credit cards airport areas. Fel. 370 5957/603 7194. ICANDON EXCLUSIVE escort service. London/Healthow areas. Credit cards. Telephone. 01-352-0498.

O N O O N New German Escort & Travel Service. Tel: 01-482 6250

TOKYO  TOP ESCORT SERVICE Major credit cords occupted. Tel: (KG) 436-4598.

Senna young occort agancy 833371

Angelo, Brito & Cormen Escort and Guide Service, Call 069 / 597 6666

ONOON

The coaches "gave us a big lecture about why we shouldn't lie, and stuff like that," a 12-year-old said. Added a teammate, 13: "Both of them said they felt age is found. McMahon was hurt about two minutes into the second quarter bad about it, and they said they shouldn't have done when, with the Bears trailing by 9it - that it should be a lesson that cheating is wrong, 7. he was hit from behind as he threw an incomplete pass on a third-and-9 play at his 23-yard line.

SCOREBOARD

th (on Pone) 11-8-15-34.

Exhibition Results

Cleveland 110, Charlotte 102 Olicaso 109, Phoenix 95 Milwaukse 111, New Jersey 80 127-5 110, Danver 97

POR SE

drawn up Tibetan g

112 State 121, Secremento 112

The results TOURNAMENT with about Pullonspells

BASKETBALL

SUNDAY

FOOTBALL HOCKEY 4 5 0 164 170 3 5 0 152 173 3 5 0 177 184 5 1 0 210 130 7 1 0 278 158 3 1 1 100 108 3 4 1 142 198 3 2 0 114 85 5 3 0 198 129 College Standings NHL Standings 3 5 0 177 186 3 5 0 194 259 2 5 0 194 259 2 5 0 96 223 2 5 0 194 220 2 6 0 134 250 2 4 6 132 204 1 8 0 195 294 WALES CONFERENCE 3 2 1 108 111 4 3 1 125 178 3 3 0 115 108 5 4 0 205 186 1 4 1 91 147 2 6 1 137 274 Petrick Division W L T Pts GF GA Conference AltGames WLT Pts IIP W LT Pts IIP Bowl, Grn Keni St. Miami, O. WILT PES IIP W LT PES IIP 5 00 108 63 7 9 00 179 120 31 0 95 50 4 2 1 147 112 2 1 1 7 75 57 2 4 1 96 122 3 2 0 116 99 4 2 5 0 163 164 2 3 0 101 90 2 2 5 0 149 170 1 3 0 45 102 1 4 0 80 228 6 4 1 54 128 0 6 1 7 8 180 Celevial Legalus witness Conformacs Conformacs AllGames WLT Pts IIP W LT Pts OP 5 0 0 158 77 8 0 00 272 132 4 0 0 132 55 4 3 0 141 157 3 2 0 132 155 J 4 0 175 219 2 2 0 104 92 5 2 0 277 127 2 2 0 67 117 4 4 0 177 215 1 2 0 76 77 3 4 0 169 177 0 4 0 58 115 4 4 0 192 139 0 5 0 63 174 0 7 0 113 225 NFL Standings 8 41 54 128 0 61 78 180 Colonial League Conference WLT PTS OP W LTYPE OP 3 0 9 122 89 6 1 11 313 162 2 1 0 75 52 7 2 0 244 145 2 1 0 91 87 6 2 0 248 180 2 3 0 88 84 2 4 0 131 157 1 2 0 49 79 2 60 187 253 0 30 33 85 0 80 84 205 Contact Conference AMERICAN CONFERENCE W L T Pd. PF PA 8 1 0 289 199 139 5 3 1 411 206 134 5 4 0 356 176 182 4 5 0 444 155 199 3 5 0 375 150 156 0 5 0 83 T24 0 7 0 113 205 Pacific-10 Conterence Conterence WLT Pts IIP W LT Pts IIP 50 0 173 96 7 0 0 220 110 4 1 0 154 96 7 1 0 310 133 3 2 0 101 106 6 2 0 226 122 2 2 0 58 E2 5 3 0 144 175 2 3 0 96 96 5 3 0 122 148 2 3 0 142 142 5 3 0 279 202 2 3 0 96 113 4 4 0 194 160 1 3 1 97 139 3 4 1 174 204 1 3 1 92 E2 3 4 1 161 146 1 3 0 46 166 5 3 0 194 162 Big Sky Conference Centrel 7 2 0 .778 252 178 8 3 0 .667 153 132 4 3 0 .667 215 213 2 7 0 .222 189 241 0 3 0 33 85 0 8 0 84 205 Yorkse Conference Conference WLT P/5 IIP W LT P/5 IIP 5 1 0 133 01 4 2 0 174 146 4 1 0 124 48 5 2 1 177 130 3 2 0 132 95 4 2 0 24 119 3 2 0 132 95 4 2 0 24 119 3 4 0 175 175 4 4 0 118 195 2 3 0 127 127 4 4 0 196 177 2 4 0 88 142 1 2 5 0 112 201 2 4 0 142 142 2 6 0 168 209 2 5 0 84 172 3 5 0 98 185 Sentic Coast Conference 2 7 0 222 187 241 West 5 4 0 556 192 174 4 4 6 500 167 161 4 5 0 222 116 186 1 7 1 167 112 149 1 CONFERENCE Calgary Les Angel Edmonton Vancouver Winnipeg Big Sky Conference Conference AliGemes WLT Pts OP W LT Pts OP 4 1 0 147 116 6 1 0 210 160 tic Coast Conference mic Coast Conference AllGames WLT Pts IIP W LT Pts IIP W LT Pts IIP 4 1 0 130 65 6 2 0 214 102 41 10 112 48 4 2 0 213 77 4 1 0 142 123 5 3 0 202 214 2 0 110 138 6 2 0 230 217 2 2 0 92 78 4 4 0 181 183 2 3 0 110 134 4 4 0 185 164 1 2 0 85 164 1 7 0 187 292 essi: Calgary Ion Weeks | 5-7-6-18; Voncou-5 10 195 128 7 2 0 271 150 5 20 195 128 7 2 0 271 150 5 20 197 140 4 5 0 205 297 5 4 0 197 140 4 5 0 205 291 5 4 0 194 147 4 4 0 237 180 5 2 3 0 136 143 3 5 0 227 185 5 3 0 136 143 3 5 0 227 247 2 4 0 134 161 2 6 1 175 271 0 5 0 67 175 0 0 0 113 302 Im Moog) 12-8-9-3-31. Manipes 2 2 6-4 Manipes 1 1 4-9 Anthon (3), Ellett 2 (4), Etyruük (2), Githen (3), Ellett 2 (4), Etyruük (2), Heurield (?); Kasheinyski (?), Greizky (10), Nicholis (11). Mylor (5), Shots on Sodi: Los Angeles (on Retyruik (2)) 1 3 0 55 148 1 7 0 150 292 0 4 0 01 125 2 6 0 139 135 L.A. Rame New Orleans Son Francisco Ta-ElPoso SYU

0 0 0 118 364

0 4 0 75 215 0 8 0 138 346

Conference All-Gomes WLT Pts OP W LT Pts 11P 5 1 0 162 83 7 1 0 224 117

Atid-American Conference

BASKETBALL

SOCCER

National Botkethall Association (NDIANA-Put Stave Stagnovich, conter, on

WORLD CUP QUALIFYING

EDSN 6 3 0 AA7 190 178 5 4 0 556 276 179 196 178 4 0 556 276 179 4 5 0 A44 203 187 2 7 % 222 143 182 Central 7 3 0 .778 164 113 5 4 0 .556 205 162 2 7 0 .222 160 167 2 7 0 .222 160 23 0 .779 190 149 0 .667 199 172 SUNDAY'S RESULTS
Attento III, Philodelphia 24
New England 30, Chicago 7 Cieveland 23, Cincinnati 14 Buttalo 25, Green Bay 0 Los Angeles Rams 17, New Orleans 10 Miomi 17, Tempo Boy 14 Phoenix 16, Delias 10 New York Jets 24, Philipburgh 20 New York Gloris 13, Detroit 10, OT Scottle 17, Son Diego 14 Son Francisco 24, Minnescho 21 Los Angeles Ruiders 17, Konsos City 10 Monday's Gome CFL Standings W L T PF PA PIS 13 4 B 527 317 26 9 8 0 447 416 18 x-arii Cimb Colpary
(x-Clinched playoff beri
(y-Clinched first place)

ed — and Hansen and Hampton barred from coaching in the county - because the birth dates of six, and perhaps up to nine, players had been falsified, recreation department officials said last ESCORTS & GUIDES INTERNATIONAL ESCORT SERVICE Head office in New York 330 W 56 St NYC 10019 212-765-7896 212-765-7754 MAJOR CREDIT CARDS AND CHECKS ACCEPTED

LONDON LONDON Fortman Escort Agency of Chibern Street
Landon W7
Tek 486 3724 or 486 1158
All major credit pards accepted BELGRAVIA Escort Service. Tel: 736 5877 MERCEDES HOOMOU VIP ECCRT AGENCY MEDAY THE MEDISHT - 7 DAYS MAICR CREDIT CARDS ACCEPTED TELLONDON (01) 225 0009 KENSINGTON ESCORT SERVICE 10A Kendington Church St. W TEL: 937 9136 or 937 9135 MADRID Glomour Excert Service, Tel: 259 90 02 MAYFAIR CLUB ROTTERDAM (0) 10-4254155 CAPRICE-NYC ESCORT SERVICE IN NEW YORK TEL 212-737 3291 * * Z U R I C H * * Top Escort Service, Tel: 01/41 76 09

INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFIED (Continued from Back Page)

and you can't get away with it."

ESCORTS & GUIDES ESCORTS & GUIDES ESCORTS & GUIDES  TOKYO VIP BEAUTIFUL * Escort Service Tel: (03) 582-7123 ZURICH 558720 ARISTOCATS Private Tourism Guide Service Credit Cords Accepted London Escart Service 3 Shouldham Street, London WI All major Credit Cards Accepted Tel: 01-258 0070 [3 LINES] 12 noon - malangha ESCORT SERVICE. 18.671 1867. TBL671 1867.

AMSTERDAM APOLLO CLUB
Excot Service. Tel: (1200/66176 from 2 pm. 76, Apolloloon Armiterdam.

ATHENS EXECUTIVE ESCORT AND Guide Service. 7 days to week, English spoken. Tel: 3641746 Athens
IONDON LOVELY MUNEL
Elegober 1 service.
Telephone: 01-286 7303 CHEISEA ESCORT SERVICE. 51 Beauchamp Place, London SW3 Tel: 01-584 6513/2749 (4-12pm)

9 Vienna Escart Service 56 86 84

LONDON LATEN AMERICAN

Escort Service. Open seven days week, 1ek 01 706 1973.

SENDY SELECTIVE ESCORT Service. Central London. 11cm - 11pm. Six days a week. Tek 01-630 8032.

*ZURICH CAROLINE ESCORT SERVICE. 01 /252 61 74 Scort Service 069 / 68 24 05 GENEVA * MELODIE * ESCORT SERVICE Tel: 022/461158 LONDON CACHET INTERNATIONAL Multilingual VIP Scort Service, Tel-289 0739 LOVELY SWEDISH ESCORT Service Stockholm. Please call between 11am and 7am. Tel: 00946 8 454020 or 817627 87/527

#ADRED #APACT ESCORT and Guide Service. Metriforguel. Visc. Open 11cm michight. Tel. 261 4142

ROME CUIB BUROPE ESCORT & Guide Service. Tel. 06/587 2604 or SB7 1146 (from 4pm to 9-30 pm)

LONDON DOMUNIQUE GENEVA  ROYAL  GENEVA **

* VP + Exort + Service ***

* Tel: 022 / B12 772 * BELLA ESCORT SERVICE Cantrol London, Heathrow Credit cords occupied. Tel. 01-581 5642 HAMBURG ONDON BRAZILIAN ESCORT Service Open seven days a week Multi-linguid, Tel: 01 723 4666 Escal Service HAMBURG

AMSTERDAM BERNADETTE ESCORT Service. Number one, 24 hr. Service. Collaij 20-327799 or [0] 20-362833. "RIKKI-SWEDISH" HIGH CLASS ESCORT SERVICE. Telephone - 589 8015 LONDON LONDON COLETTE French VIP Escort Service, Tel: London (01) 580 5022 (01) 580 5021 MUNICH + 91 23 14 ESCORT AND GUIDE AGENCY. The FRANKFURT "TOP TEN" BSCORT SERVICE TEL: 069 / 55-88-24, THE BEST IN TOWN und guide service. Tale Genevo: 022/35 68 23. TOKYO Enquisite Escort Service  (03) 358-7322 SHADOWS * * * # Exact Service. Telephone: Madhd 341-262-6536

MILAN VIP Escort Agency 2-461125 AMSTERDAM 2000 Excert Service. All credit conts accepted. Telephone. ID 20 - 91 1030 or 06 - $21 30912 CONNOISSEUR CLUA London Escon Service. Tel. 01-376 4327 6 01-281 0982 AMSTERDAM JASMIN Escori Service, Tel: 020-333033. The best in lown, Credit cords occapited.

Leonard Nimoy: Life After Mr. Spock

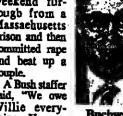

ART BUCHWALD

The Crime Campaign

WASHINGTON — After the presidential election is over, by and the crowds went into paroxpolitical debts must be paid. The ysms of joy." ... men and women who did the most for their candidates have to be re-

And so it will be after Nov. 8. If George Bush wins, there is no doubt that the person who'll get all the credit is Willie Horton, the murderer-rapist Who was given a weekend furlough from a Massachusetts prison and then committed rape and beat up a

Willie every-Buchwald thing. He was probably the most important issue in the entire election, and the candidate doesn't lorget the people who were there when Mr. Bush needed them."

"How did you find Willie?" "The campaign was looking for a lor all he's done?"
"It's a great ph soft Dukakis was on crime. Willie's name popped up in the computers and we rushed it over to the boss. At first, George, who is by nature a kinder, gentler person, didn't want anything to do with it. He told us, This will make Dukakis look bad because Willie's furlough took place on his watch.' But Bush's handlers said, 'You owe it to the country to reveal what a sleazy governor Dukakis really is,

"That should have sold George," stump with the Willie Horton issue the crowds went wild -- and just in ne. Up until then, the candidate had put his andiences to sleep with his plan for the environment, and every time George discussed the deficit, it was Valium time. The minute he listed the world leaders he had met, everyone stretched out lie Horton Post Office' across from on the floor and snored. But as soon as George mentioned rape and murder and Willie Horton, he got nothing but standing ovations.

Statue for Press Hero

LOW COST FLIGHTS

ACCESS VOYAGES

One Wey York
FROD Particular
Troncision F1500 F3
In F1795 F3
I

of lat & business close

£235 £235 £200 £180 £458

Restrictions may captly
Tel: (1) 40.13.02.02 & 42.21.46.94
6 roe Fierra Luccot, 75001 Peris
Metro - RER Chetalet Las Hollas
(L. 175.111) __maid now
ACCESS IN LONDON

The Associated Press LONDON - John Wilkes, an 18th-century champion of freedom of the press and of American independence, has been commemorated with a statue in London.

"Were his supporters cheering murder and rape as an idea?"

No, they were cheering the Iact that the governor had let Willie Horton out of the pokey, which showed what kind of a president Mike Dukakis would make, At first, we thought that Willie would be a good issue for a couple of weeks - but it turned out that Bush got to like it. The people couldn't get enough of the speech. It was like asking Irving Berlin to sing 'God Bless America.'

Supporters drove hundreds of miles just to hear George tell them how dumb it was to have let Horton out of prison. We circulated pictures of Willie on the covers of programs at GOP fund-raisers, and people doubled their contributions. It made this a one-issue election."

"Have you ever thought of hav-ing Mr. Bush meet and thank Willie "It's a great photo opportunity, but we decided not to do it until but we decaded not to do it until after the election. Don't lorget, be-sides screwing up his furlough, Wil-lie also endorsed Dukakis for president from his cell." "Was that your idea?" I asked

"No, Willie's. He thought of it all by himself. I think he's hoping to be awarded the Medal of Freedom if Bush gets into the White House."

"It's going to be hard for the Bush administration to find a job tration to find a job When Bush traveled out on the for Willie now that he is back in the

"Something will come up maybe an ambassadorship to a small country that doesn't mind diplomats with a criminal record." "Perhaps you could name a gov-ernment building after him?"

"Bush was thinking of The Wilthe governor's mansion in Boston, just to stick it to Dukakis for the sleazy campaign he ran."
"I'm sure Willie would like that.

You know it's quite possible that, if Willie had known he was going to be the most important person in the 1988 presidential race, he might have gone straight and never committed a crime at all." "That wouldn't have done him any good. If he had kept clean, no one in the Bush campaign would have even mentioned his name."

MOVING

1992 - NOW I

interdean

INTERNATIONAL MOVERS

FOR A FREE ESTIMATE CALL

REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE

PERSONAL MESSAGES

MAY THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS be adorate, glorided, lowed and preserved firroughout the world, new & forever, Socred Hour of Jesus, proy for us. Said Juds, worker of prescrice, proy for us. Said Juds, help of the hopeless, proy for us. Soid Juds, help of the hopeless proy for us. Soy this proyer nine times a doy, by the ninth day your proyer will be conswered. It has never been known to foil. Publication must be promised. A.C.

THE JAPANESE JUNGLE JUICE brother will join on on Dick's Bor, Vol d'Isere on Jon 28th, 15 pm.

LEGAL NOTICES

ANNOUNCEMENTS

LEGAL NOTICES

MACROBAND CORP. OF AMERICA V.
Horry & Posici Kostchis, Notice Defiendorst funds is Chemical Book, NY
NY accounts 114/2277, 042/27104 ordered by NY Supreme Court Oct.
12, 1988 to be rereed over to Microband.

AND NOTICES

AMESTERDAM
ARICANA
BONN
BRUSSES
CADIZ.

FRANKFURT GENEVA
LONDON
MADRID

By Aljean Harmetz

New York Times Service
T OS ANGELES -- Leonard Nimoy tries to suffocate his joy, to stuff his happiness back into his chest as if it were a quilt being crammed into too small a bag. It is unseemly that at 57 he should be so happy.

And this exotic feeling, coming as it does after years of being dutiful and earnest and, above all, serious, is built on pain. Five months ago he woke up at night in a hotel room in Toronto, startled awake by his own tears. "It's about loss," he wrote on a pad next to the bed. These words became a blueprint to the movie he was directing -The Good Mother."

In the movie, opening in New York on Friday and based on Sue Miller's novel of the same name, Diane Keaton steps into the uncharted waters of sexual passion. What she risks losing because of the man with whom she falls in love is custody of the 6-year-old daughter who is the center of

"It's about loss" was also a blueprint to Nimoy's life. In December 1986, he walked out on his wife of 33 years. In 1987, his father died. His mother drifted softly into death six months later. In 12 months, he had lost what he calls "my base," his guilti-ly played roles of husband in a marriage that had turned stale and son to the immigrant parents he could never satisfy. There was also a more complex loss. Spock, the Vulcan with the pointed ears

ry on the spaceship Enterprise, was anything but invisible. Yet Nimoy, the actor who had made a career being Mr. Spock on "Star Trek," had spent his life trying, in important ways, to be anonymous.

"I'm a second child who was educated to the idea my older brother was to be given respect and not perturbed," he says. "I was not to upstage him. I was to give ground.

and too logical mind sailing the 23d centu-

So my acting career was designed to be a supporting player, a character actor.

The high profile that Spock attained was unnerving I was relieved to be nominated Ior an Emmy as best supporting actor even though I had star billing in 'Star Trek.' Being a supporting actor would be less threatening to my peers and superiors. I used acting for many years as a way of hiding behind characters, of hiding in a very public profession."

His self-chosen seat in the back of the bus has been lost since Nimoy became a director Iour years ago with "Star Trek III." His second movie, "Star Trek IV: The Voyage Home," was praised by critics for its wit and made by ticket buyers into the most successful of the lour "Star Trek" films. Only two or three films a year sell more than $100 million worth of tickets. "Star Trek IV" grossed $107 million. When Nimoy's third movie, "Three Men the autodidact's respect for the intellect and for literature."

Nimoy on the "Good Mother" set.

The house he bought a year ago has a red tile roof and rough walls of white stucco, and the canyon in which he lives is damp even at midday and filled with magenta flowers -- azaleas, impatiens -- that thrive in the mist. There is a train in one corner of the living room and a wooden swing behind the stucco wall that separates the house from the winding canyon road.
"I am cohabiting with a woman who has a 7-year-old son," he says, in the slightly and a Baby," grossed $167 million to over-take "Fatal Attraction" and become the top box-office hit of 1987. Nimoy bobbed up to the status reserved for star directors.

The novelist Diane Johnson, an old friend, describes him as "a nice, earnest Jewish boy, hard-working, family-oriented, under-educated for his intelligence, with him. He laughs for no reason, the laughter spilling out like water overflowing a bucket that is too full to contain it. In "The Good Mother," Diane Keaton plays "a lady who is trying to step out of character and who makes the mistake of reaching too far and is injured," he says. For its director, the movie turns on society's discomfort with "the idea of sexuality and motherhood in the same individual For a mother, we want the act to be very antiseptic and secretive and low level. Behind the door, please, and don't enjoy it.

Don't come out smiling." For a man, climbing high and reaching far is less risky.
"I didn't consciously say I'm going to change everything," says Nimoy. "But change everything," says Nimoy. "But quite unexpectedly I have turned 180 degrees in my life in all ways. I found a way to say, T'll take charge."

"After I died in Star Trek II,' I reached for the brass ring for the first time and I didn't even realize what I was doing," Be-cause he had insisted that Spock die, he had no contract for "Star Trek III." "Money was not an issue. I knew they wanted me, but what should I ask for?"

He had refused to make the first "Star Trek" movie until Paramount paid him half a million dollars in disputed royalties for toys and posters and hunch boxes featuring Mr. Spock. "That put us over the hump financially," he says. "And it cleaned up a lot of garbage that had been lying around and making me bitter, alugh maybe it wasn't a conscious effort by them to put this guy in his place."

During the decade between 1969 when "Star Trek" went off the air and the first movie in 1979, Nimoy played minor film roles, joined the "Mission Impossible". ion series for two years and was the third or lourth actor to step into the shoes of the original star of a few Broadway

To entice him into making "Star Trek II," Paramount "gave me a job opposite Ingrid Bergman in 'A Woman Named Golda' and I got an Emmy nomination,"

Waiting to discuss "Star Trek III" with a Paramount executive, Nimoy read a review praising the director of "Star Trek II," Nicholas Meyer. A speech from "Julius Caesar" rushed into his head: "Why, man, he doth bestride the narrow world like a Colossus; and we petty men walk under his huge legs and peep about to find ourselves dishonorable graves."

He told the executive, "I think I can do a meaningful job of directing this picture."
Says the mischievous Meyer, "Leonard's chief characteristic is his doggedness, his perseverance. I coached him behind the scenes about how to get the job, because Paramount didn't want to let him direct."

EMPLOYMENT

GENERAL POSITIONS AVAILABLE

BASEBALL COACH

baseball club seeks coach From March to Octobe Describ: Mr. Rothenhouser Phone: 1-235 54 32 (Zurich)

GENERAL POSITIONS

EXPERIENCED BRITISH JOURNALIST, fluent Italian, seeks cureer change. Tel: Rome 6869163.

For years Nimoy had directed in bittle theaters. He had even directed himself in a one-man show about Vincent van Gogh because a director would have cost $5,000. Says Harve Bennett, the producer of the last three "Star Trek" films, "As actors go, Leonard is so intensely bright I always wondered if he wanted to be an actor at all." So "Star Trek III" led to "Star Trek IV" and the intoxicating taste of freedom and another woman. Sandi Nimoy chooses her words carefully. "He left me after 33 years of marriage. I spent the first 15 years being the only one who believed in him and struggling with him. I believe I had a lot to do with where

"It had to do with taking my own territory," Leonard Nimoy says. "I should not be performing duties, fulfilling empty contracts for the sake of not making waves."

Freedom was not without guilt. "The day I went to tell my parents I had moved out of my house, Newsweek had my picture on the cover, I stopped at two or three markets to take it as a gift to cover the fact I was going to deliver a devastating blow."
His lather, a barber from the Ukraine,

had never understood his son's ambitions. From the time Nimoy was 10, a cookie jar in their Boston apartment held the dimes be made selling newspapers. The money was to be saved for his college education. But when he was 17, Nimoy was cast in Clifford Odets's "Awake and Sing" at a settlement house. "I was sent reeing," he says. "I was playing the troubled teen-ager. I was a troubled teen-ager. I thought, Twe got to do this for the rest of my life. But my father said he didn't come to America to raise kids to be actors."

At 18, be left home. "I was obsessed, but I didn't know what I was doing. I stumbled around Ior years." Because he spoke Yiddish, he got work every time the Yiddish theater came to Los Angeles for a week. In 1951, he was paid $350 in cash and three $50 suits to play the leading role in a movie called "Kid Monk Baroni." He married at 22 and had a son and a daughter. Thirteen years later he won the role of Mr. Spock. "For the first time I had a job that lasted longer than two weeks and a dressing room. with my name painted on the door and not chalked on," he says. If he was once frustrated by having

Spock tied to him like a tin can to a dog's tail — in desperation, he wrote a book titled "I Am Not Spock" — he is now grateful for the riches Spock has provided. His divorce will not be final until December, and the property fights are still ugly. But whatever happens, he is, he says, happy. No longer "serious, very serious, very serious," he laughs once more - suddenly, abruptly, unexpectedly - and the sound rolls on and on through the night.

AUTOMOBILES

AUTOMOBILE REGISTRATION Ser

Victs, expired plates O.K. Write; P.O. Box 404, Son Pedro, Marbella, Spain or call RAM: 3452 784201; 2452 788655 (FAX) Spain

AUTO SERVICES

AUTOS TAX FREE

PEOPLE

Greenan Castle Believed To Be Arthur's Camelot

The ruins of the Scottish castle, Greenan, owned by generations of Kennedys, is believed to be the site of King Arthur's Camelot, and the legendary monarch could be an ancestor of President John F. Kennedy, said Burke's Pecrage, Britain's authority on aristocracy, which said earthworks of the early Iortress survive and the description nearly matches that of a similar fort in Arthurian legend.

Prince Charles has angered architects with his critical documentary on England's post-war archi-tecture but he has won the public's support. A poll in the Sunday Express showed 87.8 percent of those interviewed thought it was right for members of the royal family to speak out on such issues. An editorial on the front page of the Sunday Telegraph hailed the prince's documentary as a "tour de force."

The 25th anniversary of the National Theatre was celebrated and the company's new name, the Roy-al National Theatre, was toasted in London. Queen Elizabeth II un-veiled a plaque before "The Tem-pest," directed by Sir Peter Hall.

An auction of English familure and paintings, porcelains and silver belonging to Claus and Martha (Smary) von Balow ended at Soth & eby's with sales of $11.5 million.

Martin Gottlieb, 40, editor of The Village Voice in New York City, has resigned, citing "signifi-cant disagreements" with the publisher over long-term goals.

President Royald Reagan, de-claring that the Holocaust must not be forgotten, received the annual Humanitarian Award of the Simon Wiesenthal Center in recognition of his "historic contribution to the cause of world peace.

The Kennedy Center's Friedheim first prize for new American orches-tral music, worth $5,000, was award-ed to Christopher Rouse, 39, of Bal-timore, for his Symphony No. 1. п

Dimitra Liani, 34, the companion of Prime Minister Andreas Papan-dreon of Greece, and her architect hasband, Alex Kapopoulos, 48, have divorced by mutual consent.

THE EXECUTIVE HOTEL

57 PONT STREET

KNIGHTSBRIDGE,

E CORDON BLEI Trommende en Fronce Series, ecoláng demos in English. Wednesdoys 6-8pm, Nov. 2, 9, 16, 23. Telephoner #85-6.6.00, 8, roe Leon Delhomma, 75015 Peris. RELING low? — howing problems SOS HEEP priss-free in English 3 p.m. 11 p.m. Tel: Paris 47 23 80 90. ALCOHOUCS ANONYMOUS English speciang meetings doly. Tel: Poris 46 34 39 65 or flome 678 0320. WORLDWIDE PLIGHTI USA crytine, $160, west coost $260. APP, 103 roe La Boefie, Paris 8th (a few yords from Ch. Byseel, Tel. (1) 42.89.10.81. PARIS & SUBURBS PERSONAL MESSAGES MOVING floor, lift, colm, countyard, professiona HOMESTEP. Small & medium moves. boggange, cars worldwide. Call Char-les Parts 42 81 18 81 (near Opera). SACRED HEART OF JESUS and St. Judg, area again grateful thanks for continuing to drawer our prayers. CA. Tel: 42 63 06 88

After all just how much fine COGNAC can One family make?

You may have heard tell of the extraordinary nature of Hine Cognac. The lustrous golden clarity. The aroma that plays melodies even on tone deaf noses.

But it is possible that you have not yet enjoyed a glass yourself. For Hine is rare.

Because ever since 1763 it has been made exclusively by the Hine family in the old, uncompromising way. Still aged in traditional small oak casks and blended by Jacques & Bernard Hine themselves.

So trust to rumour, speculation and vicarious account no more. Taste for yourself. If you can get your hands on a bottle.

CLASSIFIED INTERNATIONAL REAL ESTATE REAL ESTATE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE TO RENT/SHARE WANTED/EXCHANGE CANADA CREAT RRITAIN in Morrocco, preferably located of Tongers/Morrolesh, Cely locate for sole should reply to Mr. R. Ko of Hot 3, 15/F., on Woh led. Bidg., Fo Yon, Shoin, N.T. Hong Kong, Fore, (852) 0-eM1016, Tels [852]0-609494 SUPERB LIDURY FLATS TO LEF IN CENTRAL LONDON Hyde Pork, Maytiar & Kansington, Persocally supervised & monog Angloble now, Sul holiday or lon lef, From $390.00 week, Tel.01-935-9158, Foxe935-0852. TORONTO, CANADA 6 Linuxy Intrhomfront condes New building, immediate prosporacy. 1 and 2 Bedroom with Lake and City waves, 800 to 1,200 sq. ft. srats, at $400 par EMPLOYMENT West Kensington first time let. Superb operturent beautifully furnished 2 bedrooms bothrooms, kussy kitchen. SECRETARIAL continental offices, seeking two highly professional bi or trilingual, Assentan souther tongue assistants to high pressured president and vice-president. Excellent secretarial skills it references, solary negotiable, lampediate. Cell for appointment from 10cm to soon, Ask for Mr. J.P., Tels Paris [1] 42,93,63,23. HUNTINGDON HOUSE, luxurious ser-viced appartments in Central Landon Tel: 01-3/73 4525. Teles: 25293. Face 01-3/73 6676. THAILAND DWN A TROPICAL BEACH HOUSE 3-year old international community. Houses built on 1-torce lots on the scat benefits beach in South Thol-and, 8 lots left, Ingvine Lafet Beach Co., 205 W. 15th St., Soits 28, New York, NY 10011. USA: 212-924-4670. PARIS AREA FURNISHED DOMESTIC POSITIONS AVAILABLE RENT A FLAT WITH KITCHEN for 2, 3, 4 persons on a daily base from 1700-1850. Hotel , Poris 16 -Boile. Tel: 45 53 14 95. All PAIR/HOUSEKEEPING-Live in, immediate. To easily more with 2 lick, 3 & 1, most orders lick. English specifies, non-souther. Working, non-souther. Working, 101 Kote Dr., New Hyde Ruft, NY 11040 USA, Tek 516-741-1482 PARES BRENVENUE. Ferrished studies and opertments in central Poris, eightly, weekly, monthly. 47 53 80 81. SWITZERLAND. LUXEMBOURG / MONTPARNASSE GENERAL POSITIONS case. Short or long term. No ogency foes. Tal: 43 25 08 91 DESCRITY FROM OWNER: WILLARS SUR CILION, very central. Beaufill three-room operimest, very acidarily equipped. Magnificial view. for information: Hilds Lesies, Igor Stravinsky 4, 1820 Montreux, Switzerland. Tel. 47 21/963 22 18. WORK AT YOUR LISSURE: American business seeks assistance in handling light administrative duties. Work in your home. Must be a resident of Germany. Furest English a wast. No experience necessary. Retirest welcome. Apply with CV Box 2583, U-17., Friedrichtst. 15, 6000 Fronkfurt/Moin. SWITZERLAND TO LET NEAR GSTAAD, furnished opertment, 2 bedrooms. Winter season or yearly. Call B.P.G.C.L., Switzerlands (22/3) 66 31.

ATTENTION EXECUTIVES in the International Herald Tri-buns, where cares them a third of a million reactors world-wide, most of whom are in business and leakarty, will read it. but tolay or (Paris 613595) before 10 a.m., en-ming that we can taken you book, indicate which sucjer-ceast eard you wish to charge it a, the number and exper-tion date, and your message than the property message. BUSINESS

OPPORTUNITIES

FUTURES TRADING FULL CAPITAL GUARANTEE Experts in Fatures Trading for over 25 years now accepting new disents in extended range of pools inimum investment 20,000 USS)

WHITE FOR FREE BROCHURS Dustn & Hargitt Research S.A. Dept. 6-17 988 6, evenue Lloyd George, Box 5 8-1050 Bruccek - Belgium Restricted in Balgium and LLK.

OFFSHORE COMPANIES
Free professional consultat
Vortawide incorporations Instability
Full confidential services

International Business Message Center BUSINESS SERVICES OPPORTUNITIES PARIS AMSWERING SERVICE VENDOME (1)40:20,08:20. Mol., phone fox, 8r. FESO. Secretary, Erronds. LONDON ADDRESS BOND TO Mol., Phone, Fax. Tales, Conference room. Call 01-499-9192, 1x 262590. OFFSHORE & UK FINANCIAL SERVICES

Hard to Borrow? Processor services

Boot registrations

Boot registrations

Accounting 3 Administration

Moil, telephone 8 telest

Free explanatory bendder from INTERNATIONAL COMPANY

SERVICES LTD

Springfield CL, New Cardistow

Rd., Douglas, lete of Man

Tel: Out of Man

Tel: Douglas, lete of Man

Tel: Do Guaranties Provided We do not make loans Minimum: $100,000 TERMS: 5 - 20 YEARS THE FUNDING ASSISTANCE CORP USA (212) 755-9400

INTERNATIONAL OFFSHORE COMPANY INCORPORATIONS FROM US$150 papershersive professional services DIAMONDS DIAMONDS WE ARE SERIOUS BUYERS FOR ALL feators bronds (Franch, German and American) ears de toliste, calognes, cosmelies and body products (decoding aparation can be inspected). Please send your offers to FRASZANCES DU MONDE Face Hollands 31-72-61 33 66

OFFICE SERVICES ROSES/ CARNATIONS. Many varieties ZURICH-ZURICH-ZURICH YOUR OFFICE AWAY FROM HOME

Imprime par Offprint, 73 rue de l'Evanglie, 75018 Paris.

I.S. DIVORCE IN 21 DAYS. No mod to travel, with or without consent of spouse, Dreimer Legal Associates, p/a 1E. Westeringshessistropt 54/54A, NL. 1017 TP Assertans, Holland, Tel. 3120-840226 or 823058. Fore 823058

AUTO SHIPPING

TRANSCAR 17 ov de Friedland, 75008 Paris, Tel 42256444, Nice 9321 3550, Antwerp 233 9985, Carmes 9337 4344

GUAM USA DIVORCE Foxt, Both sign no travel, Free Book, Altormy Dor Parkingon, Box BK Agona, Guom Phone 671-477-7657 or Fasc 477-8550.

COLUMBRA: John E. Peorl, Apor-todo 39/14, Colle 90, No. 11-21, Begois, Columbia, TL. 236 97 47, 236 60 96, Thu 43072 (MA) CO.; COSTA RECA: Cacilio de Segovia, Aportado 436, Son Pudro Mantes

TONDON 2MIX OBD TEL: 01-581 2424 TELEK: 941 3498 EXECUT G FAX: 01-589 9456 LEGAL SERVICES U.S. LAWYER Perion Francis, Cor-porate, real estate, will, femily low, Available for consultation in Faris Nov 7-Nov 14. E. D. Burrows, 750 Third Ave, NYC 10017, (212) 818-1990, Fasts (212) 818-1995, The 42006 (BURPOST) Elegance, privacy, and excep tional value in one of the world's most fashionalhe neighbourhoods. Buffet style English breakfast included Single: £49.95 + VAT Double/Twin: £64.95 + VAT Edra Single: £19.95 + VAT

Page 17 FOR MORE CLASSIFIEDS

Place Your Classified Ad Quickly and Easily in the

INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE

By Phone: Call your local IHT representative with your text. You will be informed of the cost nediately, and once prepayment is made your ad will appear within 48 hours. There are 25 letters, signs and spaces in the first line and 36 in the following lines. Minimum space is 3 lines. No abbreviations accepted. Credit Cards: American Express, Diner's Club, Eurocard, Master Cord, Access and Visa.

WITZERLAND: Mosshall Wol-ter, 21 Ava. dos Désartes, Ol-1009 Pully, Seisse. Tel. 41-21 25 30 21. Fra 41-21283091. AUSTRIA & GERMANY: Signed Kenned, LHLT., Frindrichstream 15, D 6000 Frenkfurt, Tel.: 009/72 of 55. The 476721, HTD. Fra 727310. HELGRUM & LIDEMBOURG: Arthur Maismer, c/o hura, 5/ rue 18. Colyns, 1060 Brussik. Tel. 343.18.99, 343-1914. Thu 23922 IMBA B. Fiz 346-0353. GREECE & CYPBUS: I.C. Rennesson, Findorou 26, Albens 10673. Tel.: 3618397/3602421. The 218344 BS GR. Fre 17249508. DENMARK: E.M. Klebien Kostel-vej II, DK-2100 Copenhogen, Denmark, Tel.: (01) 42 93 25. PINLAND: Pirio Tomminiani, Oy Publiscon All, Fredrikintonu 338, SF-00120 Hubinid, Finland. Tel. 64712. The 12-2814 StG-COSF. Fre 64748. SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.: Suite 300, 779 Sorgone Street, Son Francisco, Ca. 94111. Tel. 415) 362 83 39. Tr. 650 327-1375 MCI UW. Fr. 415-362-5474. Storp, EUROTALK Ltd., The Veloge Centre, Bollybrack Co. Oublin, Tel.: 826 411, Fx; 826403.

Via della Mercede, 00187 Rome, Tel.: 679-34-37, The 620500 PRCSRA. NETHUSELANDS: Arnold Tees-ing/Alfone Grim, Prof. Tulp-streat 17, 1018 GZ Armiterdam, Tel.: 020-26 36 15. The 13133, Fix [20] 257955. NORWAY: First Isdahl, P.O. Bert 115 Parada, Berger, Norwey. Tel.: 91 30 70. Thr.: 42925 (Public N. Fir. 913072.

HAMAIL Caral O'Day, 3615 Harding Avenue, Suite 408, Ho-rodulu, Hi 96816, Tel., 808-723-1004, Fs., 808-723-1009 CANADA TORONTO: Terry Brune. Globe Media International, 444 front Street, West Toronto, Ontorio, Canada. M5v 259. Tel.: 416; 955-5455. Tr.: 06-219629, Int. 416-585-3275. LATIN AMERICA ARCIENTINAS in Percel, Rocido 869 P.D. 1005 Beance Aires. Tel. 313 6884. The Coloring po-bies 32-7900. The Coloring po-bies 32-7900. Pass de Cor-volho, Deser Pertisposones Lide, Rue Soo Jose 70, 9 cindor, 50 de Jonesiro. Tel. 027 227 2577. The Zariago Dies Br. PORTUGAL: Rita Ambar, 32 Rus dos Jonelos Vendos, Lisbon, Tel. 672793 2 662544. The 16791 YORKP 100 71 YCROP SWEDBN: Karin Hendahl, Lodu-goordwegen 24, S-18338 Toby-Stockholm, Sweden, TeLr (00) 772049, Far 08-7607472, oftra 7720949,

TURREY: Sabo Sarol, 73 Macha Cad, Tamiliya, Istarbul Turkay. Tel. 1488537 / 476689/ 148487, Te. 27379 CARTE. Fe. 131Q386. NORTH AMERICA

AROWEST: Harold Leddy, Leddy & Associates, 345 Autour: Ave-sus, Winnelto, Illinois 60093 U.S.A. TeL (312) 446 79 85.

MUDDLE EAST JOSDAN: Foud Komol, Medio Consultants, P.O. Box 811738, Avenue, Jordan, Tel. 624430. America, Jordan. The 2227 MKJO. CONYA & THE SPYCHE LERANCOL: Wolfel Azzi Yomon, P.O. Sox 11-688, Beinst. Tel.: Honor Office, 341457. The 42244 LE. CMAN: Mr. Trevor de Monte, Monague, Auto Advertière, Agen-cy, 75 Mustroh Baiman Ostrid, PO SCX 6275 fluvis SETANATE OF CMAN. Tel. 78809.

GATAR: Adel Sulton, Dono Pub-lic Relations, P.O. Box 3797, Doho. Quier. Tel. 416335/ 411177. The 4984 DANAIR DH. SAUDI ABABIA: Řeisel Bushnek Advertising, P.O. Box 5771. Juddah, Tel. 667-1500; Th.: 40381 COLORS. TUPISIA: Abdalessiek Berrobah, Société Robah, 7 rus de l'Affac-lice Ariano Septrinore, 2000 Tunis, Tunisia. Tel.: 710 797. FAR EAST

Apartado 436, San Pedro Monte de Oca, Son José. Tel.: (506) 2406/2. Th.: 1050 RACSA. ECLIADOR: Luigi Lenterno, Len-terno y Associado, Consultress, Ca LTDA, Pedro Carbo 652, P.O. Box 300 Palicarto, Guoyagi, Es-uador, Tala 52 28 15, TexASSO1 PGCGYE. PGCGTE.

MISCOCO: Sescrico Cregoriro, Correvunicedones Internacionales, Rio Marries No. 19-204. Cal Cacabitasco, DET. 08:000 Marico. Tel.: 535 3164. The 17/43/9. (c/o Shardon Hobb. Indicate lale-phone namber on teles).

MINAMAM C. A. Breisi, etc. Cherc. phone number on teles).

PRINAMA G.A. Berini, c/o Chortend Managament, Publisher'.

Network inc., P.C.S.

6-6646 El Derendo, Penome, Reyalds: of Passum, Tels 69-975. Tits. 2206 CH-MITER PM. Fre (SIT) 63 BS 04.

PRILLE Ferrando Somelento, Alvarez Cadderon 155, Pho 2, Son tricko, Lime-27, Peru. Tel. (5114). 417-852. Tits. 20469

GYDSA-Fre 416 422. SINGAPORE, MALAYSIA, BERNE: UHT, Singapore, 138 Cad Street, W-92 Cad Court, Singapore' 5104, Tel.: (65) 222 64 79.9, Tbz. 297-49, Fr. 224 15-66

Affiliant: Ye Chang, BYOCH Publicity Aguncy, P.O. Box 1642, Taipin, Towan, Tel. 752,4425, Tim 11887 BYOCH THAKAND: Yvon Van Outrive Rajopark Building, 17th Floor AUSTRALIA

NEW ZEALAND

SOUTH AFRICA